KEYSTONE NOTES

Complimenting her daughter, Adress, on her thirteenth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Harry C. Roque entertained a group of friends of the honorée at her home on Grace street Wednesday evening. Games were played during the evening; prizes being won by Charlotte Tipton and Roland Sampson "Scottie"; Allene Wiseheart and William Gill in the "jumbled flower game"; and Ruth Nahmens and Stanley Gill in the "clothespin" game. The valentine motif prevailed in table decorations where two birthday cakes bearing the required number of candles were the attractive features. Many beautiful gifts were received by the honoree by the assembled group including Herman and Harmon Downing, Ruth Nahmens, Allen Wiseheart, Evelyn Pauliny, Stanley and William Gill, Gordon Martin, Richard and Charlotte Tipton, Roland Sampson, Marion Hill, Doris and George Manny, and the honoree's sister, Blossom Roque. Adults present were Mrs. Barbara Berry, Roy, and Donald Berry.

Seventeen members of the Keystone Woman's club attended the president's council of the Los Angeles district Federation of Women held at 10 a.m. at the Huntington Park Methodist church. Mrs. Alice Ames Winter, past president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, was the principal speaker at the council, her subject being "Safe and Sane at Home." Mrs. M. C. Lineman, L.L.B., proved to be a very interesting speaker. Her subject was "Business and Protective Law." Dr. Frederick Blanchard from the English department of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles was presented through the district chairman of literature, Mrs. Howard S. Killeen. Dr. Blanchard took as his subject "Fashions in Religion. More than one thousand women were in attendance at this council meeting. Mrs. W. W. Slayden, district president, presiding. A luncheon was served in the church at noon followed an afternoon reception at the new club home of the Huntington Park Woman's club honoring Mrs. Wintors, past president of the council. and Z. W. Jennings, second were Mrs. Pernia Piper and George Koehler, and low, Mrs. Z. W. Jennings and Donald Berry. Referees were served at a late hour to Messrs. and Mesdames George Koehler, Thomas A. Cowan, Harry C. Roque, Charles Winston, Mrs. Barbara Berry, Roy and Donald Berry, George Nahmens, S. S. Tannehill, Mrs. Pernia Piper, all of Keystone; and Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Jennings of Glendale.

Mrs. Mabel Reynolds of Long Beach visited at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Richardson on Main street on Monday and in the evening was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. LeBlanc on Figueroa street.

A large birthday cake will be auctioned off at the annual celebration of Founder's Day at the Carson street Parent-Teacher's association which will be held at the school on the evening of Feb. 27, at 7:30. A program of interest to all the members, their husbands and friends will be given. Father's Night and Founder's Day will be celebrated jointly at this time. The proceeds from the birthday cake will be given to the National extension work. A large attendance is desired by the president, Mrs. H. Charles M. Forrest on this date.

Among the most recent arrivals in the harbor district is the seven and one-half pound girl, who arrived at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital in Torrance at 12:30 p. m. Monday. The little lass, who will eventually make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sampson on Amella street here, with her mother now is progressing quite satisfactorily.

Little Harold Bible of Long Beach is visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Pierce on Dolores street while his parents are making a trip to Portland, Oregon.

The Crochet club will meet on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. George Nahmens on Carson street. A very pleasant afternoon is the expectations of the group.

Members of the faculty and their principal, Mrs. Blanche E. Ritter of Carson street school attended the regular meeting of the harbor section of the City Teachers' association they met at the Carson school in Wilmington Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Tarr, teacher at the San Pedro Bandini school, presided at the meeting. It was voted to buy a gift for Mr. Vierling Kersey who has been superintendent of this district as a token of appreciation. Mr. Kersey has been appointed state superintendent of education.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wiseheart celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last week. A large bowl of sweet peas formed the centerpiece at the table where a dinner was served by the hostess, followed by the playing of cards and dancing. Bidden to this jolly affair were Messrs. and Mesdames C. E. Goode, of Keystone; William Lewis and W. S. Conover, of Davidson City; O. Mihren, and son Iton, and Mrs. M. W. Hillman of Terminal Island, motored to San Bernardino Sunday where they attended the Orange show.

An interesting meeting of the Keystone chamber of commerce has been planned for Feb. 23 by the president, Thomas A. Cowan. The meeting place has been changed this time to the auditorium of Carson street school to accommodate the use of the moving picture machine, when two reels of moving pictures, "The Grand Canyon," will be shown. These pictures have been secured through the courtesy of the Santa Fe railway company. At this meeting the Boy Scout troop No. 1, which has been recently organized with their scoutmaster, Robert Lewis, will be presented to the chamber of commerce, which is sponsoring this troop. A short demonstration of the Boy Scout troop will be given and a concert solo rendered by one of the scouts, Warren Sapp. A piano solo will be played by Miss Muriel Howe and the two addresses of much interest at this time should bring a large attendance. Charles Diggs, director of Los Angeles County Planning Commission and A. K. Warren, chief engineer of the Los Angeles Sanitary Commission will address the meeting on two of the most vital questions of the moment in Keystone. This interesting program will be preceded by a short business session. A director's meeting was held Wednesday evening at the home of the president, Annelia street, at which time plans were formulated for this meeting.

St. Valentine's day was duly celebrated in all the rooms at Carson street school, some more elaborately than others. The most colorful of these was given in Miss Fox's room. Four young Japanese maidens dressed in the colorful costume of Japan served the dainty rice cakes and candies to the other children in the room. Japanese pictures and ornaments decorated the room and the children in this room think their party was the "best ever."

Mrs. George Nahmens of Carson street and Mrs. S. S. Tannehill of Dolores street were co-hostesses on Saturday evening when they entertained a group of friends with a five hundred party at the Nahmens home. Scoring high in the card games were Mrs. Thomas Cowan and Mrs. Thomas Whitson of San Pedro spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Whitson's brother, R. C. Whitson and family on Amella street.

Keystone troop No. 1 will attend camp at Portuguese Bend over the week-end. Other troops in this section will be in camp and merit badges will be awarded and tests will be given by an executive. A party was given to the children who were in perfect attendance last term at Carson street school at noon Thursday by the Parent-Teacher's association.

Fortune telling, dancing and musical presentations were featured at the home of Miss Mabel Wiseheart on Amella street when she and her brother, Sylvester, entertained a number of friends at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wiseheart. Those attending were Fern Stevens, Louise Osterman, Pearl Bludoff, Vernona Osterman, Luther Clarke, Skyle Stevens, and Paul Kleisler.

Sent to Folsom for Stealing Edison Co. Copper Wire
John Frawley, age 20, and Morris Kelloog, age 23, were sentenced yesterday to serve from one to five years in the Folsom penitentiary for stealing copper wire from one of the lines of the Southern California Edison Company. Sentence was pronounced by Judge Angeler of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county.

The wire was taken from a power distribution line running to an old mine in Kagel Canyon, San Fernando Valley. Frawley and Kelloog stripped the wire from the poles for a distance of one and a half miles, securing 21,250 feet of copper wire which they sold to a junk dealer. Cues supplied by an old resident of the neighborhood led to their arrest and conviction, which comes under a section of the penal code prohibiting interference with any property used for the supplying of electric service.

Automobile Crash Kills H. C. Woman
An automobile accident last Saturday evening at the corner of Harbor boulevard and Channel street, San Pedro, resulted in the death of Mrs. Florence Ames, 53 of 2143 25th street, Harbor City. Mrs. Ames was riding with her husband Eugene Ames when the collision with another car took place at 8:30 p. m. Mrs. Ames was rushed to the San Pedro Central hospital where she died a short time later from internal injuries. A coroner's inquest was held Tuesday at 2 p. m. and funeral services were conducted at 7:30 p. m. of that day, at the Goodrich Hall-bergen chapel in San Pedro.
