MIELLA LEVY

Mrs. Teala Billini, concert pianist and teacher, presented Miella, her pupil, in recital at Miss Levy's home, 1503 El Prado, on Saturday evening, December 29. Seven invited guests were present. The lovely spacious rooms made an ideal setting for this young artist who played most creditably. Her first group of pieces "Prelude in D Minor" by Bach, "Finale From A Major" by Mozart and "German Dance" by Beethoven, were given with technique and fine attention to artistic finish.

TORRANCE WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

N. R. A. has a new and clearer meaning to women of Torrance who Wednesday were privileged to hear Mrs. Albert Mellinkoff of Beverly Hills Elbert Club and a member of the national N. R. A. speakers bureau explain to them that N. R. A. is in reality the law of the prophets being fulfilled under a noble leader. Women she stated, this is the largest part in this program since they are the producers of life. They are vitally interested in caring for humans and in teaching them to care for themselves. She praised Frances D. Perkins, secretary of labor, who with a stroke of the pen settled that long disputed question abolishing child labor.

SHOWER HONORS MRS. GEORGE G. WATSON

Heralding the coming of the "Blessed Event" for Mrs. George G. Watson of Pasadena, Mrs. Baker Smith entertained with a shower in her honor at the Smith home on El Dorado avenue, last Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the baby to be and in selecting a name. Each guest chose a name and the group of names were then presented to Mrs. Watson, who can if she so wishes, select a name from those suggested. Another game which furnished quite a memory test, was what does a baby need? Each person repeated the entire list of articles and added one. Miss Hazel Clark won the prize in this game. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Watson was presented with a number of lovely gifts. Dainty refreshments were served. Included were Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. Baldwin, Miss Donetti McFarland and the honoree, Mrs. George Watson, of Pasadena; Mesdames O. W. Hudson, George D. Watson, N. R. A., Alfred Gearler, John Guyan, Alfred Gearler, Janet Woodington, L. Kirschman, F. H. Clark, Kenneth Roberts, H. W. Roberts, D. A. Murphy, R. F. Bishop, C. L. Ingold, Paul Vonderahe, R. S. Sleeth, Misses Fay Lewis, Hazel Clark and Jane Roberts.
