

Plenty Action Promised Tuesday Compton Arena

Compton Arena holds the limelight next Tuesday night when Promotor Tad White stages an outstanding program that figures to out rival for action anything staged here in the past. Topping the bill, Dr. F. A. Mullikin, the California light heavyweight champion, will take on Mike Strelch, massive young brother of the "Terrible" Steve Strelch, and one of the most promising of the Strelch boys. They will go two out of three falls with a two-hour time limit.

Prevailing prices for weekly Tuesday night grappling shows at Compton have been found to be the lowest in the Southland. They are 35 cents, 55 cents and 85 cents, tax included.

Cecil McGill, the 19-year-old Long Beach Poly high giant, who is fast becoming one of the "greats" in Pacific coast wrestling circles, returns to battle Tex Wright, young Dallas, Texas, rougher. Pat McGill, known hereabouts as the "Spider," swaps holds with Hy Smith in the second spot. They scale 160 pounds. Bill Grubb, wildman from the Texas cow country, tangles with tough, ready Wally Swanson in the opener.

Gauchos Hold Bell Scoreless In Relay Game At Coliseum

Bon Comrada's Narbonne Gauchos held Bell to no score in their 15-minute session at the opening of the football relay held at the Coliseum Wednesday afternoon. The ball was on the 49-yard line when their part of the show was over.

The final score in the relay was 26 to 13 in favor of the northern division.

Although Bell had the advantage of Narbonne in the number of downs, five to three, they were unable to get past the Narbonne 30-yard line. Allen Rider for the Gauchos, carried the ball on a sideline sprint 35 yards and the team went 30 more for a total of 65 yards to the Bell five-yard line where they were held.

Pitchers Hook Up in Pretty Duel at Lomita Home Park; Honors Go to Moudy Who Fans 14 Batters; Few Hits But Most of Them Long Ones

Walt Morris' Lomita Merchants upset the North Long Beach team of the Inter-city League in their ninth inning last Sunday to win 5-4 after a tight battle.

The Merchants went into the ninth one run behind, but gathered two hits and two runs in that frame to cop the contest.

The game was a duel between Moudy and House, with honors about even.

The Merchants got away for two runs in the second inning and kept ahead of the visitors until the first half of the ninth when two hits and two runs were tallied. The Merchants came back in their half to match this play and the final count showed them one run to the good.

The winning run came on a squeeze play. With one out, Welch singled, Mann tripled, scoring Welch for the trying run, and came home on a squeeze engineered by Van Tress.
