Personalities Have Colorful Early Careers

Picture at Fox Hermosa Recalls Many Interesting Stories

Whence did they come—these personalities of American films—Wallace Beery, Jean Arthur, Fred Kohler and the others? Do you know?

That Wallace Beery began his screen career doing minor comedy bits as a Swedish maid in the old Essanay days? That Jean Arthur was born in New York and played small parts for four years in Hollywood before she was signed for the lead in "Warning: Love"?

City to Buy New Grinding Machine

The city council Tuesday night, on motion of Councilman Maxwell, appropriated $144 for the purchase of equipment so that firemen could grind the valves in fire trucks.

Richard was editor of T.N.T., the school paper two years ago; president of the seniors of the Winter class of '29; president of the Schumann society and in other ways a figure of service during his four years of high school work.

He graduated last winter with the honor of Bachelor of Arts in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the L. A. City Library on a number of occasions. He has been awarded large cash prizes for excellence in oratorical, writing, and poster contests.

A bid for a 3-ton Dodge truck with engine was received for $2785. Decision on this bid was postponed until the next meeting.

The cabinet of the model 91 is of early English design in American walnut, the instrument panel being overlaid with a handsome piece of genuine imported Australian lacewood.

Mr. Alexander is inviting the public to inspect the new models at the Torrance store, 1311 Sartori avenue.

That ever since Chester Conklin was a clown in the Al G. Barnes' circus, he never appeared without his mustache in a motion picture until filming was begun on "Stairs of Sand"?

That "Stairs of Sand," a filmization of the famous Zane Grey novel of the same name, is coming to the Fox Hermosa theatre for 2 days beginning on the re-opening night—Friday, June 21, and that all the actors mentioned above are in the cast? On Sunday and Monday, the feature picture will be Buster Keaton in "Spite Marriage."

Ramon Novarro is the star of "The Pagan" which comes to the Fox Hermosa on Tuesday and Wednesday and Dorothy Janis plays the part of the native girl in this epic picture of the south Sea Islands. Thursday and Friday, June 27-28 features Milton Hills in "His Captive Woman."

The city council Tuesday night, on motion of Councilman Maxwell, appropriated $144 for the purchase of equipment so that firemen could grind the valves in fire trucks.

Councilman Nelson asked where valves are being ground now. Chief Hensbrink said, "The city is using my own personal equipment to do the work."

"Why can't we continue to use it?" asked Mr. Nelson.
