

Children Special Guests at Woman's Club Party

Christmas festivities already claim their place. The first affair of this nature was given at the Torrance Woman's club yesterday afternoon. The club was beautiful with poinsettias in a large basket gracing the center of the room. Luncheon tables were placed in a circle and each table had a bowl of red berries in the center with red tapers in green holders lending a real Christmas glow. The luncheon was a real turkey dinner with all the fixin's. All present were most enthusiastic in their praise. Many old members were present for the affair including Mrs. Robt. Young of Riverside, Mrs. Nettie Steinhilber, Dr. Minnie Procter and Mrs. Clara Curtis of Los Angeles. Guy L. Mowry gave a short luncheon address and told of inroads that are being made on education. He explained that many desirable classes are open at the high school for women and stated that he believed club women would find them most interesting.

Mrs. J. Hitchcock gave a report from the motion picture conference in Los Angeles. She recommended that women support pictures such as "Little Women," "Emperor Jones," "Thunder Over Mexico," and "Cradle Song."

Mrs. Raymond Rogers reported on home economics and urged all club members to attend the Federation meetings in Los Angeles, December 26, 27, 28 and 29.

A splendid Christmas program was presented with Mrs. Robt. Young as guest speaker. Mrs. Young spoke on "The Challenge to Womanhood."

Miss Eleanor Forester of Riverside played two piano selections, "Witches Dance" by McDowell and "To Spring" by Grieg. Mrs. Kenneth Folsom, also of Riverside, accompanied at the piano by Miss Forester, sang a group of numbers: "The Star" by Rogers, "A Song of Thanksgiving" by Allstern, "Christmas Song" by Adams and "The False Prophet" by Scott. Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler gave a most touching Christmas reading entitled "The Chimes."

Seventy-five children then came to have their share in the party. A special program for them featured local artists in readings, dance and song, as well as a program from the Los Angeles School of Dancing. The program follows:

"How Santa Claus Fooled Billy," Arthur James Maskrey. Reading, "The Story of the Wooden Soldier," Eileen Maskrey. Song and dance numbers were given by Neva Ellen Lowen, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jack Berlington. Ellen Wood, a little movie star, came with the dancing troop and gave a very good interpretation of Mae West.

The children were then treated to ice cream and cookies and each received a Christmas box filled with candy and a gift.

MRS. ROBINSON AT HOME

CELEBRATE TENTH ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McVicar were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, November 28, when a number of their friends called at their home on Gramercy avenue to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. On behalf of the guests Alex Ferguson, under a brief complimentary address, presented Mr. and Mrs. McVicar with a handsome china dinner set.

A mock-wedding ceremony with Jack Murray in the role of bride and groom was the highlight. Mrs. Ferguson was the bridegroom, attended by D. N. McCormack as best man. Other members of the wedding party were Mrs. D. N. McCormack, matron of honor; Mrs. Jack Murray, bridesmaid; Mrs. Alex Ferguson, flower girl; Mrs. Gunn Hudson, mother of the bride; Joe Madore, father; Mrs. Fred Boice and Gus Bray, mother and father of the groom; Alex Ferguson, minister.

Others who attended the merry gathering were Mr. and Mrs. John McAuley, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Rachel McLean, Miss Margaret Gordon, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Delena McLean, all of Los Angeles; Mrs. Gynn and Miss Margaret Thompson of Seattle Washington; Fred Boice, G. W. McKenzie, Mrs. Gus Bray, Jack Ferguson, of Torrance; G. Hudson, Neil Hudson and Miss Nina McVicar, of Wilmington.

STAG PARTY HONORS TWO
The home of H. Archer Lewis, 1732 Gramercy avenue, formed the setting for a stag party given by Eastern Star capsule friends for Mr. Lewis and Harry Givens Tuesday evening. Prizes for high scores at bridge were awarded to Messrs. Harry Givens, Archer Lewis, Warren Scrivener and W. W. West. Others present were O. E. Fossom, W. H. Stanger, Willis Brooks, R. Jenkins, Fay Parks, Paul Kasper, J. H. Fess and A. Shrinier.

W. W. WEST ELECTED WORTHY MATRON
W. W. West, 216th street, was elected worthy matron of Torrance Masons at their meeting in the Masonic temple last Friday evening. Officers elected to serve with Mr. West were E. Barlow, senior warden; H. G. Babcock, junior warden; J. H. Fess, treasurer; J. H. Sprout, secretary.

BAZAAR AT WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE
Tuesday evening, December 12, in the Torrance Woman's clubhouse, Engracia avenue, the Latter Day Saints will hold their annual Christmas bazaar. Monies derived from this affair are used for relief work. Everyone is invited to attend.

WILL ATTEND BIRTHDAY PARTY
Several members of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance will attend a birthday party given by the Hawthorne club of that organization, December 18, at the Los Angeles home of one of the members.

The Hawthorne club, which was sponsored by the Torrance club, will be one year old on that date.

DINNER GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Parks and son, James, Mrs. Zada Hastie and Mrs. Ina Scow were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Oaks of Glendale Saturday.

Misses Runyon to Present Pupils in Recital Friday
Frieda Runyon, teacher of violin, and her sister, Alta Runyon, teacher of cello, have re-opened their studio at 2121 Arlington avenue, telephone 209. Beginners and advanced pupils will be accepted and private lessons are given.

The Misses Runyon will present a number of their Torrance pupils in recital Friday evening, December 8, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Torrance elementary school, 220th street and Martina avenue. The public is invited. Among those who will appear on the program are: Maurice and Elmur Edens, Richard Jensen, Hugh Bert Erhard, John Hightower and Virginia Trawler.

WORTHY MATRON AND PATRON FETE OFFICERS
Willis Brooks, worthy patron, and Carrie Parks, worthy matron, of the Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, entertained for their officers, their husbands and wives, with a dinner party and cards Saturday evening.

A bowl of luscious fruit, four red tapers and branches of red berries formed the table decorations. The dinner was spread on the beautiful lace banquet cloth which was presented to Mrs. Parks by her officers earlier in the year. Covers were placed for Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Knudsen, Richard Jenkins, Harry Givens, Eugene Graham, O. E. Fossom, Aby Shriner, Glen Babcock, Warren Scrivener, William Evans, Archer Lewis, Ernest Mosher, J. O. Moore, Roy Winters, Willis Brooks, Fay Parks, Miss Hermine Oetken, Mrs. May McKinley and Mrs. Ina Scow of Shaduck, Oklahoma, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Parks.

After the dinner Mrs. Brooks informed his guests that he was about to take them on a trip and conducted the group to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Parks, 1418 1/2 Marcella avenue, where tables were ready for bridge and pinocle. Prizes were won by Mrs. Archer Lewis and Mrs. O. E. Fossom, and Eugene Graham and Ernest Mosher. At the close of the evening officers were asked to line up for dessert and the women officers of the Star were presented with lovely black evening bags, while the men officers received Eastern Star tie clasps. The gifts were beautifully wrapped in green and red cellophane.

ADLINE SMITH ORACLE OF R. N. A.
Mrs. Adeline Smith was elected oracle at the meeting of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, in their hall at the corner of Torrance boulevard and Portola avenue, Tuesday evening. Other officers elected were Lizzie Benzal, vice oracle; Mae McKinley, recorder; Blanche Crawford, receiver; Elaine Smith, chancellor; Mary Baker, marshal; Martha Cooper, inner sentinel; Angelina Wade, outer sentinel; Thelma Keller, musician; Dr. A. P. Stevenson and Dr. Norman Leake, physicians; Nettie Demman, A. Phillips and Jane Knattger, managers. The five Graces will be appointed at a later date.

Neba Kirschner, district deputy of Culver City, was the visiting officer, and five members of Lomita camp were also guests. A social hour followed the election and refreshments were served.

CHRISTMAS PARTY ON DECEMBER 21
Plans were fully discussed and committees appointed Monday night at the regular business meeting of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance for their annual Christmas party and a benefit party to be held some time in January on behalf of the Girl Scouts, to raise funds for the maintenance of the clubhouse recently completed for this organization.

The Christmas party will be held this year on Thursday evening, December 21, as a conflicting date on the regular meeting night on Tuesday would deprive a number of members of the privilege of attending.

Invitations to attend the district meeting on Saturday, December 9, and the Riverside club's dinner on December 14 which will be a part of the Institute of World Affairs in session for five days in Riverside, were read, and some of the local members will attend.

Following the business session Mrs. Margaret Shoberg, emblem chairman, conducted the program based on the club emblem, with a display of the emblem and the reading of appropriate explanations of its significance.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS
Members of the Friendship Club were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Janet Woodington, 2013 Arlington avenue. Cards furnished diversion and refreshments were served. Included were Mrs. Elsie Bubar of Vancouver, Mrs. Anna McFarland, Mrs. W. W. West, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. J. F. Dalton and Mrs. R. S. Sleeth.

PARTY FOR CLASSMATES
Bernice Sherwin was hostess when she entertained a group of school mates with a party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. C. S. Ashley, 1621 Acacia avenue, last Friday evening. Those who attended were Laura-May Hyde, Donna-Marie Tolar, Florence Buchanan, Betty Elliot, Gerald Templeton, Wayne Kaufmann, Robert Sleeth, Jr., and William Keefe.

CENTRAL CHURCH GUILD MEETS
The Central Church Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. W. J. Neelands, 1338 Engracia avenue, Wednesday, December 13, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Grace Burmaster will be co-hostess. A full attendance is requested.
