"THE EXALTED FLAPPER" HAS NIGHT CLUB FROLIC

When a visiting princess expands her visit to the point where she visits a "recreational" night club, it is time for the police to drop in for an official visit at the same alluring spot.

At least, that is the way a dramatist would size up the situation, most theatre-goers will agree, and therefore that very exhilarating incident is one of the high spots of "The Exalted Flapper," Fox Films production which will be on view at the Torrance Theatre, Tuesday, Sept. 17.

Bewitching Sue Carol is the "flapper" in the case and she is excited because she is princess of a tiny European kingdom, on a visit to New York with her mother, who is seeking a national loan. Irene Rich portrays the queen and Harry Norton is a personable and persistent prince of an adjoining kingdom who teaches the royal flapper to behave before the diverting picture is concluded.

James Timine, who made "True Heaven" and other Fox Films successes, directed "The Exalted Flapper" and the leading players are supported by Albert Conth Sylvia Field, Stuart Erwin, Lawrence Grant and Charles Clary.

It was made from a Will Irwin story, adapted to the screen by Ray Harris and with an intriguing scenario by Matt Taylor.

At Fox Redondo P.-T.A. PLANS FOR YEAR OF PROGRESS

Morton Downey, Broadway's most famous tenor, sings several of his popular songs in the Pathe all dialogue production, "Mother's Boy," which will be on view at the Fox Redondo theatre, Friday and Saturday, September 13 and 14.

The theme song which is filled with splendid effect is the ballad of his supposedly dying mother is, "I'll Always Be Mother's Boy," and there were few dry eyes among the watchers during the filming of the scene in the studio.

Other song hits in the production are "The World is Yours and Mine," "There'll Be You and I," "I'm Funny that Way," and "Good Little Bad Little You."

The Sunday show at the Fox Redondo brings pretty Dorothy Burgess in "Pleasure Crazed." Miss Burgess will be remembered for the sensational hit she made in "In Old Arizona."

P.-T.A. PLANS FOR YEAR OF PROGRESS

First Meeting of Association Will Be Held on September 24

Mrs. J. E. Hitchcock, president of the Parent-Teachers association for the coming year, in a recent interview, stated that plans were being made for the coming P.-T. A. year to make it a year of accomplishment and progress.

Good programs will be offered and it is her hope to have regular attendance among P.-T. A. members.

At the first meeting of the year of the Parents and Teachers association of the Tenth District last Thursday in Los Angeles, said Mrs. Hitchcock, the district president outlined points to be stressed for the coming year. "Mothers must be taught not only to give their children food and shelter, but what kind of food and shelter," said she.

Another interesting highlight was the fact that the P.-T. A. was one of the few organizations that had abided by its original purpose. The original and present aim of the P.-T. A. is furthering child welfare. The first meeting of the local P.-T. A. will be held on the fourth Tuesday of September, which falls on September 24.

At Fox Hermosa

Laura LaPlante's portrayal of Magnolia in "Show Boat," the big Universal talking special coming to the Fox Hermosa on Friday, September 13, is a nine-day wonder in film circles. The part runs the gamut of gaiety, pathos, cheerfulness, tragedy, sunshine and shadows. In addition to the singing of ballads, coon songs, spirituals and a bit of broad, almost burlesqued acting in the show boat troupe.

That Saturday show, September 14, at the Fox Hermosa brings Rod LaRocque and Marcelline Day in "The One Woman Idea," an enthralling story in a Persian atmosphere.

"Salute," which shows at the Fox Hermosa theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 15 and 16, is a romance of youth played against the background of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. It is a Fox Movietone picture based on the "Battleship and Brotherhood." It is an unusual story of two sons, one at West Point and the other at Annapolis, and has a great climax.

Next week on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 17 and 18, the Fox Hermosa theatre brings a new kind of a boy and girl romance in "Fast Company," Ring Lardner and George M. Cohan wrote the play from which the picture is adapted, and the dialogue sparkles with Lardner's ready wit in a slangy, style.

Speakers of World Fame Coming Here

Lecture Program of Women's Club Includes McGroarty and Other Famous People

Torrance Women's Club announces their lecture program for the coming year, and includes some very interesting lectures from world famous people.

November 15, John Steven McGroarty, author of the famous Mission Play at San Gabriel and world renowned, will be the speaker. Mr. McGroarty needs no introduction to local people, and his talk on California will be one of the most interesting features of the year's program.

February, Mrs. Bannell Sawyer, famous for her interpretive art lectures, will talk. She has chosen for her topic, "The Huntington Art Gallery at San Marino, and 18th Century Pictures."

Isabel F. Betts, creator, art and travel department of the Ebell in Los Angeles says of Mrs. Sawyer, "As the club year of 1921 passes into history, no small part of its interest to many of us in Ebell will be the memory of the delightful, instructive, illuminating lectures given by Mrs. Bannell Sawyer on "Leonardo da Vinci" and "Rome." Certainly the club that puts Mrs. Sawyer on its program will find a guide to the old world made new by beauty and art."

Eleanor J. Toll, past president of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's Clubs says of Mrs. Sawyer, "Mrs. Sawyer, for your very kind word of appreciation for the influence of my name—it is a privilege to have it in connection with your own, which suggests only the best and finest, not only of art, but of common sense."

April 18, Mrs. E. B. Harkness will lecture on Tibet. Mrs. Harkness lived in Tibet for 20 years, and knows the Tibetans intimately. Her lecture will be not the traveler's impression, but about the real life of that country. She will wear a Tibetan costume and during her lecture will show curious and surprising of her sojourn in that interesting country.

Announcement will be made later as to the selection of the lecturer for the last of May.

Fox Granada

Tomorrow and Saturday the Fox Granada Theatre in Wilmington will show Paramount's all-talking, singing, dancing extravaganza, "The Cocoanuts," featuring the four famous Marx brothers with Oscar Shaw and Mary Eaton of Ziegfeld follies fame. "The Cocoanuts" was one of the most sensational stage successes ever produced, and it loses none of its charm when transferred to the screen. On the same program will be seen and heard Fox Movietone News and a song cartoon, "Old Black Joe."

Sunday only will be seen and heard "Imagine My Embarrassment," Wm. Fox's singing, dancing, talking hit, a musical-comedy version of "The Cradle Snatchers," with Sue Carol, David Rollins, Dixie Lee, Nick Stewart and Walter Catlett. This delightful, frothy farce provides ideal entertainment—it is bubbling with wit and originality—in short, it is perfectly charming. See it! Also a comedy and Fox Movietone News.

Monday and Tuesday a double bill of unusual merit will be shown. Both features will be talking. First there is "Fashions in Love," an all talking comedy drama with Adolphe Menjou. It is clever, sophisticated and oh, so chic! You'll hear Adolphe sing and play. He is superb!

The second feature will be Vilma Banky in "This Is Heaven," her first talking picture with James Hall and an all star cast.

Wednesday and Thursday brings Wm. Fox's all talking, singing and dancing extravaganza a worthy successor to the Fox Follies, entitled "Words and Music," with Lois Moran and an all star cast.

Ladies' Aid Circles Will Meet Sept. 17

The Circles of the Methodist Ladies' Aid, will hold their last meeting of the conference year on Tuesday, September 17. All members are requested to attend their neighborhood circle, as there will be business of importance.

Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. Hugh Henry, 1313 Cota avenue, Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. R. F. Hogue, 2111 Arlington avenue. Circle No. 3 will meet with Mrs. Roy Kizer, 319 Cota avenue.

Mrs. Anna York of Medford, Oregon, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Forgie, is leaving today for Los Angeles.

Auxiliary To Visit Soldiers Hospital

American Legion Auxiliary will go to Sawtelle for the group at the Veterans Hospital next Tuesday.

They will leave from the clubhouse at 12:30 and take with them candy and cigarettes for the "boys." Anyone who desires to make the trip is cordially invited to join the party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Patterson, 1318 Acacia, arrived home Tuesday from a ten-day vacation spent in Yosemite National park. While there Mr. and Mrs. Patterson attended the annual Indian field day, a very interesting feature of the summer activities in the park.

IN SOCIETY

CELEBRATES BIRTH DATE

Last Tuesday evening Jane Roberts celebrated her birthday by a party at Torrance beach. Roasting "weiners" and marshmallows provided entertainment as well as food for the merry crowd. The guests were Betty Ripple, Dorothy Stevenson, Maxine Roberts, Virginia Brown, Edith Corbett, Evangeline Cummings, Jean Watson, George Laneaster, Bert Merrill, Margery Huber, Rudolph Huber, Bob Hanson, Dorothy Hanson and Bill Barnes. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Roberts.

O. E. S. OFFICERS AT BANQUET

Saturday evening a very delightful bridge-dinner party was given by Mrs. Joe Stone and Mr. Clifford Simpson, the worthy matron and worthy patron of the Order of Eastern Star, to their officers and their husbands and to the past matrons.

A very sumptuous banquet was served at 6:30 in the Masonic Temple, after which everyone adjourned to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, where a delightful evening was spent in playing bridge and five hundred.

The worthy matron, Mrs. Stone, and the worthy patron, Clifford Simpson, presented each officer and past matron with a gift as a token of appreciation for their whole-hearted cooperation throughout the year. The following guests were present:

Hanche Hartley of Hermosa, deputy grand matron of the 49th District, O. E. S.; Mrs. Clemma Watson, Miss Virginia Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sidebotham, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sidebotham, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore, West, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Casper, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Traviolo, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dille, Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, Miss Cicely Ball, Miss Helen Kyle, Tom Perkins.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MISS WATSON

Miss Mary Guyan was hostess Friday evening at a surprise handkerchief party given in honor of Miss Virginia Watson. The diversion of the evening, prizes being distributed to Merion Bay for high score and Mona Radcliffe consolation. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Those present were Misses Merion Bay, Marjorie Huber, Oma Beckwith, Helen Hammett, Jean Smith, Marie Boyd, Elizabeth Boyd, Doris Wood, Mona Radcliffe, Ethel Guyan, Genevieve Guyan, Bertha Paisley, Mrs. Sidebotham, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Guyan.

MISS NYLA TANSEY A BRIDE

Of interest to the younger set is the announcement of the recent marriage of Miss Nyla Ethel Tansey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tansey, to Richard A. Darling, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Darling.

The young couple eloped to Riverside and were wedded Saturday morning, August 31, by Reverend Waite, pastor of the First Christian church of Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harman of Los Angeles, friends of the young couple, were their attendants and only witnesses of the ceremony. The lovely young bride was escorted in a tan sports frock. White roses formed her bridal bouquet, while pink roses and lavender sweet peas were used in the corsage worn by Mrs. Harman.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling announced their marriage to their parents and friends the following week and are now residing at the Mayfair apartments.

The bride graduated from Torrance high school this spring and is popular in the younger set. She is a talented musician and plans to continue with her musical career. The groom also attended Torrance high and now has a position at the Ludlum Steel Corporation in Los Angeles.

TORRANCE HI FLASHLIGHTS

By JOHN YOUNG

Back to Business

School opened with a bang last Tuesday with a fine Aug. Call. An excellent address by Paul Welch, student body president, and good, organized, yelling were the features of the program. Everyone, students and faculty alike, seemed glad to get back to work. School started at nine o'clock, yet there were a good many students there at seven fifteen waiting for the doors to open. After the call time was given for programs to be made out and classes were held in fifteen minute sessions the rest of the day.

"Traveling Faculty"

Torrance high claims the distinction of having a real up-and-coming faculty. Each summer a number of teachers take trips to Canada, Alaska, Europe and Hawaii. This summer, Miss Summerville drove to Victoria by way of Vancouver. Mrs. Eischeba made the same trip. Mrs. Morse has not yet returned from her trip to Europe. Miss Lingenfelter spent the summer in Yellowstone. Miss Kline has just returned from a trip to Honolulu. Miss Millard drove around the country near Yellowstone. Miss Shearer went to Europe, and declared that when it comes to Paris, she likes Rome better. She was surprised to find Rome not only a place of majestic ruins, but a modern live wire industrial city.

Miss Burnham enjoyed her motor trip up the coast to San Francisco, Carmel and Monterey. Miss Kunkel spent the summer at Coronado Beach, San Diego. Coach Nylander was in the High Sierras. Miss Mabel and Mr. Wright enjoyed a rest in their respective cabins in the mountains.
