Miss Guyan Honored at Charming Shower

Miss Rosemary Guyan, whose wedding is to be an event of this week, was honored when Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mrs. George Watson and Miss Hermione Oetken entertained with a beautifully appointed miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon at the Fess home on Arlington avenue. An alcove in the dining room was converted into a garden scene with canaries, hanging in a bow of narcissus and acacia. Green and yellow were accented in accessories and menu. Miss Guyan was the recipient of many beautiful gifts from the assembled guests. Included were Mesdames Bert Dye, Zada Hastie, W. W. Woodington, L. L. Fordice, J. O. Boyd, J. Hitchcock, L. Lang and R. Greig of Harbor City; Joe Ray, John Dennis, J. O. Moore, Roy Whittier, A. W. Boynton, W. C. Dolley, Matilda Winters, Alfred Gourdier, O. W. Hudson, J. E. McMasters, John Guyan, Paul Kasper, Al Kerber, W. W. West, Earl Connor, Cecily Perkin, F. L. Parks, May McKinley, May Sides, botham, Baker Smith, and Misses Mary Guyan, Ethel Guyan, Hazel Clark and Helen McMaster. A musical program was presented with Mrs. McKinley, who sang "O Rugged Cross," followed by a violin solo by Bobby Fordice. Mrs. McKinley then played a piano solo and concluded with Lohengrin's Wedding March. Dainty refreshments were served buffet style at the close of the afternoon.

GIRLS ARE ENTERTAINED BY MISS COOPER

Miss Beulah Cooper was a charming hostess when she entertained a group of her friends at her home Tuesday evening. Bridge furnished diversion and awards for high score were received by Doris McFarland and Dorothy Eshom. While a consolation was received by Essa Palmer. Present were Marjorie Huber, Ladene Banks, Judy Hooker, Dorothy Eshom, Ruth Yager, Marion V. Lohmeyer, Kathryn Smart, Doris McFarland, Faye Lewis, Essa Palmer and Maxine Smith.

TORRANCE ARTISTS WHO WILL APPEAR AT PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL PROGRAM

WANDA STACHOWICZ
Soloist

Two outstanding Torrance artists who have been included in the program to entertain the throngs of clubwomen who will assemble here in February are Miss Wanda Stachowicz, grand opera star, who made an enviable success during her stay in Italy where she had spent two years in study and made her debut at the Milan opera house in the role of "Madame Butterfly." Miss Stachowicz, since her return to Torrance a year ago, has sung before a number of notable groups in Los Angeles and other Southland cities. Miss Stachowicz will sing a group of songs, which will include "Knowest Thou The Land," from the opera, "Mignon," "In a Luxembourg Garden," and possibly one other number of her own selection. Mrs. Kathryn Buffington, who will accompany Miss Stachowicz, is a pianist of note and a successful teacher of piano. She is a graduate of Washington State College in music where she was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree.

KATHRYNE BUFFINGTON
Pianist

Soloist At Benefit Concert

MME. TEALA BILLINI
Pianist

Who will appear with the Madrigal Singers, January 29, on program to aid the Torrance Relief Society.

Woman's Club Notes

The stated meeting of Torrance Woman's club will be held at the clubhouse, Wednesday, February 3, at 12:30. Due to extra work entailed by Presidents' Council no luncheon will be served at this meeting, instead each member is requested to take her lunch and hot coffee will be provided by the club. This promises to be a delightfully informal meeting at which reports will be made and the outcome of Presidents' council will be discussed.

Members of the P. E. Cheerio club will entertain the club with their "Old Fashioned Album," a cleverly arranged number featuring 18 members of that organization.

Members of the board of directors are requested to note that a board meeting will be held at the clubhouse at 9:30 a. m. Monday.

BETSY ROSS CLUB O GIVE PARTY

The Betsy Ross Star club will hold a Rockefeller dime party at Masonic Temple, Monday, February 1, at 1:00 p. m. Bring your friends and your dimes and see what it's all about.

In appreciation of her work during her term as president, Mrs. F. L. Parks, retiring president of the Betsy Ross Club, was presented with a beautiful onyx ring with the O. E. S. insignia by the incoming president, Mrs. L. L. Fordice, at the last regular meeting.

MRS. FORDICE ENTERTAINS BOARD

Mrs. L. L. Fordice, president of the Betsy Ross Star Club, entertained her board of directors with a luncheon at her home on Martha avenue Wednesday afternoon. Immediately following the luncheon a business meeting was held at which plans were made for activities for the ensuing term. Present were Mrs. Bert Dye, Mrs. W. W. West and Miss Grace Hartlett.

MRS. FESS RETIRES AS OFFICER

Mrs. Persia K. Fess attended a meeting of the 1926 O. E. S. Matrons' Association Monday, at which time she retired as vice president of the organization. As a tribute to Mrs. Fess, the Association presented her with a gift of gold. Luncheon was served at noon to 40 members and installation of officers occupied the balance of the afternoon.

TORRANCE REPRESENTED AT PEARL CHAPTER O. E. S.

Bliss Mae McGiffin, worthy grand matron of the state of California, was an honored guest at Pearl Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at Compton Monday evening when she made her official visit to that group. Those who attended from Torrance Chapter were Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brooks, Mrs. Paul Kasper, Mrs. E. L. Parks, Mrs. Lorraine Ulrich, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. Myrtle Givens, Mrs. Bernice Davis and Mrs. Al Kerber.

MRS. MYERS ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the Friday Afternoon club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Myers with a delightful party last week. Awards were made Mrs. Ray Leslie, while Mrs. W. H. Stanger received consolation. Present were Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. Baker Smith, Mrs. J. F. Stone, Mrs. Al Harder, Mrs. Robert Sleeth, Mrs. Jack Gill, Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, Mrs. D. A. Murphy, Mrs. Floyd Evans, Mrs. W. H. Stanger and Mrs. Ray Leslie.

O. E. S. NOTES

The stated meeting of Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held at Masonic Temple tonight, Thursday evening, January 28. Visiting Stars will occupy the chairs and all members are requested to attend. A Hawaiian program will be presented and refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

Legion Auxiliary To Blossom Forth Soon In 3-Act Stage Play

"The College Flapper," a big three-act comedy of college life, is to be staged February 15th and 16th in the local high school auditorium. The play is being sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and promises to be the biggest attraction of the year. The play promises plenty of fun from start to finish and prominent town folk will make up the cast. For future news in regards to the play—WATCH THIS PAPER.

MINISTERIAL UNION ENTERTAINED

Rev. and Mrs. George Elder were hosts when they entertained with a nicely appointed dinner party at their home Thursday evening. Their guests were members of the local Ministerial Union and included Rev. and Mrs. John B. Speed, Rev. and Mrs. Kemp Winkler, and Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Wonder. Old-fashioned games provided diversion for the evening.

PARTY AT MULLIN HOME ENJOYED

The home of Mrs. Arthur Mullin on Cota avenue provided the setting for a delightfully arranged party when she and her committee entertained with 10 tables of bridge and 500 Thursday afternoon. The party was given under the auspices of the Catholic Altar Society. Awards for bridge were received by Mrs. F. D. Haskell and Mrs. Pauline Beck of Wilmington. Prizes for 500 were awarded Mrs. J. W. Welden and Mrs. H. McNeil.

Mrs. J. F. Cook has returned from Huntington Park where she was a week-end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Sidebotham.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

By MARIE SMITH

At the meeting of the Girl Scouts held last Wednesday the following officers were elected: President, Marie Smith; vice president, Edith Bay; scribe, Roberta Colburn; song leaders, Julia Schipert and Jane Burkett; patrol leaders, Troop 1, Jane Mastri; Troop 2, Eleanor Smith; Troop 3, Jane Burkett, and Troop 4, Dorothy Joyce.

This afternoon Troop 1 hiked to Torrance Beach where they built fires, cooked and worked on other activities for the first and second class tests.

At the court of honor Tuesday, plans will be made for the special meetings and parties for the balance of the year.

W. H. M. S. MEETS AT FORDICE HOME

Mrs. L. L. Fordice was hostess when she entertained members of the W. H. M. S. at her home on Martha avenue last week. Mrs. Al Price read the devotional which was followed by a solo, "Thy Will Be Done," by Mrs. Fordice, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Sinclair at the piano. Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, president, then conducted a business meeting at which plans were discussed for work during the ensuing term.

Mrs. Daniel Barnard enjoyed a splendid program at Florence Women's club Monday where she was the guest of Mrs. George Gilks of Florence.

EVENING PARTY IS ENJOYED

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gourdier were hosts when they entertained at their home on Gramercy avenue Saturday evening with a delightfully intimate bridge party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenkins of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. W. C. Dolley and Mrs. O. W. Hudson. Bridge awards were won by Mrs. Jenkins and George Watson.

BIRTHDAY AFFAIR

Mrs. C. L. Freeman, 1738, "Cabrillo," was honored Friday evening at a family gathering at her home held to observe her birthday. Out-of-town guests at the affair were her father and mother, Mesdames Mrs. Charles H. Austin, of Chula Vista, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Mays of Huntington Park.

RELIEF SOCIETY WANTS SEWING MACHINE

Members of the Torrance Relief Society would be grateful for a gift or loan of a sewing machine. Call 456. Anyone having a bag ready for collection please call Mrs. Charles Schultz, phone 79-W.

WILL SERVE DINNER

The Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Episcopal church will give one of their delicious dinners in the Guild hall of the church Thursday evening, February 4. Roast pork, apple sauce and other good things will make up the menu. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Scott of Beverly Hills were guests Saturday of Ensign and Mrs. Leola Richardson at a reception and dance aboard the U. S. Callaghan. The party then returned to the Patterson home on Acacia street where they enjoyed a buffet supper.
