Miss Maxine Gascoigne Becomes Bride Friday

Miss Maxine Gascoigne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gascoigne, became the bride of Francis Fetherolf at a pretty and impressive ceremony in the presence of about 50 friends at Santa Ana, Friday evening, March 27, with Rev. G. A. Weakman officiating. The bride was beautiful in an apricot lace ensemble and carried a bouquet of Tallman roses. She was attended by Miss Edna Lavin, of Lawndale, who wore a beige ensemble with accessories in a contrasting color, completed by a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. Jimmy Schock, of Redondo, was best man. Following the wedding the party returned to Torrance, where a buffet supper was served at the bride's home on Gramercy avenue. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cole, James Schock, Henry Balleaux, Lillian Showalter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Stamps Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Stamps Jr., Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fetherolf and daughter, Dorothy, all of Redondo Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rafferty, of Hermosa Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Adria Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gascoigne, of Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fetherolf left, immediately for a short honeymoon at San Diego. They will return to make their home in Torrance.

EDNA McCUISTON GIVES BUNCO PARTY

Miss Edna McCuiston was hostess to a group of friends at her home at 1911 Plaza del Amo on Saturday evening. Bunco was the diversion of the evening, with prizes for high score going to James Sandstrom and Virginia Javender. Dainty refreshments were served.

The guests included Mildred Rogers, Virginia Lavender, Lucile Thompson, Mildred Eshom, Frank Andrews, Leroy Thompson, Leo Sweeney, Mrs. Nellie Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. David Poole and Mr. and Mrs. James Sandstrom.

WILLING WORKERS CLASS HOLDS EASTER MEETING

The class of Willing Workers, with their teacher, Mrs. Green, met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fordice, 1729 Marlina avenue, last Friday afternoon and spent the time dyeing eggs and filling Easter baskets. This was followed by a short business meeting and a pot luck supper.

Monday afternoon the class motored to the Orthopaedic hospital, where the Easter baskets were distributed to the crippled children there.

VIVIAN BECKWITH FETED WITH SURPRISE SHOWER

Vivian Beckwith, whose wedding to Ralph H. Grant of San Diego will be an event of this month, was the recipient of many lovely gifts when she was feted at a surprise shower given by Miss Hazel Clark at her home on Andree avenue. Bridge furnished diversion for the evening, honors being awarded to Miss Ladine Banks, Doris Spoon and consolation to Olive McKenzie. Dainty refreshments were served at small tables which were attractive with yellow and white covers and favors appropriate for the occasion. Present were Ladine Banks, Marion Vieth Lohmeyer, Nellie Middleton, Joan Neelands Gray, Florence Beckwith Wells, Doris Spoon, Vivian Beckwith, Marjorie Huber, Olive McKenzie, Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, and Mrs. F. H. Clark.

WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Leora Marie Shindley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shindley, 1916 Arlington avenue, became the bride of Donald Markham, of Lomita, at a pretty ceremony in Los Angeles at noon Wednesday, April 1, with Rev. E. W. Mecum officiating. The bride was charming in a smart ensemble of natural shantung with accessories in a contrasting color. Following the wedding the wedding party returned to the home of the bride for a reception and dinner party. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Markham, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Smith, Miss Marie Mastwright, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Markham, Mr. Glen Middleton, and Mr. Roy Hayes. Mr. and Mrs. Markham will make their home in Torrance.

Marriage of Lomita Couple Is to Be Saturday

LOMITA—One of the most beautiful weddings of the spring season will be that of Miss Katherine Hunter and Robert Graham Tinning, which will be solemnized Saturday evening at Bridges Hall of Music, Claremont. Several hundred invitations have been issued for the event which culminates a romance begun in high school days at Narbonne.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Thomas Wilkey of Lomita, accompanied by Miss Mary Wilkey and Miss Marybelle Thorpe of Los Angeles, will sing "To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Helen Crain, the bride will enter the chapel on the arm of her father, Elizabeth J. Hunter of Lomita. Rev. Louis Tinning, father of the groom, will perform the ceremony. Two maids of honor, Miss Lois Thorpe of Los Angeles, and Miss Jane Wilder of Tucson, Arizona, will attend the bride, while the bridesmaids will be Miss Louie Van Dien of Santa Ana, Miss Lillian Weber of Mendocino, Mrs. Firth Pierce of Bishop, and Miss Theresa Rate of Los Angeles. The groom will be attended by Harold Parker of Downey, and Edward Hart of Los Angeles, and John Stanton, Spencer Jewell, Raymond Hyde, and Percy Jewell will act as ushers.

NARBONNE GRADUATES

The attractive bride will be attired in white satin, her veil of Brussels lace being bound with a coronet of orange blossoms. She will carry a bride's bouquet of Tallman roses. The maids of honor and the bridesmaids will wear pastel shades, the maids of honor carrying pink larkspurs and the bridesmaids pink and lavender sweet peas.

The wedding party will leave the chapel to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march played by Miss Crain and will hold a reception in the patio. The bride's going away gown is green, her favorite color, and the couple will take a honeymoon trip up the coast in a new green cabriolet, the wedding gift of the bride's parents.

Miss Hunter has lived nearly all her life in Lomita. The Hunter home, at 3729 Beacon street, was built 19 years ago and the family has been active ever since in Lomita civic and social affairs. Both bride and groom graduated from Narbonne in 1926, and the bride graduated from Pomona College in the summer class of 1930. Since her graduation she has been a technician in the laboratories of Brem-Zeller & Hammack. The groom is connected with the county welfare department. Upon their return from their honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tinning will make their home in Los Angeles.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS

Mrs. J. G. Moore entertained her bridge club at a delightful luncheon at her home last Thursday. Spring flowers decorated the table, at which places were marked for Mrs. Harry McManus, Mrs. P. Williams, Mrs. F. B. Dilley, Mrs. Bert Dye, Mrs. Arthur Hodge, Mrs. J. E. Haggard, Mrs. A. W. Meiner, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. Fred Knudson, Mrs. Frank Clark, and Mrs. George Greaves. Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Arthur Hodge, second to Mrs. Fred Knudson, and consolation to Mrs. J. E. Haggard.
