CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
Christ Jesus' words, "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved," constitute the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Among the Scriptural citations in the Lesson-Sermon are Paul's words to the Corinthians: "Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. . . . For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory."

One of the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, says, "Heaven is not a locality, but a divine state of Mind in which all the manifestations of Mind are harmonious and immortal, because sin is not there and man is found having no righteousness of his own, but in possession of 'the mind of the Lord,' as the Scripture says."

It is a highly imaginative and dramatic conversation between the two thieves who were crucified with Christ and taking place sometime after the crucifixion. Another play, pertaining to the two sisters in Bethany, will be given by Joy Fossum and Alice

Burger. This play was written by Mrs. Elsie DeBra of Torrance. The musical portion of the program will consist of an Easter quartet entitled, "Death and Life." Those composing the quartet will be Mrs. Lorene Ulrich, Mrs. Juliette Johnson, Richard Hogue, and Jack Williams. Tom Ulrich will accompany at the piano.
