Petty Thieves Are Busy In Torrance
 Prowlers about the P. E. depot attempted to enter the news stand operated by Miss Ivy Hartley, according to a report to the police, but were unsuccessful. On the same night, Edward Allen, agent at the P. E., reported the theft of a piece of canvas, taken from the depot.
 Several other instances of petty thievery were reported to police over the week-end.

 die age, and was somewhat crippled, requiring the use of canes to support her in walking, but otherwise was apparently in fairly good health.
 Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock from Stone & Myers chapel, with Rev. Kemp J. Winkler officiating.

Oarsmen Practice Over L. B. Course For Rowing Events
 With 16 nations sending their finest oarsmen to this country for the Olympic Games rowing events at Long Beach, three national entries, totaling 16 men, already are in practice on the course near here, where new rowing history will be enacted when the games hold forth, July 30 to August 14.
 The oarsmen, who are in daily practice, include Guillermo Douglas, famed single sculler from Uruguay; Bob Pearce of Australia, who took the Olympic championship at Amsterdam four years ago, and a 14-man team from New Zealand, which will take part in their eight-oar, four-oar and two-oar races.
 Offsetting rumors to the contrary, W. W. Monahan, in charge of the course, stated the greater number of grand stand seats will be priced at $1, while there will be room for thousands of persons along the banks of the course at 50 cents for each adult and 25 cents for children. Those, who take advantage of the $0 and 25 cent area, he said, may remain for both morning and afternoon shows if they bring their lunches and hold picnics within the enclosed area.

Appellate Court to Decide Fate of Bathing Suit
 Legality of Hermosa Beach's new bathing suit ordinance has been turned over to the appellate department of superior court to decide. The ordinance regulates the type and brevity of swimming costumes which may be worn on the beach in that community, which adjoins the city of Torrance beach on the north.
 Contentions of W. H. Hazzard, batter, who was taken into custody because he wore no "cuppers," is that the ordinance is unconstitutional. His counsel contends that a state law already provides for indecent exposure.

Bluebirds Take Two Games In A Row This Week

Up a Notch in Percentage Column After Beating League Rivals

TOMORROW'S GAMES
 Torrance at Whittier.
 Santa Ana at Anaheim.
 Huntington Beach at Westminster.
 Olive at Long Beach.
TUESDAY'S GAMES
 Long Beach at Torrance.
 Anaheim at Huntington Beach.
 Westminster at Olive.
 Whittier at Santa Ana.

The Torrance Bluebirds will go to Whittier tomorrow night to take on the Poets in the sixth game of the National Night League, second half, and on Tuesday next will meet the Long Beach Acorns here on the home grounds.
 Spud's outfit have been stepping along at a good gait during the past week and have annexed two games in a row, the first with Huntington Beach last Friday night, which they took by a score of 10 to 5, and the second with Westminster which was won by the Bluebirds in the third inning with a home run by Forney.
 This game was an airtight pitchers' battle between Hargis and Morrell, with the latter having a little the best of it as Torrance only got two hits off his delivery, while Westminster hung up four off Hargis.
 It was a good game and gave the small handful of fans who turned out to watch, a good two-bits worth. Attendance at these games is not what it should be for the quality of amusement that is being given, according to Manager Spud Murphy. The Legion boys are going to a lot of trouble to provide high class entertainment and should be supported. In addition to the sport element in the games, all proceeds above the small expenses taken out are donated to public charity.
 Box scores of the past two games are as follows:

Investigation to Follow Drowning
 Recommendation that an investigation be made of the conditions existing at the plunge of the San Pedro Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. was made by a coroner's jury sitting into the inquest of Wallace Millasich, 9-year-old son of Nick Millasich of Harbor City.
 The investigation should be made with a view to obtaining proper supervision for the pool, the jury stated in its report. The boy was drowned early last week, but his fate was not known until his body was found floating in the pool by a janitor.

Merchants Take Slugfest From Cabrillo Club

Break Losing Streak With Decisive Victory Over Visiting Team

After losing three in a row, the Lomita Merchants turned on the Cabrillo club Sunday and hung up a decisive score of 12 to 8, in one of the most spectacular slugfest contests of the season. Fifteen hits were gathered off H. King and five who relieved him, while Johnny Yelovich yielded 12. Three home runs, and several extra base blows were included in this carnival of slugfests.
 Next Sunday Houghton Park plays the Lomita nine in a battle which will decide the championship rate of both clubs.

Move Grandstand to Lomita From C.C.M.O. Ground

Manager Ray Townsend of the Lomita Merchants has made arrangements with the C. C. M. O. to purchase the grandstand which has been standing unused for several years at the oil company's ball grounds on Torrance boulevard. The stand has been moved to Lomita and is now being set up on the Merchants lot on Lomita boulevard.
 This acquisition will give Lomita a greatly increased seating arrangement, which will accommodate the crowds which gather there every Sunday afternoon to see their favorites perform.
 Lomita is now making a strong bid for second place in the Social League, and should they defeat the Houghton Park team next Sunday will undoubtedly move into the second berth with a very good chance of finishing on top if they can clean up the balance of the five games left to play in the league season.
 Houghton Park is now in second place, Lomita third, with two teams tied for first.

NO GAME TONIGHT
 The Torrance Bluebirds will take a rest tonight, as Manager Spud Murphy has no game scheduled for this evening at the local park.

NIGHTMEN LOSE
 Lomita Nightmen lost last Thursday night to the Redondo 20-30 club by a score of 10 to 8.

ATHLETE FOR TWO YEARS
 PHILADELPHIA.—(U.P.)—Clyde Davis, sensational Temple University half-miler, never competed in track events until he entered the university two years ago. In a recent meet Davis won the 800 run in 1 minute, 58 4-10 seconds.

ATHLETIC SEASON SUCCESSFUL
 CORVALLIS, Ore.—(U.P.)—Oregon State College freshmen have completed successful seasons in baseball and track. The rooks went through the season undefeated in track, and won six, tied one, and lost two baseball games.
