Sandy and Scotty Buy Toggery; Will Feature National Brands

Introducing two Torrance young men whose wide acquaintance and popularity in this territory makes an introduction almost unnecessary. Just the same—introducing "Sandy" and "Scotty" latest additions to the list of Torrance retail merchants.

Sandy—Roland Sanderhoff and Scotty—James H. Scott this week purchased and have already taken possession of the Torrance Toggery, next to the First National Bank on Sartori avenue. They bought the store, fixtures, stock and all from St. Rappaport, and will conduct the business under the name of Sandy and Scotty, the Toggery.

Mr. Sanderhoff has lived in Torrance for five years, having been associated here with the Columbia Steel Corporation in the purchasing and engineering departments. Mr. Scott is well known as a member of the staff of the First National Bank. He has lived in Torrance for eight years.

Scotty and Sandy have decided to specialize in nationally advertised lines of men's furnishings. They will feature Hart, Schaffner and Marx Clothes, Stetson hats, Phoenix hose, Hendaan shirts, Hickok belts and other trade marked articles.

Business men throughout the city and their many friends are congratulating Sandy and Scotty on their new enterprise. Their wide acquaintance throughout this district is expected to bring them a large patronage.

Mr. Rappaport said today that he intends to devote his time to interests outside of Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vonderahe and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe were the dinner guests of Miss Katherine See of Los Angeles Monday.
