A. L. A. JUNIORS BIRTHDAY PARTY

A lovely juvenile party was that given by the American Legion Junior Auxiliary at the American Legion hall last Friday afternoon. The affair served to replenish the treasury and to celebrate their second birthday. Eighty children joined in the celebration, and the game "Cootie" furnished an afternoon of real fun. The children played at card tables and individual tallies were used to keep their scores. Senior auxiliary members supervised the play.

At the close of play a huge birthday cake was cut and served with dessert to all present. Favors were dolls dressed in crepe paper. Betty Mallin, president of the Junior Auxiliary received for the organization a gavel which was the birthday gift from the senior auxiliary. Prizes were then awarded, a door prize being presented to Marion Robinson and cottie prizes were won by Betty Mallin, Shirley Jean Ant, Bobby Lewellen and Don Robinson.

EASTERN STAR BANQUET

The dining room of the Masonic Temple was transformed into a flowery banquet hall last Saturday evening when officers of the Order of Eastern Star entertained for their worthy patron, Mrs. Carrie Parks, and their worthy patron, Willis Brooks. The five-point rug, lamps, easy chairs and end tables from the chapter room, with bowls of pink amaryllis, formed the center around which was placed trays of pink asters and blue delphinium. The banquet table in the form of a half circle was on the outside. Pink and green, colors of the association, formed the table decorations. Individual nut cups were pink crepe paper roses attached to green place cards.

A delicious turkey dinner was served by a caterer. Mrs. Gwendolyn Knudsen, associate worthy patron, presented Mrs. Parks with an immense paper rose in the heart of which the gift from her officers, a beautiful lace banquet cloth, was concealed. As Mrs. Parks opened the cloth, Mrs. O. A. Fossum sang "In the Heart of a Rose." Mrs. Brooks was presented with a gift of money. At the close of dinner Mrs. Richard Jenkins sang "At Dawning" by Charles Wakefield Cadman, Mrs. Parks' favorite song, and Mrs. Jenkins sang "Asleep in the Deep." Mrs. E. M. Mosher was in charge of the entertainment which consisted of bridge, pinocle and dancing. Those who attended were Messrs. and Mesdames Fay Parks, Willis Brooks, Fred Knudsen, Richard Jenkins, Harry Givens, Eugene Graham, O. A. Fossum, Roy Winters, Glenn Babcock, Warren Scribner, G. S.
