At the close of the festivities the score stood 11 to 4 in favor of Manager Tansey's men. Some excellent games are in store for the baseball fans of this district during the next few weeks, when the champion teams of several leagues will appear in succession on the local diamond. Next Sunday, April 5 the Beverly Hills Merchants topnotchers of the Los Angeles County League will be seen here, game to be called at 2:15 at the high school grounds.

Rotarians to Have Wives as Guests

Members of the Rotary Club of Torrance will bring their wives to next Thursday's luncheon to hear Fred McNabb speak on the subject of California flower gardening. Mr. McNabb's articles have been published several times in The Herald and many local residents listen in on his addresses over KFI each week. Mr. McNabb will lay special stress on the types of flowers which should be planted in Torrance at this season in order to be in full blossom in July at the time of the American Legion's flower show.

Mrs. C. W. Huber of Tehachapi is visiting her daughter Mrs. H. J. Savage for a week.

Earthquake Felt Here on Monday

The Book section of the Women's Club will meet Thursday, April 5, at the Clubhouse at 7:30.

Easter Message

By REV. R. A. YOUNG

At the foundation of the Christian system is the cradle. The center is the Cross, for where the Cross is not there is no Christianity. The empty tomb is more wonderful, for the final test was in the Garden, and not in the Stable.

The Babe born in Bethlehem lived, grew, wrought and died. Jesus is a historical fact. He is no longer disputed by intelligent men. Jesus becomes the Saviour of the world not only by His beautiful life, but by His sacrificial death. Yes, surrounded by mystery, but the mystery cannot overshadow or disturb the glorious ministry of redeeming grace. The Cross faces the eternal facts in human history; it meets the challenge of evil. No matter how dark, how dreadful, the Cross says, "I can clean it all away and restore man to his Creator." The religion of Jesus Christ faces all the facts, the worst and rejoices in its power to redeem the whole universe.

The creed of our Christianity is the song of Victory. Thank God we can comfort you with this message. "He is not here, but is risen." Immortality is a destiny. The beautiful lilies that adorn your home tell us in miracles sublime that spring is here and death is giving place to a more abundant life. Christ has opened to us the way and has gone to prepare an eternal home for all that love Him.

As your friend and Christian minister, I greet you in the name of our Risen Lord and King and inviting you to worship with us on Easter Morning.

Sincerely,
R. A. YOUNG.
