

Old Friendships Renewed at Annual Rotary Party

"The Shack" - charming beach home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith at Anaheim Landing, - was the scene of a most enjoyable party Saturday afternoon and evening...

In a particularly appropriate talk, Prof. Arthur Waidlich presented President Smith with a rustic garden sun dial in token of the club's appreciation...

Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Smith were: Dr. R. A. Bingham, F. M. Buffington, Don Finley, Harold Guittenfelder, George Isaacs, Charles Jones, L. B. Kelsey, Dr. J. S. Lancaster, Dr. N. A. Leake, Sam Levy, Sherwood McIntyre, Ed Nelson, F. L. Parks, Dave Roberts, Dr. George Shidler, Dr. Harry Smiley, Grover Whyte, Arthur Waidlich, Jim Yoshinobu, Carl Eaton, M. L. Darling, B. C. Buckton, Ray Young, W. W. McMillan, J. W. Post, Harry Dolley, George Peckham, Hurum Reeve, Floyd Haskell and Gene DeBra.

Dr. R. A. Bingham, president-elect, in a brief talk outlined his plans and policies for the coming year.

YOLANDI AGAPITO WEDS LOUIS BRIGANTI Miss Yolandi Agapito became the bride of Louis Briganti Sunday morning in the presence of 300 relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John Agapito. She was dressed in a white sports suit with white hat and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Briganti were students at Torrance high. Mr. Briganti was one of the outstanding members of the Torrance football team and was graduated with the class of '33.

A dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito, of Amapola avenue, was attended by 100. The young couple received many beautiful gifts.

After a short honeymoon at Catalina they will be at home to their many friends - at 1050 Carson street.

M. E. MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS The Methodist Missionary Society, of which Mrs. E. N. Tomkins is president, held their meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Carr, 1753 Andrea avenue.

Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler installed the newly elected officers in a most impressive manner and Mrs. Reed McCray presented a most pleasing program.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and tea was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, 1811 Gramercy, entertained with a family reunion at their home last Monday. The table was beautifully decorated with black bowls of nasturtiums ranging in color from bright yellow to a deep orange and orange colored tapers in black holders.

After an afternoon of games dainty refreshments were served. Those who attended were Lois Lach, Virginia Rhina, Virginia Smith, Dorothy Jean Craig, Marcella Crook, Betty Irwin, Phyllis Ordway, Mary Moore, Jr., Martha George, Irene Wilkes, Lenora Schroeder, Marjorie Warthan, Peggy Olson and Doris Kresse.

SCHOOL CLOSURE; STUDENTS CELEBRATE School closed last Friday and a happy group of students celebrated the event with fireworks, wild noises and what have you.

School days are wonderful times; they give us many things over which to ponder in later years. Sometimes there are regrets, but the happy times are the ones we all remember.

One fact that seemed to loom higher than all others in the minds of next year's students was the possibility that Coach Donahue may be back, and if so Torrance high will be assured of many football victories.

Margaret Dove was toastmistress at the senior breakfast, which was served at the high school last Thursday morning, all were delighted with the charming manner in which she mingled with her introductions.

A group of 30 students who have completed the junior high school courses, celebrated the event with a swimming party at the Redondo plunge last Friday evening. Parents of the group acted as chaperones.

Forty pupils of the elementary school, who had a perfect attendance record during the last semester of school, were entertained with a party at the school last Friday. Mr. Bell was the host and served candy bars to the group. A costume parade was won by Frank Whiting.

In compliment to Lois Lach and Betty Irwin, who expect to leave Torrance and will not enter the class when school opens next September, girls of the B-8 No. 1 entertained at the home of Doris Kresse, 1443 El Prado avenue, last Friday.

After an afternoon of games dainty refreshments were served. Those who attended were Lois Lach, Virginia Rhina, Virginia Smith, Dorothy Jean Craig, Marcella Crook, Betty Irwin, Phyllis Ordway, Mary Moore, Jr., Martha George, Irene Wilkes, Lenora Schroeder, Marjorie Warthan, Peggy Olson and Doris Kresse.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kresse, 1443 El Prado, with daughters, Doris and Jean, are spending a two weeks vacation at Bolton Lodge.

Magic Note Classes Open On Wednesday Popular Studio Work For Beginners and Advanced Pupils

Beginning July 5, Mrs. Kathryn F. Buffington, pianist and teacher, 1346 Engracia, will open her summer classes in the Magic Note studio which were so popular last summer.

Classes will be formed in four groups, ranging in age from 4 to 12 years. Little children love companionship, and class work admits of greater opportunities. Few parents are willing to pay the necessary fee for a competent teacher at this early age, but if several parents unite, each paying a part, there can be provided proper training for the children.

Mrs. Buffington, formerly a pupil of Richard Bulhig in his Magic Note classes for teachers, is taking the normal course this year under John W. Williams of New York City. While she is planning her Magic Note classes for beginners, she will also accept pupils, both beginners and advanced, for individual instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton have returned from a trip to the World's Fair at Chicago.

ILLINOIS GIRL MARRIED HERE Miss Ursula Rawles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Rawles, 616 West South street, Galesburg, Illinois, was united in marriage Tuesday, June 27, at 6:30 p. m., to Raymond L. Kesselman, of this city, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. Dunbar.

The bride wore pink chiffon with taffeta jackette, with a corsage of pink roses, white and orchid sweet peas. Her going away suit was of brick red with squirrel trim and gray accessories.

Following the ceremony a delicious five-course dinner was served to the wedding guests at the Hollywood Riviera Club. After a honeymoon trip to Catalina Island and San Diego, the bride and groom will be at home to their friends at the Calvert apartments, 1006 Sartori avenue.

Mrs. T. Lund of Cabrillo avenue is spending several months with friends and relatives in Kansas City and Chicago.

Mrs. John Guyan, 1807 Andrea avenue, was hostess when she entertained the Polly Ann Bridge Club at her home last Friday.

Awards for high scores were presented to Mrs. E. B. Farry and Mrs. E. Dunbar. The consolation prize to Mrs. W. C. Andrus. Those who attended were Mesdames A. W. Melner, O. W. Hudson, E. B. Parry, A. W. Johnson, W. C. Dolley, George D. Watson, E. Dunbar, F. W. Mineck, T. H. Kendrick, H. S. Alcorn and W. C. Andrus.

Mrs. Edna Stone and son, Gene, who for the past few months have made their home in Long Beach, left Tuesday morning on an extended motor trip. They expect to visit for several days at Yellowstone National Park, attend the World's Fair at Chicago, visit with Miss Mary Stone at Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Stone at Battle Creek Michigan, returning for the opening of school in September.
