Miss Bernice Baker Is October Bride

At a pretty home wedding, Miss Bernice Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, 1924 Gramercy avenue, became the bride of Howard T. Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Terry of Inglewood. The event took place at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, October 31, at the home of the bride with only the members of the families of the contracting parties present.

Rev. George C. Elder, of the First Christian church, officiated.

The bride was lovely in brown satin, with brown hat and matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Patricia Baker, while her cousin, Albert Chambers, of Kansas, served the bridegroom as best man.

After the ceremony, the wedding party sat down to a wedding supper after which the bride cut and served the wedding cake.

The happy couple left for Inglewood where Mr. Terry has purchased a new home.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, Albert Chambers, Miss Patricia Baker, Mrs. Ella Quigley, Mrs. Catherine Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William Terry of Inglewood, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald of Los Angeles, Mrs. Hughson, grandmother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. William Terry, Jr., of Inglewood.

LARGE CROWD AT CHEERIO CLUB PARTY

One hundred and sixty people attended the benefit card party given by the P. E. Cheerio Club Saturday evening at Recreation hall. Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. J. S. Miller and L. Sherman, at 500 to Mrs. Susie E. Confer and Mr. Marshen; at pinochle to Miss Rosa Ortman and H. R. Clark. Pokeno was also played.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISITORS THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. James King, Jr., of San Bernardino were visitors in Torrance Wednesday. Mr. King was formerly police judge here and is now deputy district attorney at San Bernardino.

TURLOCK FOLKS VISIT TORRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Turlock were guests this week of Mrs. Addie Clemons and Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte of Post avenue.

N. B. P. W. HOLD BUSINESS MEETING

Members of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance met at the Nurses Home, 1416 Cota avenue, Monday evening for the regular business session. An unusually interesting session was held with discussions of numerous matters of importance. Among them was the proposition, unanimously agreed upon, to assume if required, a small additional cost of construction for the Girl Scouts clubhouse for which the city council made an appropriation of $250, but which may fall short of the actual amount required due to the fact that the clubhouse will be made larger than was originally planned. The next meeting of the club will be held November 21, with Miss Esther Maxwell as chairman in charge of the program.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curtis, 1321 Engracia avenue, entertained an informal group with a dinner party at their home Monday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney of San Pedro, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burmaster, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, Carl Burmaster and Mrs. Anna Burmaster.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Janet Woodington, 2013 Arlington avenue, entertained members of the Friendship Club at her home Tuesday evening. Cards furnished entertainment and dainty refreshments were served. Included were Mesdames A. B. Denny, Anna McFarland, W. W. West, A. L. Bozeman and J. O. Moore.

BIRTHDAY DINNER HONORS MRS. QUIGLEY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, 1452 Engracia avenue, was the scene of a delightful birthday dinner party last Monday when an intimate group celebrated the event for Mrs. Jack Quigley. Autumn leaves and flowers formed the table decorations. Covers were placed for Messrs. and Mesdames R. J. Rogers, Otis Putman, Wm. Betz of Long Beach, Ed. Osburn of Downey, Jack Quigley and the host and hostess.

After the dinner pinochle furnished diversion and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Jack Quigley and Mrs. Otis Putman and Wm. Betz and Ed. Osburn.

LAFALOT CLUB MEETS

Members of the Lafalot Club were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Althea Wells, Normandie avenue. Prizes for high scores were awarded to Mesdames W. W. West, Garnet Siedebotham and G. J. Batsch. Included were Mesdames Anna McFarland, George Piper, J. O. Moore, J. F. Cook, Ethel Beebe, Garnet Siedebotham, O. J. Batsch, W. W. West, Paul Vonderhe and J. H. McNeill.

Stella Nelson to Open Class Tonight In Contract Bridge

Classes in contract bridge will open in the studio home of Mrs. Stella L. Nelson, 1823 Beech avenue, this evening. Mrs. Nelson will teach the very latest methods in contract bridge. Already a number of persons have availed themselves of the opportunity to enroll in this class.

Mrs. Nelson is an associate of the Culbertson National Studios and is an outstanding teacher in Southern California. Lessons given in class are followed by carefully supervised play. Careful explanation of each play makes the game most fascinating.

Anyone interested in learning contract bridge or in further advancing their knowledge of the game is invited to attend the class. Phone Mrs. Nelson for appointments at Torrance 367.

American Legion Auxiliary News

Saturday morning, November 11, at 11 o'clock, we will pause with bowed heads to pay our respect to those brave men of the World War, who have passed on and again pledge ourselves in service to God and Country.

The American Legion Auxiliary is holding a bake-sale, Friday, November 10, in the entrance to the Masonic temple. There will be a splendid selection of baked goods, also salads, beans and spaghetti.

Our Christmas work must go on and in order to do it we are arranging a Chinese dinner for the evening of December 12. Be sure to save the date.

Our Juniors of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold their meeting in the Legion hall, Friday, November 10, at 3:15 o'clock.

METHODIST CHURCH HOME-COMING CELEBRATION

Two hundred members, former members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal church had dinner and enjoyed a home-coming program in the church last Friday evening. The affair was arranged by members of the Woman's Aid Society of the church.

Mrs. Jack Keefe, president of the Aid Society, acted as toastmistress and was most pleasing in her presentation of the evening's program.

R. F. Hogue, choir leader, led the gathering in a songfest. Phyllis Budge of Wilmington, a former member of the church and choir, sang several numbers. A brass quartet, accompanied at the piano by Gertrude Mowry and under the direction of Charles Chaplin, orchestra leader for the church school, was most pleasing.

The charter members of the church were represented by Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, who spoke of the early days of the church. She was followed by Leonard Snyder, present superintendent of the Sunday school, who represented the newer members of the church in his remarks.

Mrs. Keefe introduced two of the former pastors of the church and their wives, Rev. and Mrs. John Morris and Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Young. Both Rev. Morris and Rev. Young spoke briefly, their remarks being very cordially received by their many Torrance friends.

A delightful little skit, presented by Mrs. William Sinclair and Miss Alice Burger, and depicting interesting incidents in the history of the church, elicited much laughter and enjoyment from the folks.

Mrs. Keefe then introduced the present pastor and his wife, Rev. Winkler responded with a brief message, after which several former members responded to an opportunity to say a word, among them being Mrs. Bill Morris, S. P. Shaw and Mrs. John Morris.

The home-coming evening proved to be one of the most successful programs ever undertaken by the local church.

DINNER PARTY AT M. E. CHURCH

Sixty persons attended the dinner party in the Methodist church Tuesday evening when members of the church school board entertained members of the school orchestra. Officers of the junior department were in charge of the dinner with Mrs. L. C. Burger as chairman. A round table discussion followed the dinner.

KEYSTONE WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

Keystone women are enthusing over the possibility of a new clubhouse January 1. This announcement was made by the finance chairman for the clubhouse, Mrs. James Crumrine. Announcement that Mr. and Mrs. George Nahmens of Keystone had donated the building site on Carson street near Dolores stimulated cash donations from many of the club members. A breakfast in Banning Park is planned for Sunday morning, November 26. Mrs. George Nahmens, ways and means chairman, will have charge of the breakfast. Monies derived from the breakfast will be added to the building fund.

The Keystone Club held their luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. C. Bailey on Carson street, with Mesdames Thomas Cowan, club president, C. E. Harshman and Whitson, assisting the hostess.

After the business session a splendid program was presented which included an address by Mrs. Kelly O'Neill of Huntington Beach. Mrs. O'Neill took as her subject "Poetry of the Bible." She was most interesting. Miss Winona Timberlin of Huntington Park, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Clarence Dayton, also of Huntington Park, sang two numbers. Mrs. Dayton gave several lovely piano numbers.

DINNER GUESTS OF FORMER PASTOR

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis, Mrs. Anna Burmaster were dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Schmid of Glendale, Sunday.

Rev. Schmid is the pastor at Glendale Evangelical church and Dr. Neelands and Charles Curtis sang at the morning service.

In the afternoon Rev. Schmid entertained his guests, including his son, Lowell Schmid, of Santa Ana, by taking them to the Forest Lawn Memorial Park to view the famous painting, "The Last Supper."

Mrs. Keefe introduced two of the former pastors of the church and their wives, Rev. and Mrs. John Morris and Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Young. Both Rev. Morris and Rev. Young spoke briefly, their remarks being very cordially received by their many Torrance friends.

A delightful little skit, presented by Mrs. William Sinclair and Miss Alice Burger, and depicting interesting incidents in the history of the church, elicited much laughter and enjoyment from the folks.

Mrs. Keefe then introduced the present pastor and his wife, Rev. Winkler responded with a brief message, after which several former members responded to an opportunity to say a word, among them being Mrs. Bill Morris, S. P. Shaw and Mrs. John Morris.

The home-coming evening proved to be one of the most successful programs ever undertaken by the local church.
