

Four Brothers Aided Priest BOSTON.—(U.P.)—When the Rev. Richard A. Loeffler celebrated his first mass at Holy Trinity church recently, he was assisted by four brothers, three as officiating priests and one as an acolyte.

Program of Great Interest On Sunday

A dramatic-musical program of unusual interest and significance is to be presented at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The dramatic presentation is entitled, "The Unknown Soldier Speaks," and will be enacted by Stanley Creighton of Torrance and Hyton Sanders of Pasadena.

According to the pastor, this production has the effect of stimulating deep and serious thinking upon one of the outstanding themes of the day. It makes an appeal that remains with those who see it.

Preceding this play a sermonette will be delivered by Miss Tacoma Winkler of Los Angeles, sister of the pastor. Miss Winkler and Mr. Sanders will also present vocal solos in the course of the evening. This is one of the most vitally suggestive evening programs that the Methodist church has yet attempted and is a forerunner of many such in the months ahead.

STOLE COAT FROM JAIL SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—(U.P.)—Two days after William Body was released from jail, he was arrested, charged with stealing an overcoat at the institution on the last day of his sentence.

County Grants Permit to Burn Stranded Ship Los Angeles county has granted permission to Major William H. Lanagan, United States engineer, to burn the abandoned barge, "Thomas P. Emigh," on the southern edge of the county-owned beach at Redondo, it was learned this week.

The barge, beached a short distance south of Redondo pier some weeks ago during a high gale, was removed by a salvage company at the expense of several thousand dollars to the county. Since then it has been anchored off the coast above Redondo.

The burning will not be an easy task, and its success is in doubt by many, owing to the fact that the broken hull is so water-soaked that it may not burn down even to the water's edge.

New Pastors at Four Square Church Rev. and Mrs. James Chalupnik of Puente, California, have taken over the pastorage of the Church of the Four Square Gospel and began their ministry in Torrance last Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Chalupnik have moved to Torrance and are residing at 2415 Sonoma avenue. They are graduates of the Angeles Temple Bible school and have had much experience in the work.
