Miss Cameron Bride of Alexander Reeve

The wedding of Miss Christina Murray Cameron, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. F. Cameron, to Alexander Edward Reeve of Bishop, was performed by Rev. Cameron at the family home, 1606 Post avenue, at noon Sunday in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Cameron sang, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me," playing her own accompaniment.

Entering to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by her mother, the bride was charming in a gown of hyacinth blue crepe and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wilson B. Woodburn, attired in a Burgundy crepe model and wearing a corsage of roses. Wilson B. Woodburn served the groom as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held for 75 guests and a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Following a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Reeve will take up residence at Bishop.

JUDGE BULLOCK QUEST SPEAKER

Judge Georgia Bullock, superior court judge of Los Angeles, was the honored guest and speaker of the evening at the January dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Women's Club, held Tuesday evening at Palos Verdes golf clubhouse.

Judge Bullock spoke informally on the duties and responsibilities of judges, and brought in several sidelights on matters related to the courts which were of great interest.

Prior to Judge Bullock's remarks, the club was entertained by Miss Mary Lee and Paul Gilliam with several delightful popular songs to the accompaniment of ukulele and guitar, and by Virginia Scott, talented reader who gave two very amusing numbers.

Mrs. Georgia Rolfe, chairman of the legislative committee, planned the program and introduced the speaker and entertainers.

A group of cleverly fashioned dolls, dressed in Colonial costume, were introduced by their creator, Miss Beatrice Hughes, as the "original legislators" in the United States, the Pilgrims. One of the figures was presented to Judge Bullock and Miss Hughes generously gave the others to members of the club.

Besides the members a number of invited guests enjoyed the evening's program. Follies Johnson, a social entertainer, introduced several club members, including Miss Margaret Shelf, recently appointed Los Angeles district attendance chairman; the president, Mrs. Juliet M. Young; Mrs. Margaret Hutchins, Mrs. Faye Howard, Mrs. Maude Williams and Miss Lute Fraser attended the first meeting of the Los Angeles district at Mona Lisa Cafe, on Saturday, January 14.
