GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Try these on your menu list:

"LEMON-NAISE" RECIPE

(Makes about 1 quart)

2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 quart salad oil

Break the eggs into a bowl. Add salt and stir well. Add half of the lemon juice and mix well. Add oil slowly at first until 1/4 cup is added; then the oil may be beaten in rapidly. When the dressing becomes thick add the remaining lemon juice and proceed with remainder of oil.

This dressing may be varied for different salads. For a sharper dressing, add 1/4 extra cup of lemon juice just before serving. This makes a thin dressing.

For a meat salad, add 2 teaspoons dry mustard. For a fruit salad add 1-2 cup whipped cream and 1/4 tablespoon lemon juice to 1 cup mayonnaise.

SPANISH SALAD

(Individual service)

On a bed of lettuce leaves arrange a thin slice of Bermuda onion. Add 1/2-inch slice pared orange, another thin slice onion and a second slice orange. Garnish with green peppers and watercress. Serve with mayonnaise, or Thousand Island dressing made with lemon juice.

WINTER CORNSTARCH

2 cups milk
5 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 squares chocolate
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

Mix dry ingredients, make into thin smooth paste with a little milk. Add to heated milk in top of double boiler. Add melted chocolate. Stir to prevent lumps. Cook 20 minutes. Add vanilla and pour into molds rinsed in cold water. Chill, serve with cream or whipped cream.

OUTDOOR COFFEE

Hot coffee and snow make about the best mixture anyone could want in the winter time. When you have been out sledding or skating in the cold air, nothing tastes better than a cup of the steaming brew from far-off Brazil.

If you go at your winter sports seriously and intend to stay out for several hours, the best thing you can take along, next to your sled and skates, is a thermos bottle of coffee. It should be made stronger than usual so that you will have a good stimulant when you want it the most, and, if you like them, cream and sugar should be added before you leave home.

Of course, it isn't necessary to slide in the snow to enjoy coffee in winter. If you are outside at all on cold days you are sure to appreciate a hot cup at almost any time you can get it. The unique qualities of hot coffee are especially beneficial to the human body in chilly weather because they increase your resistance.

TOASTED RAISIN SANDWICH

1/2 cup chopped cheese
1/2 cup raisins
6 drops tabasco sauce
Bread

Pump raisins, drain and chop, using a coarse cutter. Blend raisins with cheese and spread on thin buttered slices of bread. Put slices together as a sandwich and toast on both sides. Serve hot.

HANGING NO DETERRENT, SAYS JURIST

LOS ANGELES—(UP)—Judge William T. Aggeler holds that life-long imprisonment acts as a greater check to crime than the death penalty.

The jurist, who has presided over local criminal courts for the past six months, has carried his belief into his decisions from the bench. Out of four times in which the decision between the death sentence and life imprisonment lay in his hands in only one did he exact capital punishment. Then it was in a case of law in which he was sitting on a retrial. In such position, Judge Aggeler declared, "I have no hesitation, as far as the law is concerned, in imposing the death penalty as a legal matter."

Judge Aggeler backed up his position by a comparison. "The death penalty is no longer a deterrent to crime. It has not decreased murders in those states in which it exists, nor has it increased in the states in which it has been abolished."
