Pre-Nuptial Shower Given For Miss Banks

Miss Evelyn Ladeen Banks, whose marriage to Thomas Wayne of Kentucky will be an event of next month, was honored when Mrs. W. E. Shawger entertained for her with a luncheon at her home on Marcelina avenue Saturday. The luncheon table was beautifully appointed in green and white and pastel accessories were used. A white wedding bell was suspended over the table and bowls of orchid and pink sweet peas centered the table. Covers were placed for the honoree, Miss Evelyn Ladeen Banks, Mrs. E. E. Banks, Ruth Banks, Mrs. Ida Olliges, Mrs. James McFarland of Redondo, Lillian Dixon, Bertha Hooks, Beulah Cooper, Essa Palmer and Ruth Yeager. Following luncheon Miss Banks was presented with many handsome gifts.

OUT-OF-TOWN PARTY ENJOYED

The birthday of Raymond Thompson of San Pedro provided the incentive for a delightfully appointed party when a group of Torrance and San Pedro friends surprised him at his home Thursday evening. Bridge and 500 furnished entertainment for the evening, awards being received by George Murphy and Nick Schader. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Denney of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schader, Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy of Gardena, Mr. and Mrs. William Finke of Long Beach, Miss Josephine Daniels and Mrs. Dill of El Monte and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Zola Neal of Torrance.

K. C. PARTY IS ENJOYED

A nicely arranged bridge and 500 party was enjoyed at the Knights of Columbus club rooms at Torrance boulevard and Portola avenues when that group entertained Monday evening, May 2. Prizes for high score at bridge were awarded Mrs. C. Sprague and Charles Dalley. Mrs. H. Staehelberger and Charles Hoffacker, and 500 prize winners were Florence Gramling and W. A. McMaster, Mrs. R. L. McFarland and J. V. Murray, while a door prize was presented to John Nady.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET FRIDAY

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fordice, 1720 Martina avenue, Friday, May 6, at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. S. S. Worrell will preside at the business meeting and a splendid program has been arranged to follow. Special tribute will be paid to mothers at this meeting. All members are urged to be present.

R. N. A. WILL INITIATE

All Royal Neighbors are asked to be present Friday night at their meeting place at the K. C. hall at 8 o'clock, when candidates will be initiated. Following the business session there will be a short program of entertainment and a pot luck lunch. Members are requested to bring a covered dish and sandwiches.

MISS PERKINS AT MURRAY BEAUTY SHOPPE

The many friends of Miss Myrtle H. Perkins will be interested to hear that she is associated with the Murray Beauty Shoppe at Torrance boulevard and Portola avenues. Miss Perkins, who is a graduate of Torrance high school and has completed a course at the Dellar School of Cosmetology at Los Angeles, is well prepared to offer the latest in beauty work to her patrons. For appointment call 226-J.

MISS ARQ ARRIVES IN TORRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Arq of 1627 Greenwood avenue are the proud parents of a seven-pound daughter, Geraldine, born at their home, Tuesday, May 3.

TRIPLE T'S TO HOLD PARTY

Members of the Triple T's will hold another of their delightful dancing parties at American Legion clubhouse, Friday evening, May 13. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, Dr. R. A. Bingham and Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Bishop will have charge of arrangements for this party.

PHILATHEAS MEET AT BISHOP HOME

Mrs. J. O. Bishop was hostess when she entertained the Philathea at her home on Carson street Tuesday evening, with a 6 o'clock pot luck supper. Following a short business session at which Mrs. Snodgrass presided, a social hour was enjoyed. Included were Mrs. J. O. Bishop, Mrs. E. N. Tompkins, Francis Snodgrass, Alice Beck, Marjorie Curley, Marie and Rosalie Morgan, Alice Totten, Doris Spoon, Kathryn Reeve, Hazel Lewis, Helen Burgener, Mary Jones and Ethel Snyder.

P. E. CHEERIO ENTERTAINS AT MAY DAY AFFAIR

Members of the P. E. Cheerio club were hostesses when they entertained with their annual May Day luncheon at the Torrance Woman's clubhouse Monday at noon. Their guests included members of the executive board of the Los Angeles Mother club and representatives from Riverside, Pomona, Pasadena and Los Angeles as well as the board of directors of Torrance Woman's club. Decorations were worked out in pastel shades using the Maypole as a motif and pastel nut baskets were used as favors. The Madrigal Singers from Torrance high, led by Mrs. Fischer, presented a group of numbers that was thoroughly enjoyed. A two-act play, entitled, "A Matrimonial Advertisement," followed with Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. W. E. Ruppel, Mrs. Ralph Howe, Miss Charlotte Shoup and Hammond Shoup of Redondo Beach. A group of pianologues concluded this part of the program. Bridge was enjoyed for the balance of the afternoon, awards being made Mrs. J. Jackson of Los Angeles, Mrs. Archer Lewis for high score at bridge, while 500 awards were received by Mrs. Maude Curtis and F. L. Manley of Los Angeles and a door prize was drawn by Mrs. S. Rouleau of Los Angeles.

NEIGHBOR CIRCLE VISITS POMONA

The Torrance Neighbors Circle met on April 27 with Mrs. Olive McMullen at her home in Pomona. Ten members and three visitors made the trip. Following dinner served by Mrs. McMullen, the afternoon was spent by some of the guests in viewing the attractions of Pomona and by others at cards.

BETSY ROSS CLUB NOTES

More than 60 members of the Betsy Ross club and their friends enjoyed the Rockefeller dime party held at Masonic Temple Monday afternoon at which Mrs. O. E. Fossum was hostess. Refreshments were served at 1:30 followed by an afternoon of bridge. Special bridge rules were observed which were rather complicated but very interesting. Sixteen prizes were awarded, each accompanied by an appropriate verse, read aloud by the winner. A vocal solo by Mrs. Fossum was enjoyed during the afternoon.

FAMILY REUNION AT LANCASTER HOME

Four generations were represented at a dinner party given Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lancaster on Post avenue. Included were Mrs. G. W. Post, her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Moore, of Ventura; her daughter, Mrs. E. Ammons, and her son, David Post Ammons, of Ventura. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sedgwick of Los Angeles and Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Post.

POLLY ANNS DESSERT BRIDGE

Mrs. W. C. Andrus was hostess when she entertained members of the Polly Anns club with a dessert bridge at her home on Martina avenue Friday afternoon. Roses and ferns were attractively arranged throughout the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. Harry Alcorn, Mrs. Frank Mineck, Mrs. Thomas Kendrick, Mrs. Tom Ulrich, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. John Guyan, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. O. W. Hudson, Mrs. A. W. Melzer, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. V. C. Dolley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lewis and son, Harry, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spehger and children, Marion and Raymond, attended an Arabian horse show held at the Kellogg ranch, Pomona, Sunday afternoon.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. J. V. Murray Tuesday were Mrs. G. A. Cody and Mrs. Beulah Lohmer of Monterey Park, Mrs. H. A. Unger of Los Angeles and Mrs. D. A. McCormick and Mrs. M. Jessome.

PRESTIGE AROUND THE FAMILY TABLE

Ask Mother...she's sold through experience. Ask Dad...he thinks Piggly Wiggly is a great improvement over the old cracker-barrel grocery of his youth. Try to convince Grandmother that anything excels Piggly Wiggly service. Ask Sis...she'll tell you how the cooking class voted for Piggly Wiggly, and of course, Bobby gets a big thrill out of skating in and out of the turstiles on a hurry-up trip for a pint of cream.
