Mrs. Rupprecht Taken by Death

Well Known Resident Passes Away After Few Hours Illness

Mrs. Annie A. Rupprecht, 61 years old, died suddenly at her home at 2020 Gramercy avenue Tuesday evening, following a stroke.

Although she had been ailing for some time, the death was a great shock to all who knew and loved her.

Tuesday afternoon she attended the Ladies' Aid luncheon at the Methodist church and spent the afternoon there. Returning home, she prepared the evening meal and while eating complained of not feeling well.

Shortly after she suffered a stroke, and at 11 p. m. she passed away.

Those surviving are her husband, Mr. David Rupprecht, two sons, Henry Rupprecht of Athens and William of New Brunswick, N. J., and a daughter of Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Rupprecht was born in Milltown, New Jersey, and had lived in California seven years, five of which she had spent in Torrance.

She was a worker in the Methodist church, and beloved of all who knew her.

Funeral arrangements have not been arranged, pending word from relatives in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Scott returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation, during which time they toured California and Oregon. They also drove down the famous Columbia River Highway.

Fox Redondo to Show Trial of Mary Dugan

"Studio Murder Mystery" and "High Voltage" Also Due

A brilliant array of all talking pictures has been booked at the Fox Redondo theatre for the coming week.

"The Studio Murder Mystery" which shows Friday and Saturday of this week is a Paramount thriller in which Florence Eldridge and Frederic March are cast as husband and wife. In real life, they are also man and wife. Miss Eldridge has had a varied Broadway career including such popular stage plays as "Ambush," "The Great Gatsby," "The Cat and the Canary" and many others equally known.

The Sunday feature at the Fox Redondo will be "High Voltage," a modern story paralleling the experience of the hardy pioneers who hit the Emigrant Trail. William Boyd carries the lead.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan" will show at the Fox Redondo, Monday, June 20. Headed by Norma Shearer, H. B. Warner, Lewis Stone and Raymond Hackett, the elaborate cast of fifteen principal players rehearsed under Veiller's direction and are said to be better perfect before the microphone.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23, the Fox Redondo will present "The Valiant," a gripping stage drama which Howorthy Hall wrote in collaboration with Robert Middlemass and which won wide commendation as a play. It has now been adapted to the speaking screen as a Fox Movietone all dialogue production. The playwright loves patriotic scenes and flying.
