Hospital Group to Give Party

Auxiliary Plans Public Card Party on November 3

A benefit card party to which all residents of Torrance and Lomita are cordially invited will be held at 8 o'clock at the Torrance Women's club house by the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital auxiliary. Tickets are on sale at the Dolley drug store at 50 cents a tally.

Several worth while prizes have been donated by Mrs. J. S. Torrance for the event. The entire proceeds will assist the auxiliary in its work for the local hospital, a non-profit institution. The auxiliary meets regularly to sew, mend and repair linen and garments used at the hospital and thus enables the establishment to keep up its good work at a minimum of cost.

SURPRISE GIVEN FOR MRS. PORTER

Mrs. M. M. Porter was pleasantly surprised Monday afternoon when Mrs. James O'Toole and Mrs. Robert Lewellen entertained for her with a luncheon and dance party at the Lewellen residence on Madrid avenue. Mrs. Porter, who will leave tomorrow for a six weeks' visit in Iowa, was the recipient of many lovely handkerchiefs at a shower planned by the hostesses.
