HOT BREAD AND THINGS

Hot breads add much to the pleasure of breakfast, luncheon, or that consist of meals—the Sunday supper. With a hot drink, a little jam, or marmalade, one can make a satisfying meal of hot bread.

Orange Waffles—Cream one-half cupful of butter, add one cupful of sugar and two well-beaten eggs. Sift two and one-half cupfuls of flour with one teaspoonful of cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful of ginger, add to the first mixture, alternating with one-half cupful of sour milk to which one teaspoonful of soda has been added; add one orange, juice and rind, and beat well. Drop by spoonfuls on a hot waffle iron and bake until brown. Serve with butter and marmalade.

Sunday Hot Bread—Cream together three-fourths of a cupful of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of butter, add one well-beaten egg, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt and two-thirds of a cupful of milk, then add one and one-half cupfuls of flour sifted with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat well and add two tablespoonfuls of orange juice; the grated rind of the orange, mixed with sugar is sprinkled over two layers of the mixture; spread in layer cake pans. Bake twenty-five minutes in a hot oven and serve hot.

Golden Gelatin—Soften two tablespoonfuls of gelatin in one-half cupful of cold water, then add one pint of boiling water and when the gelatin is completely dissolved add the juice of two lemons and two oranges with sugar to taste. Pour into a mold and chill. Serve with whipped cream.

Stained Chocolate Pudding—One cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of soft butter, one cupful of milk and one and one-half cupfuls of flour, sifted with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one and one-half squares of chocolate melted over hot water and one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. Steam two hours. Serve with whipped cream.
