May Have To Dissolve Co. Lighting Dist.

South Torrance Difficulty Over "Double Tax" Has Deep Ramifications

Is the South Torrance addition to the city a part of the county lighting district under the 1921 Lighting District Act?

The answer to that question, if in the affirmative, means a lot of work will confront the city council in order to release property owners in that recent addition to the city from paying county lighting assessments.

Because, if the 1921 Act was used in creating a county lighting district in that section of what was then county territory, the Torrance area can only be withdrawn by dissolving the entire district, City Attorney Findley told the council Tuesday night.

Findley had interviewed County Auditor Payne on the subject and Payne informed him that if the 1921 Act was used there is no way a part of the district can be removed from county light assessments except by the dissolution of the whole.

"I believe the 1921 Act applies, although I have not yet received definite information substantiating this belief. I will obtain that information before the next council meeting and will have a plan to propose at that time which the council may want to start," Findley said.

At the present time, South Torrance property owners are assessed 33 cents per $100 valuation for county lights and are also charged with the municipal levy which includes the cost of the illumination.

Sunday, for one day only, the Fox Redondo will present "Once a Lady" with Ruth Chatterton and an all-star cast. The story of a woman, socially distinguished, who becomes an outcast after one scandalous moment—and lives to atone in a decade of romantic and dramatic living.

Comedy—sparkling sends of it—and drama, romance, pathos are the elements which get a thorough work-out in the hands of a very capable and very large cast of stage and screen favorites in "Girls About Town," which will be shown at the Fox Redondo Monday and Tuesday. The cast includes Lilyan Tashman and Kay Francis. Packed with side-splitting comedy, fast-moving action, drama, domestic philosophy and colorful settings—interpreted by a cast of unusually clever players, "Smart Women" will be shown at the Fox Redondo, Wednesday.

Tring of a tether of a mule which he was leading, about his waist, brought death to John Blancarte, 33, employee of the Idealite plant in the Palms Verdes hills near Waveria Saturday afternoon. Blancarte, with other employees of the plant, was at the watering tank near the company corral when the animal became frightened, dragging his victim for a distance of about 200 yards, according to reports received here.

He was pronounced dead of skull fracture and internal injuries at the Harbor-Redondo hospital when he was taken immediately after the accident. Blancarte leaves a widow and three children.

Henry F. "Hank" Ullrich and Robert J. Deinger are candidates for the presidency of the Torrance Kiwanis club, according to an announcement this week of the primary results by the election committee, headed by John Holm.

For vice president, local Kiwanians will vote, November 30, on C. A. Pasman and Frank Schaeffer. Sam Haysport, retiring president, is supposed for the office of district trustee, and C. T. Rippey and B. J. Deinger are named to run for treasurer.

Seven directors are to be chosen at the same time from the following members: Dr. L. F. Bishop, Charles Schultz, Frank Steinbiber, Michael Strasser, Al Turner, G. J. Acres, Tom Watson, R. J. Deinger, Dr. O. E. Fossum, J. B. Jensen, C. T. Rippey and John Holm.

George Peckham, member of the firm of Peckham and Schultz, regional and only Ford dealers in Torrance, was appointed a director of the Chamber of Commerce to fill the place left vacant by the resignation of Earl Connor. Peckham is a past vice president of the chamber and is now serving as a member of the board of trustees, drafting the proposed city charter. He has always maintained a keen interest in civic affairs.

Protection of City Employees Probed

Councilman R. R. Smith proposed a general survey of all matters regarding insurance for city workers; a safety campaign, for municipal employees and a thorough inspection of all matters in regard to protection of regular and volunteer firemen during the course of Tuesday night's council meeting.

Such a survey would simplify a number of matters confronting the council concerning insurance policies and the relative protection afforded regular and volunteer firefighters, he said.

In the pictureization of the David Graham Phillips novel, which will play Tuesday and Wednesday, November 24 and 25, at the Torrance Theatre, Miss Garbo's wardrobe included a carnival dancer's spangles, ultra-modern evening gowns, pajamas, ensembles, sport suits, farm girl's clothes, flannel nightgowns, hiking outfit, gingham frocks, lounging robes, olisks and boots and leaping costumes.

Robert Z. Leonard directed the new feature from "Wanda, Tuesday's adaptation of the famous story. The film setting encompasses a wide latitude of action, necessitating the wide variety of costumes worn by the star. Clark Gable plays opposite Garbo and the cast includes Jean Hersholt, John Miljan, Alan Hale, Hale Hamilton, Hilda Vaughn, Russell Simpson, Cecil Cunningham and Ian Keith.

"The Beloved Bachelor" at the Fox Redondo Saturday only, is Paul Lukas' first picture in which he plays the title role. He was assigned to this important function through his excellent work. Heading the support is Dorothy Jordan. Charlie Ruggles provides the bulk of the comedy. He upholds his reputation as a mirth maker in elbow bending bachelorette roles.
