STATEMENT
Of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of Torrance Herald, published weekly at Torrance, California, for October 1, 1932.

Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared Grover C. Whyte, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of the Torrance Herald and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse side of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor and business manager are: Publishers, the Lomita-Torrance Publishing Company of Torrance, California. Editor, Grover C. Whyte, Torrance, Calif. Business Manager, Grover C. Whyte, Torrance, Calif.

2. That the owners are: Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation give its name and all the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock. The Lomita-Torrance Publishing Company, Torrance, Calif. Grover C. Whyte, Torrance, Calif. L. W. Fraser, Torrance, Calif.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: (If there are none, so state.) None. 4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders and security holders, do not appear upon the books of the company as trustee, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds or other securities that is stated by him.

GROVER C. WHYTE, Sworn to and subscribed before me this 8th day of October, 1932. (Seal) WALTER C. BRADFORD, Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California. (My commission expires May 21, 1932.)

Double Feature Program at Torrance, Saturday, Oct. 15

Johnny Mack Brown in "70,000 Witnesses" AND

Pat O'Malley, Loretta Sayers and Buck Jones in "High Speed." Both the above features will be shown Saturday, October 15, at the Torrance Theatre, continuously, 2 to 11 p. m.

"Back Street" Coming Tues.-Wed.

Fannie Hurst's masterpiece, "Back Street," starring John Boles and Irene Dunne, shown in a scene above, comes to the Torrance Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, October 18 and 19, direct from a sensational run at the Carthay Circle. Many critics proclaim "Back Street" the best picture since "Cimarron."

QUICK RECOVERY SEATTLE, Wash. (U.P.)—While A. J. Bach was telling Patrolmen Dan Griffin and Fred Phillips about the theft of a leather handbag he noticed a passerby carrying an object resembling the bag. The officers followed the stranger and when he attempted to sell the bag at a pawnshop, arrested him. Bach identified his property and Edward L. Hardy went to jail.

"Okay America" Newspaper Film at Warner Bros.

Peppy Musical Organization On the Stage Offered With This Show

Lew Ayres enacts the part of a "chatter writer" in "Okay America," which opens Thursday at Warner Bros. San Pedro Theatre, for a three-day run. In this role he often brings consternation to indiscreet Broadwayites who stray from the straight and narrow path, but it is when he interferes with the activities of kidnaping gangsters that he encounters serious trouble, and the picture comes to a climax in a tragedy that is said to be so unexpected as to leave the audience breathless.

In conjunction with "Okay America," Ken Becker will present his "Hollywood Sweethearts." Seventeen red-hot musicians... on the stage, in a peppy musical melange that promises excellent entertainment.

A new George Arliss picture is always an event of importance to the motion picture public and "A Successful Calamity," his latest Warner Bros. triumph, opening Sunday, October 16, promises to excel all of its excellent predecessors in popularity.

"A Successful Calamity" is adapted from a highly successful stage play of some seasons back. John Adolf directed Mr. Arliss in this picture. Although the entire program is dominated by the character portrayed by George Arliss, the supporting cast is even more noteworthy than previous ones seen in Arliss pictures.

Mary Astor, one of the loveliest and most capable of the screen's leading women, plays the part of the young and susceptible wife of the financier (George Arliss). Evelyn Knapp, William Janney, Grant Mitchell, David Torrance, Hardie Albright, Hale Hamilton and Murray Kinnell are other featured players.

BURGLAR ALARM An electric burglar alarm has been installed at the Safeway market on Carson street.

TONIGHT AT TORRANCE

Zane Grey travelled 8000 miles and spent a year and a million dollars to catch the largest fish ever netted. These exploits in tropic waters make thrilling screen fare. "Zane Grey in South Sea Adventures" is presented tonight (Thursday) for one day, only at the Torrance Theatre.

TRADE FISH FOR PEARS MARCHFIELD, Ore. (U.P.)—Curry county salmon and mutton, in cans, will be exchanged for Jackson county pears, tomatoes and other produce in an agreement intended to aid relief purposes in each county.

"Okay America" AT FOX PLAZA SUN. AND MON.

STAN LAUREL and OLIVER HARDY in "PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES"

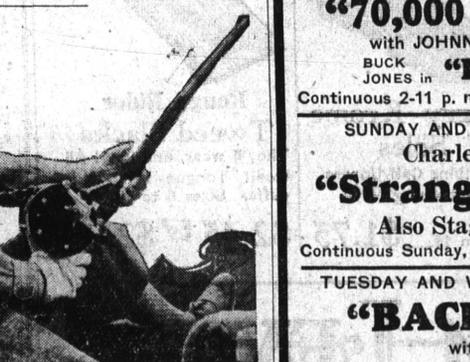

Showing the latest downtown pictures at popular prices, the Fox Plaza is inaugurating the new show season with a line of pictures that will prove very popular with all moviegoers.

Thursday and Friday, October 13 and 14, will see the political laugh riot of the screen, "The Phantom President," with Jimmy (Schnozzle) Durante, George M. Cohan and Claudette Colbert. In addition to this big feature there is one of the snappiest stage presentations yet to be seen at the Plaza, William Ramsdell's 1932 Dance Revue. This is a beautiful stage revue with 20 girls in a panorama of dance, rhythm and startling costumes.

Saturday, October 15, only, will bring to the screen the counterpoint of the famous New York correspondent, "Okay America," with Lew Ayres doing the "Walter Winchelling" in the fastest moving drama of the newspapers yet seen. On the stage will be five big acts of Fanchon and Marco's Frayview Vaudeville. There will be a special children's matinee, featuring the George Washington Art Club, at 1:45 o'clock.

Sunday and Monday, October 16 and 17, will bring those two premier acts of comedy, Laurel and Hardy, in their second big feature, "Pack Up Your Troubles," a tale of the poor army boys in camp. The stage offers five big, fast-moving acts of Fanchon and Marco Vaudeville in addition to the feature.

AT FOX PLAZA SUN. AND MON.

STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY in "PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES" AND ZANE GREY'S "HERITAGE OF THE DESERT"

Ben Lyon, Sally Eilers in "HAT CHECK GIRL" and Clive Brook, Lila Lee, Charles Ruggles in "NIGHT OF JUNE 13th"

'Tiger Shark' Coming to Torrance Next Wk.

Two famous screen names are at the head of the cast of "Tiger Shark," the first National exciting picture of the colorful tuna industry which comes to the Torrance Theatre next week, Thursday and Friday, October 20-21.

Edward G. Robinson, star of the picture, and Richard Arlen, long a screen favorite, play together for the first time in this stirring and sensational epic of the seas, a story of life among the fishermen who take their lives into their hands practically every time they go to sea.

In this picture Arlen sings for the first time, rollicking songs of the sea. He plays "Pipes," a mate on Robinson's fishing boat, and gets his nickname from his vocal accomplishments.

Many of the spectacular sea shots were made off the west coast of Mexico, where man-eating sharks are found in great schools. These scenes are said to be thrilling in the extreme.

RAINFALL

At the Torrance high school weather department, a total of .20 was registered for the storm over the week-end, making a total of .65 inches for the season. At this time last year only .06 was reported.

At Narbonne high school, Lomita, the gauge showed .27 for the week, .69 for the season.
