Will Sell Sparton Equasonne Radios for $5 Down, Sat.

Saturday, April 27, has been designated "Sparton Appreciation Day" at which time the public will be able to buy the new Sparton Equasonne radios for as little as five dollars down with free installment, according to Gene DeBra, of the DeBra Radio Company, local Sparton dealers.

Heretofore, at least twenty-five percent down payment has been required.

"Sparton Appreciation Day is a day selected as one of true appreciation of the public's acceptance of the Sparton Equasonne radio," Mr. DeBra said, "and we are setting aside this one day as a special opportunity to those who have not been able to enjoy a Sparton."

UNITY MEETING
Mr. and Mrs. Leedy of Long Beach will hold a Unity meeting at 1617 Amasola avenue at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. All who are interested in Unity are invited to attend.

School Rule Forces Church Play Change

Due to a rule of the Los Angeles Board of Education that church events be prohibited in public school buildings, the Ladies Council of the Christian church has changed the date and place of the rural comedy "The Singin' Skule Regiment" which they are preparing to present.

The play will be staged at the Women's Club house on Tuesday, April 30.

These and others are members of the cast: Mrs. L. G. Danford, Mrs. Jane Briney, Mrs. E. G. Rowell, Mrs. R. V. Roelofs, Mrs. Earl Babcock, Miss Virginia Buxton, Mrs. Lorene Ditch, Miss Betty Danford, Mrs. Luther Pierce, Mrs. Guy Chaire, Mrs. F. L. Parks, Miss Helen Kyle, Miss Beulah Cooper, Miss Dorothy Stevenson, Miss Frances Granger.

L. G. Danford, W. M. Brooks, Louis Dreyer, H. E. Reeve, Scott Ludlow, Jos. Haggard, Luther Pierce, George G. Elder, Fred B. Hopkins, Leonard Babcock. Tickets are on sale at Buckler's shoe store, 1501 Cabrillo avenue.

Mrs. Harry Paige Injured as Auto Struck at Corner

Mrs. Harry Paige of 1031 North Arlington avenue was injured in a collision Saturday evening about 10:30 at the intersection of Vermont and 190th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paige were driving west on 190th street and were hit by a Buick coach going north on Vermont, driven by J. N. Hawley, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Paige was thrown through the windshield and was severely cut and bruised about the face.

She was rushed to the Torrance hospital in the police car of P. L. Dean who happened to be near and heard the crash.

A physician was called to attend Mrs. Paige, who found her dressing her various wounds, some of which required several stitches, carried her home, where she is resting as well as can be expected. Both cars were badly wrecked.

Cars Driven by Women in Crash

Mrs. Blanche Harris of Los Angeles, sustained minor cuts and bruises and was severely shaken up Friday noon, when the car in which she was riding with Miss A. Ruth Nash of Redondo Beach collided with a car driven by Mrs. Tomlsen of the Sun apartments, Long Beach.

Mrs. Tomlsen was traveling north on Vermont and Miss Nash was going east of East road.

Mrs. Harris was taken to the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital where she was treated for her injuries and remained until Sunday.

Obituary

JOHN ANTILA
John Antila, 65, died Saturday at his home on 26th street. Death was caused by pneumonia. Born in Finland, Mr. Antila was married in Philadelphia in 1892, and with his wife, also a native of Finland, came to Southern California in 1912. They came to Lomita from San Pedro in 1920. Mr. Antila was a ship's carpenter, well known in the harbor district.

Mrs. Anna Antila, the widow, is the sole survivor. Funeral services were held at the Goodrich chapel, in San Pedro, Tuesday afternoon, and the body was interred in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

RUMMAGE SALE
Torrance Relief will have a rummage sale at the headquarters on Cabrillo avenue Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27.

There will be both new and used clothing for sale at this time.

Torrance to Aid Fare Boost Fight

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce will join with civic organizations in other cities in a common fight against increased fares sought by the Pacific Electric Railway company. The directors of the local organization Monday afternoon instructed Carl L. Hyde to represent Torrance at the hearing of the state railroad commission when the question of the proposed increased fares is fought out.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gascongne spent Sunday at Claremont as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemmer.
