SOCIETY

CLUB DANCE COLORFUL EVENT

Opening the Women's Club social season, the women held a costume dance at the clubhouse last Friday evening, which was a huge success.

Interesting costumes and good music marked the evening as one of the most entertaining of its kind.

W. Harold Kingsley as Al Smith, and wearing a Bowery costume and a name tag, was the hit of the evening. He was awarded first prize in the men's division, and on receiving the prize he recited the state motto and made a speech of appreciation. He said, "I'm just on my feet on sea, and just in the act of my emigration."

The George P. Shuler as an Alaskan shik, was awarded second prize.

Edith's first prize went to Mrs. J. J. Jones, who was dressed as a New Yorker. Her costume was made in every detail, having been brought from Boston, New York.

Mrs. J. J. Nelson as a happy girl, wearing a second prize costume, was donated by the following merchants: furnishings by Mrs. D. J. Goods, box of cigars by Al Carter, permanent wave by Tammy Beauty Barber, sofa pillow by Louella Lee, furniture company, were: Mrs. C. N. Curtis, baby doll; Mrs. M. Brooks, Detroit; Mrs. W. M. Brooks, woman of 1849; Mrs.

J. E. Stone, little girl in rumpers; Mrs. C. E. Chambers, Dutch girl; Miss Esther Maxwell, colonial dame; W. Harold Kingsley, Al Smith, brown derby, white spots and all; Mrs. Isabel T. Henderson, Elizabeth Frye, English Quakeress; Major N. F. Jamieson, Scotchman; Jane Helms, football player; Mary Gaynes, colonial girl; Mrs. George P. Shuler, Colonial dame.

In charge of the punch bowl were Mrs. Frank Weiss, assisted by Miss Irene Newby and Miss Doris Wood.

Mrs. J. H. Millburn was cloak room attendant.

Mrs. George D. Watson was chairman of the committee executing the dance, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Dilley.

Ambassadors orchestra furnished the music.

Mrs. J. H. Millburn was cloak room attendant.

HONORS BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Waddo C. Darnell was delightfully surprised Sunday when Mrs. J. C. Darnell of Fullerton entertained with a dinner in honor of her birthday.

Table decorations were pink and white, with Cecil Bremer roses and fern forming a lovely setting.

Mrs. Darnell was again entertained in the evening with a dinner given by Mrs. A. Lawrence Butler at her home in Long Beach.

AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Mrs. May McKinley was hostess to the Thursday afternoon bridge club at her home on Cota avenue last week.

Bridge honors were awarded to Mrs. E. J. Hodge of Lomita, Mrs. J. E. Haggard, and Mrs. Harry Peebles.

LAFALOT CLUB

Mrs. May Slidobotham entertained the Lafalot club at her home on North Normandie street, Lomita last Wednesday evening.

Five hundred honors were awarded to Barbara McMaster, Mrs. Floy Cooke, and Mrs. Sallie West.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. ROBERTS

Mrs. R. J. Roberts was surprised at her home on Andrews avenue last Saturday evening when a number of friends and relatives arrived to celebrate her birthday.

Cards, music, recitations and dancing furnished the amusement for the evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rawlston, Mr. and Mrs. R. White, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sherwin, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gorum, Mr. and Mrs. B. Doyle, Mrs. George, Mrs. Frank Steinhaber, Paul Fortin, Byron Parker, Glen Ferguson, Elmer Riley, Edwin Fann, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Roberts and sons Kenneth and Russell Roberts.

JUNIORS TO GIVE DANCE

Junior Auxiliary of the Women's Club will give a dance at the Women's Club next Monday evening.

The affair will just be a get-together for the young people of the community, and is open to the public. The purpose of the get-together dance is to promote good fellowship among the young people.

There will be a small admission charge.

Prior to the dance, a meeting of the Junior Auxiliary will be held. This will begin at 7 o'clock.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ENTERTAIN

Job's Daughters entertained members of the Redondo DeMolay at a costume dance given Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple in Torrance.

Music was furnished by Don Santoro's orchestra.

Halloween colors were used throughout in the decorating, while the costumes gave the hall an air of gaiety and festivity.

Punch was served during the evening.

NOBLE GRANDS CLUB

Mrs. Fred Freeman was hostess to the Past Noble Grands Club of the Trio Rebekah Lodge at her home on Ingraham avenue when she entertained with a luncheon Monday afternoon.

Pink and green, the Rebekah colors, were carried out in table decorations.

Following the luncheon was a meeting of the club.

ALL DAY SEWING SESSION

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will have an all day sewing session at the home of Mrs. Clayton Stevens, 2021 E. First street, Long Beach, next Tuesday.

Ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. G. L. Mowry at 8:30 a. m. and go over together.

Mrs. Mowry's address is 2112 Carson street.

AUXILIARY INSTALS OFFICERS

Installation of the new officers of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the clubhouse next Tuesday evening at 7:15.

Redondo, Haystack, San Pedro, Inglewood and El Segundo units will be present.

At this time Torrance will be awarded a prize for being the unit with the largest membership.

GIVES BRIDGE DINNER

Mrs. J. V. Canterbury entertained friends at a bridge dinner last Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Canterbury.

MISS ERICKSON A BRIDE

Edna Marion Erickson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Erickson of Inglewood and Harold Thompson were married last Wednesday.

October 17 at the home of the bride's parents in Inglewood.

Reverend H. S. Cushing performed the ceremony, to which only the immediate families and friends were bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Peterson of Los Angeles were the bride and groom's attendants.

After a few days honeymoon at Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson returned to Torrance, where they are residing in the Reams apartments.

CORRECTION

In last week's paper it was stated that the P. T. A. would hold a meeting Wednesday, October 24. This was an error—the meeting will be held Wednesday, October 31.

Clubwomen Are Guests at Mission

Fourteen hundred clubwomen of the Los Angeles district assembled at the Mission Playhouse last Thursday afternoon to attend the president's council.

One hundred thirty-four clubs were represented, and 132 presidents were present.

Luncheon for the presidents was served in the garden under the famous old grapevine.

Later the women were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Steven McGroarty who entertained them with a reception.

Mr. McGroarty is the author of the Mission Play and has presented it to California.

Mrs. Willie Brooks, Mrs. Frank Simmons, and Mrs. Hurum Reek attended the council.

Council Meeting Again Postponed

For the second time within weeks, illness of one council member forced an adjournment of the city council. No business was transacted at the meeting of Tuesday, Oct. 23, and adjournment taken until the next regular meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 30.

Struck by Auto Has Broken I

William Hughes sustained a broken leg and cuts and bruises when he was struck down by a car driven by Mrs. Rose John Graham and Inglewood avenue, dondo Beach.

Hughes, who lives at the Barton hotel, was crossing the street on his way to the hotel Tuesday evening after dinner.
