BIRTHDAY HONORED

Dr. Maude Chambers celebrated her birthday Wednesday when she attended a luncheon given in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. Don Lathrop in Long Beach. In the evening she was tendered a birthday dinner at her home on Cota avenue.

HOUSE WARMING

A surprise housewarming party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson Monday evening at their home on Annapolis avenue. They were presented with a combination end table and card table, the joint gift of the guests.

A burlesque, in the form of a mock wedding, was the feature of the evening's entertainment, followed by dancing.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

A pretty little home wedding took place Tuesday afternoon when Miss Marie Sophia Fresse became the bride of Hugh Roberts at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. L. C. Roberts at 1820 Gramercy avenue.

The bride was lovely in a bouffant dress of white georgette, trimmed with rose point lace. Pearls encircled her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. L. C. Miller was the bride's only attendant. She wore pastel green flat crepe, and carried a bouquet of pink and orchid sweet peas.

Mr. L. C. Miller was best man. Reverend R. A. Young performed the ceremony before the fireplace, which was beautifully banked with ferns, lilies and orange blossoms.

Artistic arrangement of tulle and baskets of orange blossoms before the fireplace formed a lovely alcove setting for the wedding.

Following the ceremony, the bride followed the age old custom of cutting the wedding cake, after which the guests were served a buffet luncheon.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. Fresse of Orange, California. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Roberts of England. He is employed by the Columbia Steel Corporation as construction superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left immediately for a short honeymoon without disclosing their destination.

On their return they will reside at 1743 Gramercy avenue.

The bride wore an attractive going away ensemble of white.

HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kennedy were surprised Monday evening by a number of friends who tendered them a farewell party.

The Kennedys have made their home at the California apartments on Sartori for the past year, and have made many friends who wish them well on their trip to Illinois, where they will make their future home.

The evening was spent playing games.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Zuber and daughters Lois and Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith and son Hal, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wright, Pauline, Norma June, and Alfred Jr. of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Irvan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Edwell, Hermine Getken, Elizabeth Liddell, Doris Lepkin, Anna McConnell, Gladys Raney, Edith Guadagnoli of San Francisco, Donald Fuller, Ben Lepkin, Clifford Bidwell, Hugh Kennedy, Sam Neely, George Quisenberry and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kennedy.
