Monies derived from this game will be divided among the Parent Teachers Associations of the council. Torrance is a member of the council and Mrs. O. E. Hall, past president of the Elementary Parent Teachers, is vice councillor of the council. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. J. O. Bishop, phone 287-W.

DISTRICT PRESIDENT HERE
Mrs. Florence Gallentine, of Venice, president of the Los Angeles district National Business and Professional Women's Clubs, spoke before the local club Tuesday night at the regular district meeting held at the Christian church parlors.

Mrs. Gallentine's subject, "Peace or War—Which?" was most enlightening in its discussion of affairs in Europe and explained the constant threat of war in that area due to the conditions affecting all nations since the close of the World War.

The speaker displayed a wide acquaintance with political affairs and gave the club members here a great deal of food for thought.

A splendid musical program was presented by Miss Mary Furlong of Los Angeles, and Miss Ruth Chick of Inglewood, pupils of Miss Bunola Kay, Los Angeles vocal teacher and popular radio star, who is heard daily over KNX.

Community singing was led by Mrs. Margaret Dobrick. Guests of the evening were Miss Marian Vieths, and Miss Katherine Hillard, Torrance high school teacher and captain of the Girl Scouts.
