BETTY BARCLAY'S HELPFUL HINTS

Today Betty Says:
ONCE we ordered oranges by the dozen, but today many women secure a box or half a box at a time. Others buy three or four dozen at a time, particularly when merchants give special rates on quantity purchases.
There are plenty of small and medium-sized oranges on the market today—at moderate prices, too. It's an ideal time to increase your salad dishes, your fruit cups and your fruit desserts—thus getting your body in shape to ward off that old bug-bear "Spring Fever" that is not far away.

Too much flour makes cake dry, while too much fat makes it oily and may cause it to fall.

GIFTS ACKNOWLEDGED
The Torrance Relief Society acknowledges with grateful thanks the following gifts: Mr. and Mrs. G. Brooks, 20 dozen eggs; Mrs. Grace Ackerly, $5; from the benefit performance given by the Hollywood Baby orchestra under the auspices of the Torrance Masonic lodge, $185.65.
