CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND COUNCIL

Representatives of the Torrance Women's club attended a meeting of the District Presidents' Council of the Los Angeles Federation of Women's clubs, held Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the Garden High school.

More than 700 women gathered in the auditorium which was decorated profusely with large baskets of beautiful dahlias.

Rabbi Edgar F. Maginn was the speaker during the morning session. He spoke on economic problems. The afternoon speaker, William Hale, who is dean of the law school at U. S. C., talked on "The fact that on the November election ballot there will be 20 amendments and six initiative measures to be voted upon."

Freda Piper of Los Angeles, who has just returned from a world tour, gave a group of musical readings. Miss Betty Bohman gave vocal numbers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Daisy Sinclair; Chief Thundercloud entertained with songs in Indian and English, and gave a group of Indian dances.

Those from Torrance attending the Council were Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. O. W. Hudson, Mrs. Hiram Reed, Mrs. Frank Sammons, Mrs. Paul Vanderhaeghe, Mrs. J. H. Reeve, and Mrs. J. S. Sleepy.

TORRANCE OFFICERS PRESIDE AT HAWTHORNE

Mrs. May Sidebotham and Mr. J. H. Fess, matron and patron of the Torrance O. E. S., presided in the chairs at the meeting of the Hawthorne O. E. S. Tuesday evening. All chairs were occupied by present matrons and patrons.

STORK SHOWER HONORS MRS. GILBERT

Mrs. Francis Gilbert was honored Tuesday evening at a surprise stork shower given at the home of Mrs. Wallace Gilbert on Sonoma avenue.

Games furnished the diversion of the evening, during which Mrs. Gilbert was the recipient of many lovely gifts presented to her in a banquet.

MRS. DENNIS ENTERTAINS CLUB

Purple and white colors, accented by lovely asters in two tones, formed the color scheme for a dessert bridge given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. John Dennis when she was hostess to her club.

Mrs. O. E. Fossum was awarded honors for high score at bridge, and Mrs. W. L. Maxfield second. Mrs. F. L. Parks won high score at the guest table, with Mrs. Joe Stone second.

Present were Mrs. A. Shriner of Los Angeles, Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. Elgin Smith, Mrs. F. L. Parks, Mrs. W. W. West, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mrs. Gwendolyn Knudson, Mrs. V. L. Maxfield, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. Paul Kaaper, Mrs. L. L. Fordice, and the hostess, Mrs. John Dennis.

SUNSHINE CLUB CHANGES NAME

Mrs. J. S. Tolson was hostess to her club Thursday afternoon at her home on Madrid avenue. The club, which was known last year as the Sunshine Embroidery club, reorganized at the first meeting this fall and is now known as the Silver Thimble club.

Officers of the Silver Thimble club were elected Tuesday, with Mrs. Lovina Wilson, president; Mrs. Belle Tolson, treasurer; and Mrs. George Woodward, Jr., secretary.

The meeting was an all day affair, with a luncheon following the birthday of the president, Mrs. Wilson, was celebrated, and a large birthday cake cut.

Present were Mrs. B. F. Townsend, Mrs. Belle Tolson, Mrs. Lovina Wilson, Mrs. George Woodward, Jr., Mrs. George Woodward, Sr., and the hostess, Mrs. J. S. Tolson.

Mrs. George Woodward, Sr., will entertain the club at her home on Arlington avenue for the next meeting.

Plan Costume Now For Annual Event

Now is the time to start getting ideas for costumes to wear to the annual Women's club costume ball, which will be held on Friday, October 17, at the clubhouse.

Cleopatra, Mark Anthony, Et Tu Brute, mixed for variation with Indians, gypsies, Colonial dames, and a scattering of people from all the ages are expected to appear in costume. Remember the date is Friday, October 17—for it is red letter day in the Torrance social calendar.

MISS NEELANDS IS DINNER HOSTESS

Miss John Neelands was hostess at dinner Saturday evening, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Dee Carruthers of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney, and Mr. William Gray of Gardena. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. J. Neelands.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB TUESDAY

Mrs. Cecily Perkins was hostess to her bridge club on Tuesday evening, entertaining Peggy Root, Maxine Smith, Zola Neal, Marguerite Guenster, Helen McMaster, Ruth McMaster, Mary Guyan.

Honors at bridge were awarded to Helen McMaster, with second honors to Peggy Root, and consolation to Maxine Smith.

M. E. CIRCLES ELECT OFFICERS

Circles of the Methodist Ladies' met Tuesday afternoon for their regular business meetings and to hold election of officers. Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fordice, and elected Mrs. Reid McCarty chairman; Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. D. C. Turner, electing Mrs. Pearl Shaw chairman; and Circle No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Young, and elected Mrs. John Keefer chairman.

Following the business meetings, refreshments were served by the various hostesses.

CLARKSONS TELL ABOUT TRIP ABROAD

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarkson, who returned last week from an extended visit to England and European countries, a welcoming picnic reception was given Thursday evening at Hawthorne Park. The affair, which was sponsored by the Brotherhood of the Methodist church, was attended by 75 friends of the Clarksons.

A pot luck dinner was served, after which was community singing led by Fred Hopkins, and welcoming talks were given by J. B. Edwards, president of the Brotherhood, and Rev. R. A. Young, Colonel Forbes read a poem that he had written and dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson, and then Mr. Clarkson was asked to give a resume of their travels.

Mr. Clarkson also spoke, stating that she was very glad to be back in Torrance among her friends.

One of the interesting points of the trip, she stated, was in meeting a young lady whose home town was Torrance, Sterlinghire, Scotland. The meeting occurred at the home of Mrs. Clarkson's sister in England, and the Clarksons were so interested in a town of Torrance in Scotland, they immediately sent for pictures of the town and promptly mailed such to Mayor John Dennis and to the City Hall.

One of the treasures brought back with the Clarksons was an old family bible, said to have been in the family for over 100 years. The bible is an old John Brown bible, beautifully illustrated.

The Clarksons have been much entertained since their return.

Hospital Group Wants Members

Auxiliary Invites Women To Help Assist in Work

Mrs. Minnie Brooks, secretary of the Torrance Hospital Association, announces that there is an urgent need for new members of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary at the present time. This organization meets regularly at the Nurses' Home, 1416 Cota avenue, to sew for the hospital, making new supplies, mending, and in this way relieving the institution of a certain amount of expense and extra labor.

The Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Guy Mowry is president, will meet Wednesday, September 24, when it is hoped that a great many women of Torrance will find it convenient to attend.

During the vacation period, attendance has fallen very low, so that the work of the Auxiliary has been seriously checked. Any woman interested may join.
