MISS HOLZER WEDDED SATURDAY

Miss Theresa Holzer, niece of Joseph Leitner, 700 Border, became the bride on Saturday morning of Joseph J. Meixl of Los Angeles. The ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock at the Catholic Church of the Precious Blood, Rev. Father O'Halloran officiating.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Olga Marquardt, of Torrance, maid of honor; Mrs. Frieda Ashauer, bridesmaid. Fred Ashauer attended the groom, and little Regina Schreive carried the bride's train.

Miss Holzer was given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Leitner. She wore a full length gown of embroidered chiffon, long veil of tulle, arranged in an effect and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marquardt wore orchid-satin and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Mrs. Ashauer wore white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Tables for the bridal party and relatives were reserved at Hendrick's Tea room, where a 4-course repast was served at 12 o'clock. In the evening the party returned to Torrance, where a reception was held at the Leitner home. Mr. and Mrs. Meixl will reside in Hollywood.

POLLY ANNS MEET

Mrs. Frank Mineck was hostess to the Polly Anns when the group met at her home on Beech street for bridge on Friday. Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. O. W. Hudson and second to Mrs. Charles Arvill. Present were Mesdames Charles Arvill, A. W. Melzer, H. L. Alcorn, Thomas Kendrick, George Watson, John Guyan, A. W. Johnson, O. W. Hudson. Following bridge the hostess served a buffet lunch.

M. E. AID ENJOY PICNIC

O. E. S. GIVES TOY DOG SHOW

Following the regular business meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star at Masonic Temple Thursday a social evening was enjoyed at which more than 50 members were present. Many of the ladies lent atmosphere to the occasion by wearing their beach pajamas. Not to be outshone by the brilliance of the ladies' attire, a group of the men arrived also wearing pajamas. A feature of the program was a Toy Dog Show with more than 35 entries. Willis Brooks made an effective entrance when he arrived late wearing a hobo outfit and leading a huge Lowelwyn Setter by a green ribbon leash. After giving a phony pedigree he was awarded first prize. Other awards were made to Hermione Oetken, Eleanor Farquhar of Lomita, Alda Hudson and Jennie Moore. A buffet supper was served followed by an evening of games and dancing.

MISS NEAL A BRIDE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Miss Zola Ruth Neal, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Neal, of 2271 Redondo boulevard, became the bride on Sunday, July 25, of Raymond E. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Thompson, of Torrance boulevard. The ceremony took place at First Christian church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends, with Rev. B. H. Langfelter officiating. Presiding the ceremony, Miss Lucy Calico of Redlands, cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ruth Henry of Santa Monica. The bride then entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Henry, and was given in marriage by her cousin, R. A. Henry, of Santa Monica. Miss Neal was beautifully costumed in a gown of pale rose net over ivory satin with picture hand of rose lace and carried a bride's bouquet of pink roses and lily of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to an intimate group at the home of the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left immediately for their new home at 906 McDonald avenue, Wilmington, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1.

The marriage of Kelsey Dayton Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hall, of 1451 Post avenue, to Miss Mary Pauline Bonham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bonham of Redondo, was solemnized at a home wedding with simple charm at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, July 25, at the home of the bride, 608 North Juanita avenue, Redondo. The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of white larkspur and sweet peas, with a lighted wedding bell suspended from above. Rev. Ray Willing Smith, pastor of Redondo First Methodist church, read the ceremony, a double ring ceremony being used. The bride was attired in a costume of white satin and wore a lace veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley with shower of Cæcilie Bruner roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Maude Bonham, who wore orchid chiffon and carried a bouquet of orchid sweet peas, pink roses and delphinium. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Kenneth Wheaton sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Jeanne Wheaton. The bride entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March with her father, who gave her in marriage. La Dorn Hall served his brother as best man. Following the wedding a reception was given to the group of more than 40 intimate friends and relatives who witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Stella Black assisted Mrs. Bonham in serving. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home in Torrance upon their return from a short honeymoon trip.
