TRIO REBEKAHS INSTALL OFFICERS

At a beautiful and impressive ceremony held at the Odd Fellows temple on Redondo-Wilmington boulevard Wednesday evening, new officers of the Trio Rebekah lodge were installed in office. Mrs. Ludwig, district deputy of San Pedro, acted as installing officer assisted by the Trio drill team whose floor work was an impressive feature of the ceremony.

Officers who were inducted into office were Gussie Snye, noble grand; Grace Owen, vice grand; Lola Nelson, right supporter noble grand; Clara Conner, left supporter noble grand; Marshall Tappin, right supporter vice grand; Lillian May, left supporter vice grand; Marcella Brumpton, recording secretary; Ethel Lanning, financial secretary; Gertrude Kastrop, treasurer; Rose Ross, musician; Maude Wilson, chaplain; Edra Owen, junior past grand; Helen Schmidt, warden; Martha Hesse, conductor; Julia Schmidt, inside guardian; Elizabeth Hunt, outside guardian.

Following the installation a short program was given. The little Kastrop sisters played very cleverly two piano solos. Miss Ruth Kerber, a beginner in tap dancing under the direction of Miss Matilde Hoff, gave a graceful little number in tap routine; a duet by the Wilson twins dedicated to their mother, Mrs. Maude Wilson, followed by two humorous readings by Lucille Thompson, were all greatly enjoyed. The closing number was a Spanish zarba by Miss Matilde Hoff, of Long Beach, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn E. Burlington at the piano, which drew prolonged applause.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS ENJOY PICNIC

Torrance was represented by a group of 25 at a Job's Daughters picnic party held at Banning Park Saturday which was attended by 800 Job's Daughters and their friends from Southern California. Mrs. Mae Sidebotham and Ethel Ward were chairmen of arrangements for the Torrance group. Features of the picnic included tennis matches, baseball and foot races. At 12 o'clock a picnic luncheon was served and music and dancing were enjoyed at the Banning home in the afternoon. A dance at the clubrooms of Wilmington Bethel concluded the activities of the day. Ethel Ward and Joe Tavan from Torrance were awarded a prize for a waltz contest at this time. Wilmington Bethel, which was hostess at this picnic party, was very gratified at the success of the enterprise. Among those present were Job's Daughters from San Diego, Wilmington, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Beverly Hills, Torrance, Santa Monica, Culver City, Long Beach and Hermosa Beach.

M. E. RECEPTION GIVEN FOR PASTOR

Tuesday evening a large group attended the reception held at the parlors of the M. E. church honoring Rev. and Mrs. Kemp Winkler who have been returned to Torrance for another year. A profusion of flowers made a harmonious setting for the occasion. In the receiving line were Rev. and Mrs. Winkler, Mrs. J. B. Edwards, Mrs. Reid McCray, Mrs. J. Koefler, Mrs. Edward J. Clarkson. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Winkler of Los Angeles, parents of Rev. Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Reilly of Long Beach, Miss Louise Duke of National Training school at San Francisco. G. L. Mowry ably filled the office of toastmaster. His remarks were followed by community singing and an invocation by Mrs. J. Price.

Two piano solos in left hand movement were exquisitely rendered by Miss Gertrude Mowry entitled "Andante Finale" from Lucia di Lammermoor and "Arabian Night" by Mildenberg. J. B. Edwards was then called upon to give an address of welcome to the pastor and Mrs. Winkler. Eric Trumpet solo by Eric Chaplin, "Wiederkehr" by Hartman, was then enjoyed. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Price. A group of humorous readings by Billy Andrus followed, entitled "Name for a Boy" and "When I was a Little Boy." Mrs. A. W. Johnson and R. F. Hogue sang two vocal duets with Mrs. Johnson at the piano. "By My Fireside" by Rice and "Look Away to Heaven" by Herbert. Fred Hopkins then read "Taking Boarders" by Lincoln and "Aunt Shaw's Pet Jug" by Holman Day. Heads of various departments were then called upon for one minute speeches. Mrs. J. B. Edwards responded for the Women's Aid, O. E. Hall for the Sunday school, R. F. Hogue for the choir, C. E. Chaplin for the orchestra, Harry Phillips for Long Beach District Epworth League, Marion Wright for the Epworth League, Louise Duke for National Training School at San Francisco, Mrs. S. S. Worrell for the W. C. T. U. of the Missionary Society. Rev. Winkler and Mrs. Winkler responded with thanks and appreciation to those responsible for the success of the reception and for the splendid cooperation which had been extended by the church as a whole during the past year. Plans were outlined for better things for the ensuing year. Rev. Winkler concluded his remarks with prayer. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge thus bringing to a close another successful occasion in the annals of the M. E. church at Torrance. Credit is due the following church members for their assistance in decorating and serving: Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mrs. S. S. Worrell, Mrs. F. X. Weiss, Miss Dolis Spoon, Mrs. Thomas Edmonds, Mrs. J. Lightner, Mrs. C. Holland, Mrs. D. C. Turner and Mrs. Robinette.
