Educational Center Holds Nov. Meeting

Sixteen babies attended the Mother's Educational center at the Women's club last Friday morning. Four of these babies, Barbara Gilliam, Mervin Jarrett, Shirley Shaller and Norma Hall, were new babies attending the center for the first time.

The Mother's Educational Center is doing a wonderful work and has helped many mothers in their problems of bringing up healthy children. Meetings are held the first Friday of every month.

One of the nicest dancing parties of the year was held last Monday evening when the American Legion staged its first Halloween masquerade. Contestants for the prize waltz were plentiful and their exhibition was well worth the admission price. Mesdames J. W. Post, D. E. Aiken and H. F. Rees, acted as judges, and finally cast the honor on Sam Levy and Mrs. Wolfe, and it was a hard matter for them to decide.

Fire Department Called to Quench Blaze in Garage

It isn't the wisest thing in the world to clean your car with gasoline in the garage while the battery charger is going. James Jenkins of 1503 Armapola avenue, found out Saturday.

It is asserted that he was doing just that when some rags, papers, etc., caught fire and for a time threatened to burn the garage. Torrance fire department was called out but when they arrived the fire had already been extinguished with a garden hose. There was no damage.

Territory Closed Vacated, Abandoned

An ordinance was adopted last week by the Los Angeles City Council ordering that 205th street and Halldale avenue vacation district be closed up, vacated and abandoned.

The Voice of the People

LIKES KINGSLEY TALK

Torrance Herald, Torrance, California, Gentlemen:

Mr. W. Harold Kingsley of Torrance was a guest of the Women's Professional Club of Los Angeles. This club holds monthly dinner meetings at the Mary Louise. Mr. Kingsley's address on "How to Read Your Daily Newspaper" was much appreciated by about thirty members.

Yours truly, M. S. Proctor D. D. S.

MISCELLANEOUS RECIPES

JELLIED CARROTS AND PEAS
1 package lemon flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup vegetable stock or cold water
3 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 cup cooked carrots, sliced
1 cup peas
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add vegetable stock or cold water, vinegar, salt, and paprika. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in carrots and peas. Turn into molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 8.

TWO EMERGENCY SALADS

Cabbage Fruit
Peel oranges, removing all white skin. Cut into one-fourth inch slices and then into segments. Cover salad plates with finely shredded cabbage. Sprinkle with orange segments. Serve with French dressing.

GRAPEFRUIT PRESERVE

Remove outer yellow rind and most of the white by peeling very thick. Halve the fruit, and with sharp knife cut out the core. Then slice across and place pulp in granite kettle with very little water and cook at moderate heat. When at boiling point, add three-fourths pint of sugar to each pint of fruit pulp and juice, then cook slowly 15 minutes. Seal in small jars.

FRUIT MINT SAUCE FOR LAMB

1/2 cup finely chopped mint
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon powdered sugar
Add sugar and fruit juice to mint and let stand in warm place for 30 minutes.

ROLY-POLY

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup milk, scant
1/2 cup sugar
4 oranges
Grated rind 1 orange
1/2 cup water
Mix and sift flour, baking powder, and salt. With tips of fingers rub in two tablespoons butter, and add sugar and fruit juice to milk and dough with milk. Roll out one-half inch thick, and cover with small pieces of orange pulp. Mix sugar, orange rind, and remaining butter, and sprinkle two-thirds of it over the orange. Roll up; pinch ends together; place in baking-dish; sprinkle with remaining sugar; surround with water, and bake about thirty minutes. Serve with an orange or lemon sauce.

Free Lessons in Swimming at Redondo Plunge

Free swimming lessons at the Redondo plunge can be had every Saturday morning from 9 to 10, according to Miss Violet Briggs, assistant instructor, who says that the opportunity is open to anyone who wishes to learn this useful accomplishment.

Harvey Hamilton is the instructor and Miss Briggs assists him in the work. Mr. Hamilton looks after those who have had some practice, and Miss Briggs takes care of the beginners. Lessons in swimming, diving and life-saving are given.

There is no charge for the instruction, but a nominal charge for admission to the pool is made. Trained life guards are on duty to watch over the inexperienced.

CONSTABLE'S SALE

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Justice's Court of Lomita Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California, dated the 18th day of October, A. D. 1929, in a certain action wherein Arthur Mullin as plaintiff, recovered judgment against W. E. Hawthorne, as defendant, for the sum of $44.60 lawful money of the United States, besides costs and interest, etc., on the 31st day of October, 1929.

I have levied on the following described property, to-wit:
All the right, title and interest of W. E. Hawthorne in and to Lot 2, Block 54, Torrance tract as per map recorded in Book 23, at pages 34 and 35 of maps, in the office of the Recorder of Los Angeles County, California.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, the 25th day of November, 1929, at 10 o'clock a. m., of that day at my office, Room 8, 1432 Narbonne avenue, City of Lomita, County of Los Angeles, State of California, I will sell all the right, title and interest of said defendant in and to the above described property at Public Auction, for lawful money, to the highest and best bidder, to satisfy said execution and all costs.

Dated at Lomita, the 30th day of October, 1929.
C. R. TABER, Constable of Lomita Township, By T. D. TABER, Deputy, Nov. 7-14-29.
