BRIDE-TO-BE GIVEN SURPRISE SHOWER

More than 20 friends and relatives surprised Miss Marion Mischeu, who will soon become the bride of Max Smarte, with a delightful bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Melville Hussey, 1519 Beech street, on Tuesday evening.

Lured to the gayly decorated Hussey residence on some pretext, the charming bride-to-be was surrounded by her friends and made the happy recipient of many beautiful gifts. The joyous evening was high-lighted with the appearance of delicious refreshments.

Miss Mischeu, who is widely known in Torrance, was a student at Torrance high school. Mr. Smarte is an employe of the Columbia Steel Company. They will make their future home in Torrance.

HOSPITAL STAFF ENJOYS PARTY

Members of the staff at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital enjoyed their annual Christmas party, held Saturday night at the Nurses Home. A delightful evening was spent with games, exchange of gifts, and substantial refreshments, which were served at the home of Mrs. Minnie Brooks, who had been unable to join her co-workers during the evening. The surprise visit to the Brooks home was a happy climax to the jollity of the evening.

FAREWELL PARTY HONORS MRS. EDWARDS

A farewell party at the home of Mrs. Guy Mowry, 2112 Carson street, Tuesday afternoon, honored Mrs. J. B. Edwards who left Torrance Wednesday to make her home in Pasadena. Mrs. Edwards, a past president of the Methodist Woman's Aid Society, is loved by the entire group of 50 women who Tuesday gave the party. Past presidents of the Aid Society were hostesses and served dainty refreshments. A gift of pottery from the assembly was presented to Mrs. Edwards by Mrs. Jack Keefer, president of the society. Mrs. Edwards thanked the group and bid them welcome to her new home in Pasadena.

PHILATHEA CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, 1811 Gramercy avenue, entertained members of the Philathea class of the Methodist Sunday school at her home Tuesday evening. Poinsettias, holly berries and a Christmas tree formed the decorations. Gifts were exchanged. Those who attended were Mabel-Ella Sweet, Irene Glidden, Katherine Henderson, Helen Bergener, Alice Beck, Frances Snodgrass, Doris Spoon, Marie Morgan, Alice Totten, Margy Curley, Ethel Snyder and Hazel Lewis.

MRS. HUDSON HOSTESS AT CHRISTMAS BRIDGE

The Christmas motif prevailed at the evening bridge given by Mrs. O. W. Hudson, 1753 Andreo avenue, Tuesday evening, to members of the younger set. Prizes at the bridge were awarded to Misses Lillian Wilkeson of Huntington Park, Myrtle Meizner and Geraldine Hall; to Messrs. Pete Hall, Harwood Clark and Charles Ruppel. Others who attended were Vee Kasper, Hazel Clark, Marion Hale, Edith Riley, Fay Hubert, Ralph Harter, Robert Brod, J. Lewis, Howard Hudson and Orville Hudson.

NINTH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Seventy-three employes of the D. & M Machine Works were royally entertained Saturday afternoon in the banquet room of Earl's Cafe, the occasion being the ninth annual Christmas party of this firm.

Each employe was seated according to place cards which contained a crisp new ten dollar bill. A six-piece orchestra furnished music and several acts of high class vaudeville were presented. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by all present.

Frank Dalton and J. W. McQuaid acted as hosts and the party turned out to be one grand family gathering. Mr. Dalton expressed the appreciation of the firm for the loyalty of his employes and stated that without them there would be no success, and hoped that the future would keep the entire group together as they had been in the past.

Employees who had been with the firm over five years were presented, along with "Dad" Glasgow, who was the first D. & M. employe.

B. B. Edwards, one of the department heads, told of the great respect all of the employes held for their hosts and stated that they would all be with the D. & M. when they were great grandpapa.
