FAILLA-PHILLIPS WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Pauline Failla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Failla of Keystone, to Peter Phillips of Torrance, was solemnized Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the Catholic Church of the Nativity. Father Kennedy, pastor of the church, read the marriage vows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin with a long train, a long tulle veil was held in place with a cap of old lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Sophia Failla served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of soft green crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and tallinn roses. Miss Luise Failla, Miss Corbie Briganti, Miss Mary Nicura, Miss Sophia Grasso and Miss Stella Corky, as bridesmaids, were radiant in organza gowns, with hats and gloves to match. Mr. Jack Deluca was the best man and Billy Phebus, Joe Lupo, Johnny Goetz, Sam Servia and Don Santore served as ushers.

Annie Failla and Luise Grasso were the flower girls and Master Micky Simeno, the ring bearer. Miss Mary Scallen played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and friends of the young couple at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Z. Grasso, Figueroa street.

Mrs. Phillips was graduated with the class of '33 from Torrance high school and Mr. Phillips is employed at the Columbia Steel Mills.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET CHARMING AFFAIR
Arranging their tables in the form of a cross and decorating them in silver red and white with individual place cards and favors to match, the mothers and daughters banquet given by the Phila-thea class at the Methodist church last Monday evening was one of the loveliest affairs of its kind. A profusion of ferns, gladiolus, sweet-peas and honey-suckle's placed throughout the hall and banquet room added much to the genial atmosphere which prevailed.

Marion Wright as toastmistress was most pleasing, mingling her introductions with worthy thoughts. Marie Morgan, as retiring class president, thanked the group for their splendid co-operation during the year just ended.

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, teacher of the class, expressed her pride in the class and gave a resume of their year's activities. Rosalind Page and Ethel Snyder, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Page, sang "Wonderful Mother of Mine" and "The Church in the Valley of the Wild Wood." Mrs. Kemp Winkler spoke highly of the class, as did Mr. Leonard Snyder, superintendent of the Sunday school.

Mrs. Brown gave two readings in her usual pleasing manner, "The Telephone Conversation" and "For Goodness Sake."

Rev. Kemp J. Winkler in most impressive fashion installed the newly elected officers as follows: Helen Burgener, president; Ethel Snyder, first vice president; Hazel Lewis, secretary; Catherine Henderson, treasurer. The newly elected president then explained to the class her desire to serve as did the past president. The assembly joined hands around the banquet table singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Down! Down! Cost of Gas Service Down to a New "Low"

While general living costs were climbing, the cost of gas service was going down. Today, the cost of gas service to the average domestic consumer in this section, in terms of heat units, has decreased approximately 70% in recent years.

And the modern gas appliances are more convenient and efficient. Automatic cooking means that an entire meal may be perfectly cooked, unattended from start to finish. Automatic water heating is thoroughly dependable, and costs only a few pennies a day. Gas refrigeration is silent, simple, and trouble-free. Gas home heating is clean, healthful, economical.
