BETSY ROSS CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Betsy Ross club met Tuesday at their club rooms in the Masonic Temple for a business meeting at which they elected officers for the ensuing year. A pot luck luncheon was served at noon.

The new officers elected at this meeting are: Mrs. Carrie Parks, president; Mrs. Margaret Fordice, vice president; Mrs. Grace Bartlett, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Salie West, auditor. The retiring officers are: Mrs. Edith Kasper, president; Mrs. Carrie Parks, vice president; Mrs. Hazel Fossum, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Fordice, auditor.

SAMPLE BRIDGE IS WOUND

Mrs. Willis Brooks and Mrs. J. F. Stone were hostesses at a very interesting and original bridge party at the Torrance Women's club on Monday evening. Samples of merchandise were contributed by the Torrance merchants which later served as prizes for various bridge plays. Shopping bars were provided for each player who, upon making a winning play, took his bar and selected a sample. At the end of the evening it was found that Mrs. Lon Ralston and Mr. R. J. Deisinger shared honors as the most successful shoppers.

Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. Ray Young and R. J. Deisinger, second to Mrs. F. B. Dille and Mr. T. Shaw, and consolation to Mrs. J. V. Murray and Ann Benn. Prizes were contributed by the following: first ladies', Paxman's; first men's, Mrs. J. B. Kelsey; second ladies', Howard's Market; second men's, Dole's Drug; ladies' consolation, Mrs. W. Bush, and men's, Mrs. H. E. Hoyle.

Prizes for the most samples were given by Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber and Mrs. W. Bush. The club wishes to acknowledge gifts of Jersey Cornflakes, White King products, pie pans and Iris flour from Howard's Market; Jelly from Harder's Market; drug samples from Dole's, and paper bags from Continental and Barkdull's Markets, and bread from the Torrance Bakery.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. A. W. Johnson was hostess to her bridge club at a delightfully appointed luncheon at her home on Tuesday. Orchid and mandarin yellow were used in the cleverly contrived nut cups covered with tiny umbrellas in a contrasting color. Orchid and yellow sweet peas arranged with maiden hair fern completed this artistic color scheme.

Prizes were marked at the small luncheon tables for the following: Mrs. A. Shriner of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. W. West, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. May Sidebotham, Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mrs. V. L. Maxfield, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. L. E. Fordlon, Mrs. Marie Mitchell, Mrs. Lorraine Ulrich, and the hostess, Mrs. A. W. Johnson. Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. L. L. Fordice, second to Mrs. John Dennis, and consolation to Mrs. J. H. Fess. Guest prize to Mrs. Marie Mitchell.

BIRTHDAY OF LUTHERAN AID IS CELEBRATED

Celebrating the fifth anniversary of the Torrance Lutheran Ladies' Aid society, Mrs. Ed Schwartz and her committee arranged an attractive luncheon party at the parish hall on Sohomah street last Thursday.

Reverend Doermann of Long Beach was the speaker and he chose as his subject, "The Martins and Marys of Today." Mrs. Doermann, who is president of India Lace Fund of Lutherans of America, displayed some beautiful examples of East Indian lace making from which those present selected pieces for purchase.

Mrs. Ed Schwartz, who was recently re-elected as president of the Aid, was then presented with a beautiful gift as a token of appreciation for the splendid work she had done during the past year. More than 25 ladies from the Lutheran Ladies' Aid of Inglewood enjoyed the luncheon and program at the Torrance meeting.

SKATING PARTY IS ENJOYED

Members of the Central Evangelical Christian Endeavor of Torrance were joined by a large group from Redondo Beach Friday evening when they motored to Long Beach to enjoy a roller skating party. More than 50 young people were present.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Graceful bowls of pink snapdragons and maiden hair fern formed attractive center-pieces for the luncheon tables when Mrs. Arthur Hodges entertained the bridge club Thursday at her home in Lomita. Mrs. A. P. Stevenson was awarded honors for high score, Mrs. A. W. Melzner second, and Mrs. F. B. Dille received consolation prize.

Present were: Mrs. Harry McManus, Mrs. W. G. Doley, Mrs. Bert Dye, Mrs. J. E. Haegard, Mrs. A. W. Melzner, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, Mrs. Fred Knudson, Mrs. F. H. Clark, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. George Greaves, Mrs. F. B. Dille of Redondo, and the hostess, Mrs. Arthur Hodges.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR ST. LOUIS GUEST

Mrs. J. H. Rose, 2321 Sonoma, entertained at a charming dinner party Saturday evening, January 17, in honor of her guest, Miss Benny Blain, of St. Louis, Mo.

The dinner table was beautifully decorated with sweet peas in orchid and white, with corsage bouquets of violets for the women and boutonnières for the men guests as favors.

A climax to the repast was a delicious birthday cake, which was cut and served by the hostess. Music by the Dobnick brothers and dancing entertained the group until a late hour.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Minnie Gendler, Miss Margaret Gendler, Miss Leta West, the honoree, Miss Blain; George Dobrick, Chris Dobrick, Wesley Rose, Alfred Rose, Victor Rose, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rose.

PHILATHEAS ENJOY SOCIAL MEETING

Mrs. Francis Snodgrass was hostess to the Philatheas when she entertained at her home on Sartori avenue Thursday evening with a pot luck dinner. Following the dinner the guests enjoyed a social hour. Present were Misses Alice Beck, Marian Wright, Doris Spoon, Corlita Reeve, Margaret Curley, Robnetta See, and Mrs. Helen Burgenner, Mrs. Katherine Reeve, Mrs. E. Tomkins, and the hostess, Mrs. Frances Snodgrass.

BABY IS SHOWERED WITH MANY GIFTS

Nested in a large bouquet of sweet peas which formed the centerpiece of a beautifully appointed luncheon table was found a diminutive infant doll yesterday when the ladies of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Richard Roelofs for a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Elmo Shuck. Larger dolls were placed on the table at intervals representing the different ages of small children.

The gifts were placed in a completely equipped baby basket and after refreshments had been served and several games appropriate to the occasion had been played the guests retired with the basket of gifts to visit the mother and baby at their home on Carson street. Included were Mesdames Elder, Buckley, Danford, Banks, Selby, Ludlow, Boehr, Rowell, Clemmer, Toler, Stevenson, and the hostess, Mrs. Roelofs.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY NOTES

At the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening Mrs. M. Eden, Mrs. Velouira Murphy, Mrs. Maxine Smith and Mrs. Ray Coffin were installed.

Mrs. A. W. Greiner, Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. Clara Conhorr, Mrs. Roxie Sleeth and Mrs. Tullie Sager attended a business meeting of the 19th district presidents and secretaries at a luncheon at Bellows last week.

Plans were made at a recent meeting for a 4th area meeting to be held at Patriotic Hall, Los Angeles on January 30. Mrs. Dunlase and several department chairmen will be present. All auxiliary members are urged to attend. Mrs. Sleeth will be glad to take your reservations for this affair, which will begin promptly at 10:30. There will be a pot luck supper next Tuesday for members of the American Legion and Auxiliary. Contributions will be gladly accepted for this supper by Mrs. Sleeth, phone 592.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS INSTALL OFFICERS

Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors entertained the largest crowd of visitors and members in the history of the local organization at the Rainbow meeting and installation held Monday night, Jan. 19. A delightful program of readings and music was presented. Kenneth Rourke, Eileen Muskroy and Miss Ella Mae Ott entertained with readings. Mr. and Mrs. Whisler and Miss Nell gave three selections on steel guitar and saw. Scotty Brenner, two harmonicas, Marjory Roelofs and Virginia sang a trio. Miss Marie Batsch and Miss Audrey Clark were seen in a clever tap dancing number.

Officers of the local lodge were installed at this meeting in a beautiful ceremony presided by the Rev. J. K. Kirener, district deputy, of the Culver City lodge, assisted by Minnie Kapsing and others. The installing officers and assistants were presented each with a lovely bouquet.

CARD PARTY NEXT THURSDAY

The ladies of the Catholic church will have a card party at the Women's club, January 29, to which the public is invited. Mrs. Charles Daley and Mrs. John Sullivan are in charge of arrangements.

HOME ECONOMICS PROGRAM IS PRESENTED

At the Torrance Women's Club yesterday afternoon an educational program was presented by the Southern California Edison Company which was represented by William Munson, Margaret Stroum and Milton Volner.

Bridge occupied the early part of the afternoon and honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. C. N. Curtis who received a beautiful hot point iron; second to Mrs. Jay Allen and third to Mrs. John Guyan.

Following the bridge, Miss Margaret Stroum spoke in a very interesting manner about the methods of electrical cooking especially emphasizing the simplicity and economy of operating an electric range. The features of electrical refrigeration were also brought out. Miss Stroum finally used as a very convincing argument some of her delectable food which was served attractively by the club members. Mr. Munson spoke to the ladies and won their hearts by promising each a recipe book to assist them in preparing food similar to that cooked by Miss Stroum.

PROGRAM IS ENJOYED

Mr. A. Quandt, of San Francisco who is visiting his brother's family at Meadowbrook tract, Torrance, was a guest at the Men's Bible Class at a recent meeting. Mr. Quandt is well known in business circles in San Francisco and had been present when the White King program was presented there for which they were awarded $4000.00. He was so well pleased with the program that he made a special effort to hear the program again when it was presented in Torrance.

TORRANCE PEOPLE ARE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Fred Patton entertained at the Surf and Sand club at Hermosa Beach yesterday with three tables of bridge. Among the Torrance guests were Mrs. C. C. Schultz, Mrs. George Peckham, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. F. H. Clark and Mrs. Arthur Hodges.

CHEERIO CLUB IS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. George Evans entertained the Pacific Electric Cheerio Club at her home at 1024 Portola street last Friday evening. During the business meeting a letter from Mrs. G. Geibel, program chairman of Los Angeles club, was read. The letter complimented the ladies on the splendid program presented by them at the mother club in Los Angeles last week. She requested a repetition of the program to be given as a prologue to the regular motion picture showing in February. Two presentations of this program have been requested for Los Angeles audiences. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Violet Lock at her home in February.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Clark motored to Whittier on Sunday to make their adieu to Mrs. Grace E. Whitehead, an old friend, who is leaving at once to make a six months' tour of Europe.

Don Findley Made Hospital Officer

Annual Session of Torrance Institution Feb. 11

Don Findley was appointed a director of the Torrance Hospital Association this week to take the place of W. Harold Kingsley, who has resigned.

The next annual meeting of the directors and members of the hospital association will be held February 11, it was announced. It is hoped that all of the directorate and a large number of members will be present at this session, as the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial Hospital is a local institution, built by the heirs of the late J. S. Torrance and presented to the city at large.
