MRS. FRANK CARR GIVES SURPRISE PARTY
Mrs. Frank Carr entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home on Andree avenue with a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Frank Mineck.

Decorations were carried out in pink and white, with the same colors adorning the birthday cake. Three tiny girls, Nellie Savage, Barbara Ann Dahlman and Emilia Carr carried in the shower of gifts and presented them to the honoree.

Those present were Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Harry Savage, Mrs. Florence Dahlman and two daughters, the Misses Dahlman and Donna Dahlman of Venice, Mrs. Harry Alcott, Mrs. William Wittick of Venice, Miss Laura Brown, Mrs. Harry Warren, Mrs. Mineck and the hostess, Mrs. Carr.

ASSOCIATES HONOR

MISS GREENLUND
Miss Helma Greenlund was honored Monday morning, when the telephone operators of the Torrance exchange entertained with a lovely waffle breakfast.

This was in the nature of a homecoming welcome, as she has just returned from a vacation. At this time it was also announced that Miss Greenlund was the recipient of a 5 year service pin, a reward for her 5 years of service in Torrance and Lomita.

Baskets of lovely garden flowers decorated the table which was set in the operators retiring room.

Besides the honoree were Mrs. Margaret Farris, Miss Lillian Faulkner, Miss Ruby Geery, Mrs. Marie Harrison, Mrs. Lillian Haun, Mrs. Gladys Henderson, Mrs. Lillian Hogan, Mrs. Georgiana Peters and Mr. Lawyer, traffic manager of Los Angeles.

MR. AND MRS. YETTRA GIVE HOUSEWARMING
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yettra of Acacia street, entertained last Sunday with a housewarming and dinner.

The evening was spent playing bridge. Honors were won by Mrs. M. Karl, Mrs. M. Geller and Mrs. D. Blank.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. Blank, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Karl, Mrs. L. Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergman, Mrs. M. Geller, Miss J. Levin, Miss F. Levin, Miss J. Gensburg, I. Duse, Adele Geller, Julius Blank and Mrs. M. Bergman.

SCOTS HOSTS AT DANCE

Lomita-Torrance Scots 43 Club were the hosts at a dance given at the Torrance Women's Club last Saturday night. A good crowd attended the dance and all spent a very enjoyable evening. Music was furnished by the Jane Gregor's Beach Club girls' orchestra.

MRS. J. H. FESS IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. J. H. Fess was hostess at a pretty luncheon Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the Southern California Deputy Grand Matrons Association at her home on Arlington avenue.

Pink tuberous begonias formed the attractive centerpiece and favors and other decorations were pink also.

Guests included Mesdames Lucy Franklin, Lillian Cones and Joe Scott, all of Los Angeles; Anna DeMott of Hollywood; Sadie Dickerson of Ontario; Mable Norton of Upland; Bertha Eisey of Long Beach; Mable Guinn of Whittier; May Cleveland of Monterey Park; and Elizabeth Cleminson of El Monte.

CHANGE NAME OF THIMBLE CLUB

Ballot changed the name of the Torrance Thimble Club to the Helping Hand Club at their meeting at the home of Mrs. Pearl Thrapp on Star street, Lomita, Friday, August 10.

Reason for the change was given that so many of the members were not residents of Torrance, but came from Lomita, Huntington Park, Long Beach and surrounding towns.

The next meeting of the club will be held Friday, at the home of Mrs. L. V. Marsh on Star street, Lomita.

MRS. CHANEY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. George Chaney very pleasantly surprised her niece, Eileen Blodgett, Tuesday evening with a charming birthday party. A beautiful birthday cake with pink candles adorned the center of the table and the color scheme was done in pink and white.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Williams and son, Egan, of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Robinson, Mr. John M. Chaney of Davidson City, Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney, Mrs. Jessie I. Smallbach and the Misses Thelma Smallbach, Alice Rice and Eileen and Bonnie Blodgett.

TORRANCE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. E. Flaherty returned recently from a trip to Flint, Mich., in a new Buick coupe. On the return to Torrance, they visited Yellowstone National Park and relatives at Ogden, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Post have returned from Flint, Mich., where they took delivery of a new Buick coupe. On the return to Torrance, they visited Yellowstone National Park and relatives at Ogden, Utah.

Mrs. Jim Moore, Mrs. Hal Stanger, and Mrs. Harry McManus spent the week with Mrs. Dick Smith at Anaheim Landing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Egger and two sons of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Miller, Monday evening.

What Do You Know for Sure?

We are sure of one thing. When we opened our Torrance store a year ago on March 14th we shot the high-priced shoe business full of holes. When we made a single purchase of over $11,000 worth of shoes from one manufacturer and dumped these shoes on the local market, 100 cases to a crack, prices came down and have never been able to get back up to where they used to be. Our story from time to time has been NO PROFITEERING. Our 1928 shoe prices were not advanced. Now the ice is broken for 1929. Eastern shoe manufacturers have now cut the prices of their shoes 10c to 30c a pair. Our point is this: We own our shoes on a lower market. We offer you our $40,000 stocks of standard footwear at 50c to $2.00 a pair less. Why pay more than we ask? We are sure that we can replace our shoe stocks for less later on so here goes our profits on the largest stock of staple shoes in this city. You are welcome to buy every pair. We will do a lot of this work, just for the fun of it, but we don't mind.

STOCK UP NOW ON SCHOOL SHOES
Every pair was priced low in the first place, now every pair is cut again.
