

PICTORIAL LIFE OF HERBERT HOOVER No. 6 By Satterfield

1. When Herbert Hoover was eleven, he moved from Iowa to Oregon, to live with his uncle John Minthorn. 2. Dr. Minthorn had a farm and an academy for boys. Herbert attended the academy and helped on the farm.

3. After a year Uncle John went into business in Salem. Herbert's first business experience was as office boy. 4. "Why don't you go in for engineering?" suggests a mining engineer who came into Uncle John's office.

Huntington Library Open 5 Days a Week

Broadened Plan of Admitting Visitors Starts This Week

Stating that the Huntington Library and Art Gallery would again be open to the public on October 2nd, a press dispatch today gave details of the new and broadened plan of admitting visitors to the famous historical collection at San Marino.
Due to the tremendous number of applications received in recent months it has been decided to increase the allowed number of visitors from 300 to 500 daily and also to add to the number of visiting days. In the future from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive of each week visitors will be admitted and also of the first and third Sunday of each month. Visiting hours are from 1:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.
Applications for cards of admission should be addressed to the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Marino, California, specifying the date and number of admissions desired, and enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope for reply.
Applications will be filled in order of receipt. Not more than five cards of admission will be issued to any one applicant. Children under ten years of age will not be admitted to the buildings. For the immediate present the number of admissions will be limited to approximately 500 each day.
Persons going by the Pacific Electric Railway should take the Sierra Madre cars to the Huntington Library stop, then walk north on San Marino avenue to Stratford Road, following this through the double iron gates to the Library. Those coming by motor from Los Angeles should proceed along Huntington Drive to the San Marino station of the Pacific Electric railway, then north on San Marino avenue to Stratford Road, following Automobile Club signs through the double iron gates to the Library; from Pasadena, proceed east on California street to San Marino avenue, then south along San Marino avenue to Stratford Road.

The decision permitting a larger attendance to the Library and Art Gallery was due to the ever-increasing demand for admittance tickets, records showing that from February to August inclusive more than 30,000 persons had viewed the famous collection. Many science, art and history classes from the Southern California educational institutions were among the horde of sightseers, and various institutions of learning are making applications for groups of students to make a visit during coming months.

Registration Closes October 6
