

FIRE ON HIGH-LINE
A short-circuit on the high line running through the Kettler ranch in South Torrance caused a transformer to catch fire early Monday morning. Damage to the transformer and cross arms on the pole was estimated by Southern California Edison officials at several hundred dollars. The blaze was extinguished by the rain and Torrance fire department.

YULETIDE BRINGS OLD-FASHIONED HOSPITALITY
Christmas, the day looked forward to and planned for many months is upon us and many lovely affairs have been given and still others to come.

Hostesses have been alert to the many possibilities for entertaining at this festive season. Diminutive Christmas trees, cottonseed, poinsettias and English holly have been effectively used to furnish seasonal atmosphere for many successful parties.

LOUISE HANSEN BECOMES BRIDE AT CHURCH WEDDING, DEC. 19

One of the lovely weddings of recent date was that of Miss Louise Mae Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, and William Biesel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Biesel, of New York, Saturday evening, December 19. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. E. Wonder in the presence of 200 guests. Miss Muriel Bell, accompanied by Miss Lois Clement of Orange, sang, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Hansen was beautifully attired in a gown of pale blue satin and wore a pink tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of Russell roses and lily of the valley and was attended by Miss Marcella Kembel, who wore a fitted gown of pink crepe with matching accessories and carried pink roses with maiden hair fern. Mr. Diesel was attended by Edith Koehler.

Mrs. Hansen received her guests in a gown of black lace at the reception held for members of the bridal party and intimate friends immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. and Mr. Diesel will be at home to their friends at 2065 1/2 Carson street in the near future.

MISS STACHOWICZ TO APPEAR AT L. A. THEATRE

Miss Wanda Stachowicz will take one of the leading roles in "Mother of God," the Pulitzer prize play of 1929, which opens Christmas night at Egan Theatre, Pico and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles, for an indefinite run. The play is particularly adapted to the Christmas season.

MRS. SNOW RECEIVES GUESTS IN NEW HOME

Mrs. J. C. Snow was a charming hostess when she entertained members of the Cotton bridge club at her new home on Beech street last week. The Christmas motif prevailed in place favors and flowers and attractively wrapped gifts were exchanged preceding card play. Bridge honors were awarded Mrs. Ernest Degner and Mrs. Ella Robinson. Present were Mrs. J. J. Cook, Mrs. John Dierig, Mrs. Ella Robinson, Mrs. J. J. Montague, Mrs. Fanny Wilkes, Mrs. Tom Shriver and Mrs. Ella Robinson.

P. E. CHEERIO CLUB AT CHRISTMAS PARTY

One of the Christmas parties given during the past week was that which members of the P. E. Cheerio club enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Frank Miller on Arlington Avenue Friday evening. Mrs. W. C. Ruppel and Mrs. W. H. Shoup of Redondo assisted Mrs. Miller as hostesses. An attractively decorated Christmas tree from which white elephant packages were distributed, was a feature of the party, and a stuffed pet show also furnished entertainment. Mrs. Ruppel was awarded a prize for the best looking pet entry, judges for this affair being Mrs. J. B. Green, Mrs. Lon Bishop and Mrs. J. Smith of the mother club of Los Angeles. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Viellenave were presented with appropriately decorated birthday cakes and each guest presented Mrs. Miller with a quilt block for a friendship quilt. Music was provided by Miss Mary Scallen.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB AT LUNCHEON

The home of Mrs. Fred Knudson at Lomita was the setting for a beautifully appointed bridge luncheon when she entertained her club Thursday. Covers were placed for Mesdames Harry McManus, W. C. Dolley, Bert Dye, Arthur Dodge, J. E. Haggard, A. W. Melner, Mae McKinley, Frank Clark, J. O. McKinnon, George Clayton and J. Shaw. Bridge awards were made Mrs. A. W. Melner and Mrs. Arthur Dodge, and consolation prizes were received by Mrs. W. C. Dolley. A feature of the affair was the exchange of Christmas packages.

BRIDGE DINNER AT WOMAN'S CLUB SUCCESSFUL
Members of Torrance Woman's club were hostesses at one of the season's loveliest parties when they entertained their husbands and friends with a delightfully appointed bridge dinner Friday evening. An attractively decorated Christmas tree accented a seasonal note in the decorations and covers were placed at small tables for more than 120. Bridge awards were made Mrs. Morgan, Charles Myers, Mrs. Caroline Collins and W. E. Krupp. While consolation prizes were received by Mrs. T. T. Bahitt and G. B. Rogers.

TORRANCE-MADE GAMES TO BE AMONG PRESENTS
One hundred of the toys to be given children attending the Community Christmas celebration tonight will be Torrance-made products. The Chamber of Commerce has purchased that number of Hurum Reeves' patented game called "Ringame". Reeves has sold several hundred to stores in the Los Angeles and San Francisco bay regions.

that all attending be guided by directions made from the platform in order that there will be no confusion to mar the effect of the program.

Santa Claus will then make his premier appearance in Torrance for 1931, being ushered in by the city firemen. Distribution of the gifts of candy, nuts, apples and toys will be started at once. This year the boys and girls will be separated and arranged in two lines which will pass through gates to where they get the presents. Members of the fire department, police, American Legion and Boy Scouts will be present to prevent any jams or confusion. More than 1500 children can be accommodated from Santa's huge sack of gifts.

New Citizenship Class to Start

A new class in Citizenship will start at the Torrance Evening High school Tuesday evening, December 29, and all interested in obtaining naturalization papers should enroll at once, according to Mrs. Stella Young, instructor. Residents in adjoining territory are invited to join this class. After the first meeting on December 29, the class will hold regular weekly sessions every Thursday evening, beginning January 7, from 7 to 9 o'clock, in Room 201 at the High school.

SCHOOL AGAIN MONDAY

Johnnie and Mary Torrance will resume their studies again Monday morning, December 29, but will get another holiday Friday, January 1.

Mrs. Hurum Reeve Gets Perfect 'Hand'

Pinochle players salute Mrs. Hurum Reeve. While playing Thursday evening at her home, 913 Cota avenue, with Leon Bruce, W. L. Reeve and her husband, Mrs. Reeve picked up a perfect double sequence pinochle hand in clubs. Surprised, but not excited, Mrs. Reeve calmly added the limit of 1500 points to her score. The other players had been receiving exceptionally good hands all evening as they had bid up to 500 on several of them—but Mrs. Reeve's feat halted the play for the session.

MORE PATTERN-PATTERN

Up to midnight last night, the rainfall here had totalled .12 of an inch during the past 12 hours. The storm Monday night drenched the city under 1.03 inches of wetness. The total rainfall to date this season is now 5.72 inches as compared with 1.72 inches this date last year.
