JUDGE LAHEY TO SPEAK HERE

Activities of the National Business and Professional Women's Clubs of the district for the next two months will offer some attractive programs for the benefit of members in Los Angeles county. The regular district meeting will be held at Casa del Mar, Santa Monica, on Saturday, March 11, with an interesting list of speakers scheduled for the evening meeting.

On the following Saturday, Marjorie Shuler, national publicity chairman, will be the guest of the Los Angeles club, which has issued invitations to all clubs in the district to attend a dinner meeting in her honor.

Four clubs in the harbor district will act as hostesses to the district at the annual meeting to be held this year at Avalon, Santa Catalina Island, for three days beginning Friday, April 7. The first evening will be devoted to entertainment, business sessions to be taken up on Saturday. Elaborate plans are being worked out by the hostess clubs to fill the three days with interesting programs. A special rate for club members has been obtained from the Catalina Island management, which will include transportation to and from Avalon and entertainment at St. Catherine's hotel.

The local club will have as its principal speaker at the next district meeting to be held Tuesday, March 21, Judge May D. Lahey, of Los Angeles, well-known jurist, and delegate at large of the executive board of the California State Federation. The program is arranged by Margaret Hutchins, chairman of public relations.
