

MUTT AND JEFF

The Unemployment Situation Is Improved

By BUD FISHER

Copyright, 1931, by H. C. Fisher, Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
Great Britain Rights Reserved

Copyright, 1931, by H. C. Fisher. Great Britain Rights Reserved. Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Two Sections
12 Pages
This Issue

5c PER COPY

PARTY JACK TONIGHT
ed to Attend Brief tribution of children pets playing "Holy Night," celebration will start at 7 o'clock on the Tree with 1000 avenues. A brief Yuletide by schools in the city and Ministerial Association, will see the distribution of presents by Santa Claus.

The Fire Department is again giving the community celebration and has prepared St. Nick with an ample supply of gifts for every child attending. The program will be about 25 minutes long. The Chamber of Commerce has secured an amplifying unit which will permit all who want to hear every word spoken on the platform.

The Standard Oil public address system will broadcast the program through the courtesy of Floyd Hill, the new district manager. Monday schools and choirs from the First Baptist, Catholic Church, the Nativity, First Christian, Islamic Science, Episcopal, Anglican, Four Square Gospel, and Day Saints, First Lutheran, First Methodist, Episcopal churches have combined to present an outstanding Christmas program tonight. A committee, headed by W. E. Brown, Secretary, O. E. Hall, William H. Brown has been working in conjunction with the pastors to present a fine Christmas observance.

Tonight's Program
The program follows:
Christmas music by Tom Ull's orchestra will open and close the observance.
Trumpeters Donald Haines, Warren Sapp and Eric Chapman, playing "Holy Night" from a disc.
"Holy Night" sung by the combined choirs of Torrance churches.
First scripture, reading from Luke 2:1-7, by Turner McLean.
Allegro—"Cradle Scene" by the boys.
Scripture reading from Luke 10:1-16.
Allegro—"Shepherd's Scene" by the choir.
"Come All Ye Faithful" by the choir.
Scripture reading from Matthew 11:1-12.
Allegro—"Wise Men" by the choir.
"The Power of Jesus" by the choir.
Prayer.

Big Supply of Gifts Ready
The trumpeter accompanying the gifts will be Dallas Danford. The play will be directed by Richard (Continued on Page 3-A)

All "Patients"

Release Christmas Eve!
Be Retired Tomorrow

hood of the Central Evangelical members were putting the gifts which will be delivered via all needy families in Torrance the business men who donated materials, the residents who gave toys, the men of the company who gave their time and experience to fixing up the play-places.

is impossible to give the exact number of toys which will be distributed to children named by the Torrance Relief Society. The thoroughness has been too busy being ready to meet the demand to count all their "patients." The Torrance Relief will furnish names and addresses of the needy—but if anyone knows of a child who might go without Christmas toys, please let us know. We will be grateful to receive the names and addresses of the needy children, and if possible, the names of the donors.

at the Union Oil station, corner of Atlington and Carson, or pastor of any local church.

And A Contented New Year