CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES, "God" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. "The Golden Text" is from Isaiah: "O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, that dwelleth between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth." Among the Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon are the Psalmist's words: "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfeth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness." James' statement is presented also, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

One of the correlative selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, includes the words: "God fashions all things, after His own likeness. For he reflected in existence, Truth in truthfulness. God in goodness, which impart their own peace and permanence. Love, redolent with unselfishness, bathes all in beauty and light."

Good Attendance At Services At Lomita Church

Cowboy Leonard Eilers Will Deliver Final Message Sunday Night

The cowboy evangelist, Leonard Eilers, attracted goodly audiences at the South Lomita church last week in spite of the rain. The meetings close on Sunday night, January 7, and judging by the turnout of the past week, capacity audiences may be expected for Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings of this week.

A unique attraction of the meetings is the thrilling way in which Mr. Eilers draws word pictures of his experiences on the range and in the movies. He will appear four times on Sunday: At Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; at the church service at 11:00 a. m.; at a camp fire meeting for young people at 6:30 p. m. and at the church service in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

One remarkable feature of Mr. Eilers' meetings is the large attendance of children, who fill the front rows of the church and stay awake all through his messages. He leads them in choruses and they are enthusiastic boosters. Friday evening is especially for young people and an even larger attendance is expected than that of last Friday night. This will be the last time Mr. Eilers will appear in his cowboy outfit.

On Friday afternoon at 3:30 he will address the Boys' Prospectors Club at the church and at the close of the meeting at 4 o'clock, he will give a roping exhibition in front of the church to which the public is invited.

On Tuesday afternoon at the Bereah church, Mr. Eilers addressed the combined girls' clubs, consisting of members from both the Lomita and Orange street schools. The little church was well filled. Delegations from Wilmington, San Pedro and Torrance have attended the meetings at various times and there has been special music at every meeting. Mr. Eilers entertains on the harmonica and guitar.
