Masons, Stars Frolic at Park Ball Game Feature of Torrance Outing in Orange County

Seventy-five or 100 people from Torrance attended the Masonic-Eastern Star picnic held at Orange County Park last Sunday.

The picnic was the old fashioned basket variety, and was a huge success in every way.

Joe Stone, one of the entertainment committee, made gallons and gallons of lemonade. Others on the committee were Dr. O. E. Fogsum, A. Shriner, and W. H. Stanger.

In the afternoon were races of various types, and games of horse-shoes.

The baseball game, which proved to be the feature of the day, was played by teams captained by Bill Stanger and Charlie Mueller.

At this close of the third inning, Bill Stanger's team held favor with a score of 7 to 2. By the end of the game, however, Charlie Mueller's team had gained its second breath and took the game by the wide margin of 25 to 10. John Dennis was the bright star of the game.

Class for Art Students An effort is being made to establish in the Torrance evening high school, a class in freehand drawing and painting, for those persons who wish to follow this line as for those who desire to look forward to professional use of their ability. One evening each week. If you are interested, let the Torrance evening high school know about it.

Need for additional storage space and locker room at East Cafe has prompted such additions as are being made now. The new room will be located in the upper half of the high ceilinged kitchen.

GET RID OF THAT COLD—

Don't let it drag down your vitality and sap your energy. Do what hundreds of others in Torrance have learned to do whenever they get a cold, BREAK IT UP WITH THE BEACON'S "COLD BREAKERS," the wonderful little capsules that break up a cold in short order and without discomfort. A 25 cent box of the Beacon's "COLD BREAKERS" will relieve your cold and revive your strength.

If you have a bronchial cough, we recommend "Ammoniated Tar and Wild Cherry." We have found this particularly healing to the irritated membrane in the throat. It's the "ammonia" that does the trick and makes this cough remedy superior to many others. 50c a bottle at the
