Mrs. H. Gutfenfelder she dyed 1000 eggs for Harvest to give away to the kids when he opened up his new store and battery station and he give away all but about 200 and he tried to give them away but he couldn't and Mrs. G. she has made him eat all them 800 and since Easter he has et eggs in every way they could be served and he says now every time he looks a hen in the face he blushes.

This here colyum was not put out at election time because they was already enough funny stuff going on.

Jens Jensen was in and he looks at his self in the glass partition and then he peers at the bus. mgr. and says yes sir us bald headed men has got a right to be sore every time we shave.

Slim Purnell who works down to the Zoo he up and got wedded and his southern accent will be much missed around the evening haunts.

Slim he drives a truck and Hank Ulbright he says now that Slim has got hooked up he won't be the only driver in Torrance by the name of Purnell.

Earl Conners when he left his seat on the Council Monday nt. he says it sure feels good to be one of the common peepul again and says if the council don't do its stuff he is gonna take a seat on the public's side of the railing and tell em off.

Earl is pretty near ready to open up his new restaurant down on Cabrillo and he tells the council that he will be too busy to come to many meetings but if they want to see him they can come down to the eating house any time and enjoy his company at so much per plate.

Dewey Fix says the old cash register at the filling station seems to ring prettier than it used to. He says where he used to hear it it sounded kind of dull but now it is music to his ears.

Sam Levy he come in a day late to pay his bill but he took off his discount anyways and says I would have pd. it yesterday only I had the missus up to the Hot Springs and the bus. mgr. he says well that aint no reason why you should try to keep us in hot water and Sam he just luffed.

NICE THINGS TO EAT
Who doesn't enjoy the flavor of a choice cut of ham? Where ham is available to be cut from, try the following:

Barbecued Ham—Cut the ham into thin slices and broil quickly. Arrange on a platter and add to the fat in the pan a teaspoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of made mustard, a dash of red pepper and four tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Stir until bubbling hot, then pour over the ham and serve.

Armenian Goulash—For this dish use two lamb or mutton hearts and wash them, then remove the arteries. Cut into inch cubes and parboil, then drain. Mince eight onions very fine with three green peppers. Place the vegetables in a saucepan with the hearts, one teaspoonful each of thyme and sage and one quart of boiling water. Cook until the meat is tender, then add one dozen dumplings prepared as follows: One cupful of mashed potatoes, one teaspoonful of salt, three-fourths cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley and one teaspoonful of baking powder. Mix and form into twelve dumplings and drop into the goulash. Cover tightly and cook gently for fifteen minutes. Lift the dumplings to a hot plate, season with salt and thicken the gravy.

Fried Oysters—Select large oysters, wash thoroughly, picking each one over to remove all pieces of shell. Season with salt and pepper, dip into cracker crumbs, then into egg and again into cracker crumbs. Fry in deep fat until brown. Serve with sliced lemon and chili sauce.

Custard Potatoes—Take a pint of cubed potatoes. Heat one pint of milk, add salt, pepper and two beaten eggs. Cook over water until thickened, add chopped parsley and pour the custard over the potatoes in a baking dish. Place the dish in water and let stand until the custard covers each piece of potato like a rich sauce. Serve hot.
