JOSHUA TREES

 The beautiful white blooms of the Joshua trees are still to be seen in the Palmdale, Lancaster and Victorville districts, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club, and are attracting many motorists to these sections. On the road from Palmdale to Elizabeth Lake many side hills are to be seen covered with the golden California poppies.

Keystone Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pierce and family of Dolores street were dinner guests on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Monne in Bellflower.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Roogue and daughters Audrey and Blossom, Mrs. E. H. Poole, Mrs. Barbara Berry and Roy and Donald Berry attended the Pasadena Flower Show in Pasadena on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Baird of Los Angeles were weekend guests of Mrs. Baird's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tipton of Amelia street.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in Boosters' Hall on Main street on Saturday night, April 27, at 7:30. A large delegation is desired by the president, Thomas A. Cowan.

Mrs. Earl Strong, ways and means chairman of the Woman's club has announced that there will be a public card party on the evening of May 4 at Boosters' Hall to raise funds for the club. This should be well patronized as this is the first attempt to raise funds by this organization since its inception.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pierce and family of Dolores street motored to Los Angeles on Sunday where they visited at the home of Mrs. Pierce's brother, V. A. Clemmer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dotzauer and small daughter, Virginia, of Long Beach were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. Dotzauer's sister and family, Mrs. Otto Sampson on Amelia street.

The third and fourth grade boys and girls and their teacher, Miss Fern Chambers at Carson street school are very grateful to Mrs. J. R. Black of Main street who spoke to them on Friday on "The Philippine Islands." Mrs. Black has a daughter who is a missionary in the Philippine Islands and had many interesting things to show the children who are now studying about the Philippine Islands. Mrs. Black dressed some of the boys and girls in the native costumes of the islands and these youngsters felt very much like the Filipinos in the hats, dresses and shoes of that country. Then there were the mats which had been woven in the schools. These mats are used as beds and the designs were very beautiful. Little stoves were shown. For each dish there must be a separate stove. Music instruments shown were the violin which is made of bamboo and the devil-chang, which is beaten against the hand making a very weird sound. Many pictures added to the collection.

Mrs. Black said that the houses in the islands were made of bamboo and grasses, the floors having large cracks that the dirt may fall through. The windows are made of shell, some of which are painted. The cocconut proved to be very interesting. The outer fibre was still on it and the children were told how the cocoanuts are loaded for shipping.

The talk was so interesting and educational that the children felt that they had had a real trip to the islands.

One of the most interesting entertainments in the Harbor district during the past week was the "Miniature Military Wedding" in which eighty children of San Pedro appeared at the First Christian Church, 1127 Gaffney street, San Pedro on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Howe and family of Dolores street here were in attendance at this affair which was attended by great pomp and grandeur, as is the case of a real military wedding in the United States. The program which was given as a benefit to swell the building fund of the church, was in two parts: the first of which was marked by the arrival of the relatives and distinguished guests at the wedding while the second was devoted to the wedding party, the ceremony and the entertainment following the miniature wedding. Dressed in evening gowns of silks, velvets and laces and military uniforms, the highest dignitaries of the army and their ladies arrived.

Herbert Moise who played the part of the groom and Mary Jo Hagwood, who was the bride were united in marriage in the first part by Kenneth Peasgood, minister. In the second part Alfred Nielson played violin solos and was accompanied by Mildred Nielson. Kenneth Peasgood sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold" to Phyllis Keith and Phyllis Keith and Billy Leightle presented readings. William Edward Hazel sang, "I Love You Truly."

Others who appeared in the cast were Lohar Kressling and Mabel Abrams, bridesmaids; Fern Wickstrom, bride's mother; Howard Furno, bride's father; June Morris, bride's grandmother; James Bentley, bride's uncle; Phyllis Keith, bride's old maid aunt; Shirley Pierson and Alberta Smith, bride's cousins; Jean Bartlett and Kenneth Kennedy, groom's mother and father; Marion Roy, groom's grandmother; Orceola McCurley, groom's aunt; Billy Leightle, groom's bachelor uncle; Benny Durham, groom's grandfather; Bobby Leightle, best man; Jean Zimmerman, minister's wife; Braden Abrams, Tom Thumb; Phyllis Pierson, Mrs. Tom Thumb; Franklin Halstead, groom's uncle; Junius Smith, General Midget; Marguerite McCurley, Mrs. M. V. Keenom, Lee Belcher and Paul Halstead, ushers; David Brooks, Major Smallwood; Billy Peacock, General Long; William E. Hazel, jilted lover; Alfred Nielson, groom's chum; Esther Hickey, Dorothy Abrams and Corrine McKinney, flower girls and Betty Moise, ring bearer; Nancy Brooks, Leah McDaniels, Dorris Rockwell, Ingeborg Nielson, Nellie Bartlett, Dorothy Little, Mildred Blackton, Demetrus Castelberry, Lily Halstead, Rachel Zimmerman, Lois Larsen, arch bearers.

Among the distinguished guests were Herbert Hoover, played by Bobby Meacham, Uncle Sam, John Kellogg, and Patsy Higginson was the Goddess of Liberty. Following the wedding ceremony the guests and bridal party were served ice cream and wedding cake and ice cream and cake was sold to the audience.

ALL-STEEL REFRIGERATOR

 at the factory with conveniently spaced payments

QUIET, automatic, made entirely of steel... this General Electric is indeed the refrigerator of the future!

The engineers and scientists of the Research Laboratories, having solved the most important problem of electric refrigeration—that of the mechanism—next turned their attention to the designing and building of this infinitely superior refrigerator cabinet.

It is a small-family model, built entirely of steel—as strong as a safe. It cannot warp. All its joints are electrically welded... as strong as the steel itself.

The cabinet is finished in a special coating that has all the beauty and sheen of porcelain, but will not crack, chip or check. It has a new type of insulation material, used in exactly the correct amount to maintain perfect temperature, well below the 50 degree danger point.

Listen in on the General Electric Hour broadcast every Saturday evening 6 to 7 o'clock, over KFI on the N.B.C. network of its stations.
