ATTENDS DISTRICT CLUB MEETING

Miss Margaret Shell represented the Torrance N. B. P. W. at the quarterly conference of the California State League held Saturday and Sunday at Atascadero. At this meeting final steps were taken in the amalgamation of the California State League and the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which has been under consideration for more than a year.

CLUB MEMBERS GO TO HAWTHORNE

Miss Margaret Shell, Mrs. Juliet M. Young, Mrs. Thomas Wayne, Miss Beatrice Hughes, Mrs. Margaret Hutchins, Miss Caroline Stroth, Miss Bea Christiansen and Miss Lute Fraser, of the N. B. P. W. of Torrance, attended the organizational meeting of the new Hawthorne unit held Friday night, December 2. The new club elected officers and adopted constitution and by-laws, and prepared the data for presentation to the state organization at the district meeting held at Atascadero Sunday when their charter was granted.

Woman's Club Notes

At luncheon tables attractively decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and lighted candles, covers were placed for 50 members of Torrance Woman's Club and their guests yesterday. Reports from Mrs. C. C. Schultz on child welfare, and Mrs. Collins on community service, were enjoyed.

Dr. Maud Wilde was the principal speaker of the afternoon. She spoke upon the problems presented in the training of the modern child. Miss Helen Massey of Los Angeles then played two piano selections—and a group of violin selections beautifully played by Ellsworth Clark concluded the program.

Six new members were welcomed into the club at this meeting including Mrs. Emily J. Warner, Mrs. Marie Marshall, Mrs. H. G. Jacobs, Mrs. R. R. Deputy, Mrs. Paul W. Watson and Mrs. Bessie Paour.

Announcement was made of a bridge luncheon to be held at the clubhouse Friday, December 16, beginning at 12:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Tullies at 25 cents may be secured from Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Mrs. C. C. Schultz or Mrs. L. W. Ralston.

Mrs. Willis Brooks, chairman of the institutions committee for the Torrance Woman's Club, Mrs. Frank Manley, and others of Torrance, will attend the conference of the institutional relations and philanthropy committees to be held at Rancho Los Amigos tomorrow, December 9. The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock and the afternoon program will be presented by the juniors of the club.

Torrance people who wish to send gifts, to be distributed to the aged men and women living at the Rancho, are requested to get in touch with Mrs. Brooks immediately.

ATTEND IMPORTANT CONFERENCES

Miss Esther Maxwell and Miss Ethelwyn Niles of the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital, attended a meeting of the Southern Hospital Council held at the French hospital, Los Angeles, the first of the week. Miss Maxwell also attended a dinner Wednesday evening given at the Jonathan Club, Los Angeles, where a meeting of the general arrangements committee of the Western Hospital Association was held. Dr. Malcolm T. McEachern was the principal speaker. Important matters of policy affecting the public, the medical profession and hospitals in general were discussed at each of these meetings.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Ruth Phoebe Schafer and Vincent M. Engel, brother of John Engel of Torrance. The ceremony will be performed Friday evening, December 9, at St. Thomas Episcopal church, Hollywood. Mr. and Mrs. Engel will be at home to their friends at 545 North Orange Drive, Hollywood.

GUEST OF HONOR AT HOLLYWOOD PARTY

Mrs. Faye V. Howard, who represents the Avocado Beauty Aids Company as saleswoman in the Torrance district, was a guest of honor at a party arranged by the company, given in Hollywood last night. Mrs. Howard has been employed by the company for only a short time but has already set up a high record in sales which has never been exceeded by a new employe.

M. E. AID TO SERVE DINNER

The Woman's Aid Society of the M. E. church is sponsoring one of the famous "Miller" dinners to be held Monday, December 12, at 6:30 o'clock. Tickets for adults may be secured at 35 cents each and children's tickets are 25 cents. Reservations may be made with Mrs. O. E. Hall not later than Saturday at 2119 Arlington avenue. Everyone is invited.

TRIPLE T DATE CHANGED

Friday evening, December 16, is the date chosen for the next meeting of Triple T dancing club instead of Friday evening, December 9.

EPISCOPAL DINNER

The Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary will serve dinner at their guild hall on Engracia avenue Thursday evening, December 15, from 5:30 until 7:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Tickets at 35 cents may be secured at the door.

SON IS BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Smith of 1754 Gramercy avenue are receiving congratulations from their many friends upon the birth of a nine-pound son, Louis James, born at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital Saturday, December 3.

BETSY ROSS NOTES

The regular meeting of the Betsy Ross Club will be held Monday, December 12, at 12:30 p. m. at Masonic temple. Those whose birthdays occur in December and those having names beginning with W X Y or Z will be honor guests on this occasion. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Tomkins at 120-W or 71, or Mrs. Fordice at 575. During the afternoon a program of Christmas carols will be presented. All members are cordially invited to attend.

PARTY FOLLOWS CLUB MEETING

The regular business session of N. B. P. W. of Torrance was attended by 26 members who met at the Nurses' home on Cota avenue Monday evening, December 5. Miss Margaret Shell, delegate to the quarterly conference held at Atascadero, December 3 and 4, gave a splendid report of her trip, and also a report of the newly organized club at Hawthorne which is sponsored by the "Epprice" club. Details of the organization were handled by Miss Shell and Mrs. Laila P. Bowen.

Plans were completed for the dinner meeting which will be in the nature of a Christmas party to be held at Christian church Tuesday evening, December 20, at 7:00 o'clock.

At this time announcement was made of the nomination of Miss Lute Fraser to the state federation board which is composed of 15 committee chairmen appointed by the state president.

Miss Margaret Shell was also named as a member of the nominating committee to select the new board of directors for District No. 9, N. B. P. W. This group will meet at the Women's Athletic Club, Los Angeles, at 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon following a breakfast meeting to which all club members are invited, held at 10:00 o'clock at the Student's Union building.

At the conclusion of the business session the group enjoyed a delightful party which was arranged as a surprise for Miss Lute Fraser, who will leave this week for a vacation trip to her former home in Illinois. Miss Fraser was presented with a handsome gift from the club. Bridge and luncheon furnished entertainment. A bridge award was received by Mrs. Ruth Haggard, while Mrs. Margaret Hutchins received a luncheon prize. Following the service of dainty refreshments, Mrs. Lomler told the girls' fortunes, thus concluding one of the most enjoyable parties given by the club.

Included were the honoree, Miss Lute Fraser, and Misses Margaret Shell, Bea Christiansen, Beatrice Hughes, Mary and Lillian Halig, Maude Williams, Caroline Stroth, Esther Maxwell, Hazel Barnett, Ethelwyn Niles, Edna Mullin, Theo McCoy, Bertha Pix and Mesdames Juliet Young, Margaret Hutchins, Ruth Haggard, Victoria Olinger, Laila P. Bowen, Ladeene Whyne, Selma Christiansen, Faye V. Howard, Grace Dean, Hazel McBride, Lola Hoover and Mary Vonderhabe.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. George Horner of Detroit, Michigan, who is visiting in Torrance, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Jesse A. Dale, at her home on El Dorado avenue Saturday. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. William James of Santa Ana.

TRIANGLE CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

A Christmas party and program of the Triangle Club of the Torrance Christian church will be held at the home of Eleanor Smith, 1407 Cota, on Thursday evening, December 8, at 7 o'clock. The program for the evening will be in charge of Loretta Yeager and Dorothy Elder. The games and entertainment will be led by Ruth Granger and Vivian Carroll.
