Dance Teacher to Organize Classes For Summer Season

Miss Matilde Hoff of Long Beach, teacher of dancing, announces in the Herald today that she will be in Torrance on Friday and Saturday afternoon of this week from 3 to 4 o'clock to meet mothers of children who are interested in having lessons in tap dancing.

Miss Hoff will be at the banquet room at Bar's Cafe, 1825 Cabrillo avenue, on these dates, where she may be interviewed and will make arrangements for beginning the instruction. Lessons will be given two days a week, at a very moderate fee for classwork, and a slightly higher fee for private lessons. She will also take pupils of all ages in tap dancing, tango, ballroom and Spanish dances, or ballet, and will arrange for classes or private lessons in these branches as desired.

Miss Hoff is an accomplished dancer, who has appeared on numerous programs in Long Beach and Los Angeles, and is a capable teacher, experienced and especially successful in training youthful dance pupils. A personal interview with her may be had on Friday or Saturday afternoon, or she may be reached by telephone, Long Beach 81-479. Further information may be had by calling Torrance 441.

Mme. Billini Hostess To Torrance Group

Madame Teala Billini was hostess to members of Torrance N. B. P. W. when she entertained the club with a musicale at her studio at 87 1/2 So. Burlington avenue, Los Angeles, Tuesday evening. Miss Betty Boldrick, dramatic soprano of Los Angeles, led the program with a group of solos, "Song of Songs," "Do Not Go My Love" by Hageman, "The Cry of Rachel" by Salter, followed by a violin group by Mrs. Lydia Gardner of Palos Verdes Estates, which included "Chansonette," "Serenade Amoureuse" and "From the Dramatic." Miss Wanda Stachowicz, dramatic soprano, then sang "Aut Wintersein" and "Neapolitan Nights." A piano group by Madame Billini was then enjoyed, "The Music Box" by Liebeck, "Valse Courante" by Lachaux, "Arabesques On the Beautiful Blue Danube" by Schuiz-Evler and "Valse In A Flat" by Brahms. Miss Bobby Huth, dramatic reader of Los Angeles, then presented "Billie Brad." Miss Eunola Kay, mezzo soprano of KNX fame, then sang "Estrelita," "A Heart That's Free" and "Paradise." Miss Matilde Hoff of Long Beach concluded the program with a Spanish zarzuela dance number which was thoroughly enjoyed.

ENTERTAIN AT LUNCHEON

The executive board of the Elementary P. T. A. entertained the teachers of the elementary schools at a two-course luncheon in the cafeteria at the high school Friday noon. There was no set program, but Mrs. O. E. Hall, president of the P. T. A., thanked the teachers and Principal William M. Bell for the interest they had taken in the association.
