KEYSTONE NOTES

Dr. Ethel M. White, educational chairman of the Women's club of Keystone, was in charge of the program at the regular meeting this week. Dr. White took for her subject "The Care of Children and First Aid." She gave a reading and introduced five-year-old Phyllis Howe, who sang two numbers and gave a reading. The program ended with a spelling bee which caused considerable merriment among the members. Mrs. E. P. Howe and Mrs. C. E. Harshman tied for honors.

At the business session a nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Thomas A. Cowan, chairman; Mrs. George H. Koehler and Mrs. D. U. Keesey, was named. Mrs. George H. Koehler, chairman of the visiting committee, gave a report of the visits she had given.

Mrs. George H. Koehler, chairman of visitation, historian and hospitality chairman, will be in charge of the next program. Mrs. Thomas A. Cowan and Mrs. J. S. Slippy were named as a committee to purchase curtain materials for Booster's hall and call a meeting of members to make up the curtains.

Plans are progressing for the dinner meeting of the Keystone Chamber of Commerce to be held Saturday, April 25, at Booster's hall. A large committee in charge of all arrangements is headed by Mrs. H. H. Barnard. An interesting program will follow the dinner, according to Charles A. Braze, president.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Roque of Grace street were guests at the banquet given at Norco for the past masters of the Masonic lodges of Southern California Saturday night.

Rev. George Eades, of Lomita, is conducting church services at the Baptist church on Dolores street. A large attendance marked the services last Sunday.

Mrs. May I. Stonenburgh, of North Hollywood, was hostess Sunday to her sister, Mrs. H. H. Barnard and family of Dolores street here.

public from 7 to 8 o'clock for visitors. A program in the High school auditorium at 8 o'clock will be of interest to all.

Dr. Kessler, county physician, is still in charge of the pre-school clinic assisted by Miss Stewart, county nurse, and urged all parents who have children of pre-school age to attend these conferences which are held in the bungalow at Carson Street school. The next conference will be held April 25 from 1 to 3 p. m.

Mrs. J. H. Crumrine, of Placer street, president of the Woman's Bible class of the Torrance Christian church, and her assistants, Mrs. Loton Buckley, Mrs. Banks and Mrs. Hanks, entertained the members of the class at a social evening at the church Friday night. During the program Mrs. Crumrine gave the third scene from "As You Like It," of Wilmington street, sang a solo. One of the features was the presentation of a beautiful birthday cake which was cut and served in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Grace Rafter, teacher of the class.

Mrs. Jerry Beam, of Main street, was the honoree at a surprise party given at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Townsend, of Pennsylvania avenue, Lomita, Thursday evening. A number of beautiful gifts were received by the honoree and a pleasant social evening was held followed by the serving of dainty refreshments. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beam, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Stevens and son, Sylvia; Mrs. Elizabeth Howe, Miss Muriel Howe of Keystone, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Manny, sons Robert and George, and daughter Doris, of Lomita; Mrs. Cora Stevens of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pence, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Soupen of Los Angeles.

Mrs. John Glenn, of Hyatt street, was hostess Wednesday evening at her home to a group of friends in honor of the 17th birthday anniversary of her sister, Miss Mozell Cowan of Amelita street. A dinner and theater party entertained the guests, Misses Frances Radford, Ruth Peck and Catherine McManus.

John R. Hilpert, who has joined the Blue and White Stores, Inc., reports a very successful opening of his store Saturday.

A large attendance at the next meeting of the Woman's club here to be held Wednesday, April 22, is urged by the program chairman, Mrs. George Nahmens, as a very interesting program will be in charge of Mrs. George H. Koehler.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Everard, of Pasadena, were guests Wednesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Roque and family of Grace street.

Mrs. John Erickson of Pasadena spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Forrest and family on Amelita street.

The meeting of the Los Angeles City Teachers' club, Harbor Section, which was to have been held last Wednesday, was postponed until Friday of this week. The meeting will be held at the Point Firmin school, San Pedro, and will have as special guests the Harbor section of the Los Angeles City Principals' club of which Mrs. Blanche P. Ritter, principal at Carson Street school, is president.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Tannehill of Dolores street, and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hoxworth of Long Beach, spent Sunday at the Los Angeles Playground.

Mrs. Lydia Chamberlin of Ohio, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Stevens and family of Main street, has returned from the Torrance hospital, where she underwent medical treatment.

Miss Lorens Cunningham of Amelita street attended the Senior class picnic of the Banning High school, Wilmington.

A county physician will speak on "Child Health" at the next meeting of the Carson Street Parent Teachers Association. The meeting will be held Tuesday, April 21, at the school. The nominating committee will be appointed at this meeting and a large attendance is desired.

Dep. Dist. Attorney Now Probing Crash That Claimed Two Victims

Deputy District Attorney George Stahlman has taken under investigation the result of the coroner's inquest held here Saturday morning over the accident early last Thursday morning which resulted in the death of Mrs. Dorothy Lillian Hiatt and her seven-year-old son, Jackie Verne, both of Keystone.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was that the victims died as result of an accident at 19th street and Western avenue and that Henry E. Brockman, truck driver, "was negligent in failing to observe the boulevard stop." The jury recommended that "the shrubbery of the Southern California Edison Company on the northwest corner of the intersection be removed."

Truck Driver in Hospital
 Funeral services for Mrs. Hiatt and her son were conducted at Stone and Myers chapel Monday morning with Rev. R. A. Young officiating.

Brockman is still confined at the Los Angeles General hospital and is reported in a serious condition. Harry C. Hiatt, husband and father of the victims, was present at the inquest but declined to testify. He walked with considerable difficulty and was apparently laboring under a heavy strain as result of his bereavement.

Hiatt's Story Reported
 Deputy Coroner J. P. Kane conducted the inquest, assisted by witness stated, also declared he was going between 30 and 35 miles an hour, and that because he knew the intersection was dangerous, had braked his car just before entering it.

In Second Gear
 When he saw the truck, Hiatt attempted to pass safely in front of the machine, the officer declared the Keystone man, who is employed as an open hearth worker at the Columbia Steel plant here, told him shortly after the accident. The owner of the truck and trailer, which had a 24-ton load, stated that when the truck itself was removed from the ditch at the intersection, it was found to be in second gear.

Brockman is not held on any charge, police said after the inquest. The case is now up to Deputy District Attorney Stahlman for decision as to whether or not the truck driver is to be charged with manslaughter.

The coroner's jury was composed of C. A. Paxman, L. C. Burger, J. H. Fess, W. A. Van Trahe, L. B. Kelsey and Paul Vonderabe.

LIQUOR OFFENDER
 Elton Culpepper, 22, of Los Angeles, was arrested on Western avenue early Monday morning and charged with possession of a quantity of liquor. He was fined $25 or given 35 days in the county jail. Unable to pay the fine, he was taken to jail.
