

Edison

By BEULAH LEWIS
1915 Gramery Avenue
Slowly, as a towering rock is undermined by the sea, So the soul of Edison Passed into eternity.

I cannot vision him as content With what he accomplished here,
But solving the problems and mysteries Surrounding a higher sphere.

Will another rise to take his place
And echo the greatness of his name?
Or is he destined to stand alone, Unequaled, in the Hall of Fame?

NEW STOP SIGN

new reflector type boulevard stop sign was authorized by the council Monday night for the interlevard and Prairie avenue in the McDonald tract. The county road department recommended the new sign.

Brother and Sister Meet In East After 40-Year Separation

A reunion between brother and sister who had not seen each other for 40 years was the high light of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Fiesel's recent trip back east. At Monticello, New York, Fiesel, who is a retired farmer living at 1442 Carson street, "walked in" on his sister, Mrs. Pollock, in the guise of a prospective "roomer."
But his sister, now a stout little 56-year-old rooming house keeper, recognized him as the brother she last saw in Chicago in 1892. Fiesel, who has lived in the territory adjoining Torrance for more than 37 years, lost track of his sister until 10 years ago.
Mr. and Mrs. Fiesel visited Mrs.
Fiesel's children by a previous marriage, while in the east. They returned from their month's trip last week.
