

ELEM Scho

Three boys graduating... were not in... Frank Lewis... Robert Trexler...

The faculty luncheon... all state... This is one... of the... Principal... faculty... leave... soon after... Alma Bliss... Fairman will... full.

Miss Laur... Saturday to... Oxford, Pa.,... and family... of the vaca... probably at... Juliette... Torrance for so...

174

192

Legion Man Made Manager of Ott's Cabrillo Market

Henry Grubbs announces the appointment of W. H. Lisonbee as manager of the Ott Market in the Cabrillo Market at 1639 Cabrillo avenue.

Paul and Murray to Stage Big Used Car Auction Sale Two Days

Paul and Murray, pioneer Dodge and Plymouth automobile dealers in this territory, announce a big used car auction sale to be held in their salesrooms, 1420 Cabrillo avenue, Friday, June 25, at 7 p. m., and Saturday, June 26, at 2 p. m.

Discovered! Why A Prune Has Wrinkles!

By the United Press. GERBER.—No matter how young a prune may be, we are told, it is always full of wrinkles.

Are Not Retiring

Both Paul and Murray expressed their confidence in the basic economic soundness of business in general and of Torrance and vicinity in particular, and advised that they have no intention of retiring from business.

IN THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

"smart money" --at torrance Warner Bros. San Pedro Beginning Sunday

Edward G. Robinson, Star of "Little Caesar," Now Playing in "Smart Money" at Warner Bros. San Pedro Theater.

The Rex Beach story, "White Shoulders," will be shown at Warner Bros. Theater the remainder of the week.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

Robinson's genius for dynamic characterization was so perfectly demonstrated in "Little Caesar" that it is to Warner Bros. Two great stars in this great screen triumph—Edward G. Robinson and James Cagney.

Robinson comes through again with a more powerful role than ever before; he does all his shooting with dice, kings are his forte, blondes are his weakness.

at fox plaza

Short Subjects Round Out Fine Week's Bill

Two stars of recent successful pictures have combined efforts to make an even bigger success in "Young Donovan's Kid," showing Friday and Saturday at the Fox Plaza Theater.

The Front Page, a screen transcription of the brilliant stage melodrama of headlining crime, sponsored by Howard Hughes, producer of "Hell's Angels," and directed by Lewis Milestone who megaphoned "All Quiet on the Western Front," is to be on view at the Torrance Theater for four days starting Sunday.

Bestie Adolphe Menjou, who is to be seen as the cynical managing editor, there is young Pat O'Brien, the young Broadway player Mr. Hughes took out of the cast of Bolitho's "Overture" for his screen debut as the star reporter.

Bebe Daniels, who plays the part of an adventuress of rather wicked blandishments and murderous intentions in "The Maltese Falcon," the Warner Bros. mystery melodrama, coming to Fox Redondo Theater Sunday and Monday, was glad to accept the part which, if not a sympathetic one, at least gives her a chance to hold her crowds spellbound.

All the characters in the picture, though they appear to be most charming people, most of the time are skillwags of the worst brand. But they are human beings and since all human beings are composites of what they ought to be and what they are not, there is sure to be a response.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

at fox plaza

Short Subjects Round Out Fine Week's Bill

Two stars of recent successful pictures have combined efforts to make an even bigger success in "Young Donovan's Kid," showing Friday and Saturday at the Fox Plaza Theater.

The Front Page, a screen transcription of the brilliant stage melodrama of headlining crime, sponsored by Howard Hughes, producer of "Hell's Angels," and directed by Lewis Milestone who megaphoned "All Quiet on the Western Front," is to be on view at the Torrance Theater for four days starting Sunday.

Bestie Adolphe Menjou, who is to be seen as the cynical managing editor, there is young Pat O'Brien, the young Broadway player Mr. Hughes took out of the cast of Bolitho's "Overture" for his screen debut as the star reporter.

Bebe Daniels, who plays the part of an adventuress of rather wicked blandishments and murderous intentions in "The Maltese Falcon," the Warner Bros. mystery melodrama, coming to Fox Redondo Theater Sunday and Monday, was glad to accept the part which, if not a sympathetic one, at least gives her a chance to hold her crowds spellbound.

All the characters in the picture, though they appear to be most charming people, most of the time are skillwags of the worst brand. But they are human beings and since all human beings are composites of what they ought to be and what they are not, there is sure to be a response.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

The celebrated "double bill," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" is to be the attraction—the first production to play the new classic playhouse of the people since its dedication last September. Gates admitting to the auditorium are open at 6 o'clock. A special bus service, commencing at that hour, will convey passengers on transfers from Vermont and Western avenue terminals of the yellow cars, serving red car passengers at the same time, directly to the Greek Theater.

At a means of popularizing the new $250,000, hill-bemmed Greek Theater in Griffith Park, whose accessibility and ample parking facilities, without charge, are still a dark secret to most motorists, the Los Angeles board of park commissioners have sanctioned a performance of grand opera tomorrow, Friday night, at which 2000 free seats will be available to the public on a first come, first served basis.

For the remaining seats, a uniform tariff of one dollar is asked, which income is to go toward defraying expenses of the production.

MACMARR STORES

1929 CARSON STREET 1407 SARTORI AVENUE PRICES EFFECTIVE FRIDAY, SATURDAY, JUNE 26-27, 1931

Table of grocery items and prices: Beans 23c, Spaghetti 25c, Tomatoes 12 1/2c, etc.

PRODUCE DEPARTMENT

Table of produce items and prices: Watermelons 1c, Tomatoes 10c, etc.

MEAT DEPARTMENT

Table of meat items and prices: HAMS 21 1/2c, POT ROASTS 15c-12 1/2-10c, etc.

Advertisement for Hormel Ham: Your SAVING IS THRILLING and you get BETTER HAM

Discovered! Why A Prune Has Wrinkles!

By the United Press. GERBER.—No matter how young a prune may be, we are told, it is always full of wrinkles.

Professional Directory

- Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

Five Fireworks Stands Will Be Used By Legion

Auxiliary Members Are To Run Booths in Daytime

FOX PLAZA

Hawthorne Phone 222
Friday and Saturday RICHARD DIX and Jackie "Skippy" Cooper

"Young Donovan's Kid"

Sunday and Monday VICTOR MCLAGLEN Fay Wray Lew Cody

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

"Up Pops the Devil"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

Tarnished Lady

Thursday Only Carole Lombard, Norman Foster, Skeets Gallagher in

Wee Bobbie

Golf Course Keen to Play On - 18 HOLES - ON CABRILLO Now Open 10c and 15c

Play Free!...

Las Palmas Course Riverside - Redondo at Western

Smart Money

With Edward G. Robinson NOW PLAYING "White Shoulders"

Professional Directory

Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

Professional Directory

Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

FOX PLAZA

Hawthorne Phone 222
Friday and Saturday RICHARD DIX and Jackie "Skippy" Cooper

"Young Donovan's Kid"

Sunday and Monday VICTOR MCLAGLEN Fay Wray Lew Cody

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

"Up Pops the Devil"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

Professional Directory

Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

FOX PLAZA

Hawthorne Phone 222
Friday and Saturday RICHARD DIX and Jackie "Skippy" Cooper

"Young Donovan's Kid"

Sunday and Monday VICTOR MCLAGLEN Fay Wray Lew Cody

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

"Up Pops the Devil"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

Professional Directory

Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

FOX PLAZA

Hawthorne Phone 222
Friday and Saturday RICHARD DIX and Jackie "Skippy" Cooper

"Young Donovan's Kid"

Sunday and Monday VICTOR MCLAGLEN Fay Wray Lew Cody

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

"Up Pops the Devil"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

Professional Directory

Dr. A. P. Stevenson Physician and Surgeon
DRS. MITTS & MITTS CHIROPRACTORS
DR. R. F. BISHOP Dentist

FOX PLAZA

Hawthorne Phone 222
Friday and Saturday RICHARD DIX and Jackie "Skippy" Cooper

"Young Donovan's Kid"

Sunday and Monday VICTOR MCLAGLEN Fay Wray Lew Cody

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"

"Up Pops the Devil"

Clark & McCullough Comedy "FORREST MARKET NITE"